

REPUBLICAN PARADE COMPLETES CAMPAIGN

LARGE TURNOUT OF REPUBLICANS OF THE COUNTY.

The campaign was wound up in Buncombe county with the Republican horseback parade today. The procession started shortly after noon near Smith's bridge and came up town via Haywood street. The marshals were W. H. Wilson and J. L. Wagner.

The parade consisted entirely of mounted men and men in vehicles. The horsemen rode by twos, and the procession stretched out a considerable distance. The North Carolina State band furnished good music for the occasion.

At the head of the parade was a wagon containing an immense picture of McKinley. Next came carriages containing Senator Pritchard, Judge Adams, Richmond Pearson and other prominent Republicans. Sympathizers on the streets yelled enthusiastically as the procession passed, and many complimentary remarks were passed on the appearance of the parade, which was thoroughly creditable to the party management.

There was a large turnout of the Republicans of the county, and the parade might have been of indefinite length if the negroes had been allowed to participate.

The parade, after passing over the principal streets of the city went to Lookout park, where the crowd was to be addressed by Senator Pritchard and Judge Adams.

MULE TIED OVER A YELLOW JACKETS' NEST

THE ANIMAL KICKED AND DISTURBED COL. LUSK.

The joint campaign between the county candidates closed with the speaking in Limestone township Saturday. There was a good crowd present and, as usual, the sentiment was with the Democrats. Mr. Craig spoke first. When Colonel Lusk replied he had to contend with several distracting incidents. He had only gotten well started when a mule which had been standing peacefully at the hitching post near the speakers' stand began to perform the most violent contortions and those in the immediate neighborhood hustled out of the way of his flying heels. It was discovered that the mule had been tied over a yellowjackets' nest and as soon as the yellowjackets began to get in their work the mule went wild. Such kicking was never seen by the citizens of Limestone since they saw the mule at John Robinson's circus. The mule drew the attention of the crowd to him and Colonel Lusk had to wait until the disturbance was over. Then he began again, when a long freight train passed close by and he was interrupted for several minutes.

MORNING WEDDING.

An early morning marriage took place today at St. Lawrence Catholic church. The contracting parties were Mrs. Kate Miller of Asheville, and Bartolmy Winstirky, both natives of Poland.

The ceremony was performed by Father Marion, the rector, and took place at 8 o'clock. Fred Ward was best man and Miss Johanna Cruise was maid of honor.

This evening a reception will be given the couple at No. 12 Jefferson Drive, from 8 to 10, after which they will leave for their home in Savannah, where they will reside, and where the groom is the proprietor of a large shoe store.

SHOT FROM AMBUSH.

Johnson City, Tenn., July 31.—Michael Bard, a prominent farmer living near Magnette City, N. C., was assaulted from ambush. He died a few hours afterwards. No clue has been secured as to the murderers. He was a prominent politician who had many political enemies. It is said he was assaulted within 20 feet of the place where he killed a man four years ago.

DEATH OF P. MACNAUGHTON.

From the Elgin, Scotland, Courier and Courier of July 17 it is learned that Peter Macnaughton died there July 16. Mr. Macnaughton will be remembered by many residents of Asheville, having resided in this city for a number of years. Mr. Macnaughton built the valuable property on Cumberland avenue now owned by L. A. Farinholt.

LICENSED TO WED.

Eugene Bearden has resigned his position as chief clerk at the Hotel Berkeley to accept a similar one at the Swannanoa. W. C. Hawk, formerly night clerk, succeeds Mr. Bearden and B. F. Tennille, formerly of the Hotel Carolina, Durham, is now night clerk at the Berkeley.

The transparency bearing the words, "Wanted, another faithful liar; price $5000", was placed on Court place after the parade last evening. This morning Collector Harkins charged on it and tramped it under foot. Several excited men soon gathered around and replaced the float and it looked for awhile as if there would be trouble. J. D. Murphy made a short talk and quieted the crowd.

Ed. Smathers was disorderly last evening at his home on West Haywood. Chief of Police Lyery entered the house and, while talking to Smathers, turned his head away for a moment. As he did so Smathers struck him on the head with something like a dynamite cap, which exploded and rendered Chief Lyery insensible for a few moments. He received no permanent injury. Smathers was arrested and will be tried tomorrow morning.

The case of the negro who was injured on French Broad avenue last evening was Henry Stamp. He was picked up by E. Coffin, John Monteith and several other men in the procession. They took care of him until some other men not in the procession agreed to take him towards the square. They were met by a policeman, who took the negro to E. R. Randall's boarding house on Patton avenue. He had recovered apparently today and was able to be about town.

A Chattanooga dispatch to the Knoxville Sentinel says: "Col. F. A. Lincoln, a prominent hotel man of Asheville, N. C., yesterday leased from W. O. Peoples, the Southern hotel for a period of five years. By the terms of the lease Colonel Lincoln agrees to make a large number of improvements in the Southern hotel building, particularly in the way of remodeling the interior. 'Doc' Stephenson of Asheville, formerly of Knoxville, an experienced hotel man, will take charge as Colonel Lincoln's manager."

Dr. E. H. Murfee, president of the Greenville, S. C., Female college, is in the city, staying at 62 Haywood street. He was formerly president of Alabama Central Female college and previously president of Arkansas State university. The college at Greenville is located on the eastern slope of Paris mountain, high, healthy and beautiful. There has been no death in the school since its organization, 47 years. The faculty consists of the best talent. The music department is elegantly equipped, every music room being a parlor. The director, Prof. Hubbard, was educated in both America and Germany and has made a national reputation.

Last evening Mrs. Walter Alexander provided for the guests at A. T. Summey's a novel entertainment in the form of "A Wedding Breakfast". The first part of evening was devoted to the solution of the "mystical menu". At the conclusion of the game the first prize was awarded to Miss Delia Burns of Augusta, Ga., and the consolation prize to Miss Emanuel of this city. They were presented in a neat speech by J. R. Jordan of Charlotte. Delicacies were served, and the affair was voted "charming". The refreshment from a distance were from Rome, Ga., Mrs. Ward and the Misses Ward of Charlotte, Mrs. Brabham of Bamberg, S. C., Mrs. W. Alexander of Charlotte, the Misses Burns of Augusta, Ga., and Messrs. Horn, Jordan, Cannon, Summey, Robinson and Campbell.

THE BALLOT BOXES BEING DISTRIBUTED

TO BE READY FOR THE ELECTION THURSDAY.

The county ballot boxes were being made ready for use this morning under the supervision of J. C. Martin, chairman of the board of elections. The boxes have been stored in the commissioners' room of the court house ever since the election of 1898 and have held the ballots that were deposited then. The tickets were dumped on the floor this morning and made an immense pile of litter.

The boxes are being relabeled and will be sent to the different polling places in the county immediately. There will be six boxes at each precinct. A box is provided for each of the following groups of candidates: County officers, members of the legislature, judges, township officers, state officers, and there will be a box for the constitutional amendment vote.

A cool photographic studio

We have just put in a large electric fan to cool and ventilate our operating room.

Ordinarily a skylight makes an operating room remind one of an oven.

By an ingenious arrangement the current of cool air can be thrown into the dressing room, making it always comfortable.

The electric fan is used for drying plates, films, pictures, etc., quickly.
