The sluggard will not plough by reason of the cold; there-ore shall be beg in harvest, and have nothing. -Proverbs 20:4.

On last Thursday night Presilent Roosevelt gave a reception at he White House, If was a biolored affair. Among the 1,500 cats invited were several negroes, noth male and temale. There were cores, of Southerners present, day of these left as soon as they groed the social equality feature of the reception, The Southerns, at least, who attended did not spect to meet negroes on social nality, and when they discoverd the situation, left highly incenand. A number of Southern Sen-ators and Representatives have destared their intention to never visif the White House again while Judicial district, in order to pre-
