

TOO LATE

The Head gasped with astonishment. Morphine had been an extreme relief, but such lack of comfort and obvious surroundings for a man of means was even to them—Morphine, his men of modest, even unaccustomed habit—unexplicable and unaccountable.

"The Girl From Across."

"Oh!" said the girl in a tone of shocked surprise. "Is it here?" A woman from below answered, rationally, affirming that it was the abode of the Man.

He raised his brows and nodded. "Can I do anything?" "I think not," he replied absently. "I need nothing."

TRAGEDIES OF A ROADHOUSE.

Old Kentucky has a much more interesting history than is generally supposed. On the turnpike leading to Louisville about 15 miles from Bardonia there stood for years an old house which had an interesting history.

BILL ARP'S LETTER

Easton Man Kicks on Small Profit From Sale of His Book.

SAYS MIDDLE MEN GET TOO MUCH

Speech of Senator Hoar, Praising Gouthern, Pleases William Imbush—However, He is Still at Odds With Roosevelt.

I was ruminating about the grand army of middle men that it takes to carry on the trade and commerce of this country. I verily believe that they make more money than the manufacturers and there are twice as many of them.

A SERMON FOR SUNDAY

AN ELOQUENT DISCOURSE ENTITLED "POVERTY AND PIETY."

The Rev. James Alexander Jenkins Says That the Teaching of the Gospel to the Poor is an Evidence of Faith-Teaching Mercy of God.

The words of our text constitute part of the reply of Jesus to John when he sent two of his disciples with the anxious question, "Art Thou that which we say is the Christ?"

NEWS CLEANINGS

Altruistic child labor law has passed in Kansas Senate. Klaki uniforms are now worn by all the foreign troops in China except the Russians.