A Great Sensation.
There was a big sensation in Lee-ville, Ind. when W. H. Brown of that place, who was expected to die, had his life saved by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption.

He writes: "I endured insufferable agonies from Asthma, but your New Discovery gave me immediate relief, and soon thereafter effected a complete cure." Similar cures of Consumption, Pneumonia, Bronchitis and Grip are numerous. It's the simplest remedy for all throat and lung troubles. Price 50c, and $1.00, by Frank T. Smith,
Trival bottles free.

Wedding of Miss Bryson and Mr.
Henry Robertson.
One of the prettiest home weddings in Franklin was that of Miss Laura Bryson and Mr. Henry G.
Robertson, which took place last Thursday morning at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Lewis Lyle Bryson.

The pastor was handsomely decorated for the occasion, the minister occupying the bay window. The first to enter were ushers Thomas Porter and Jean Bryson, and next came Misses Louisa and Margaret Bryson, sisters of the bride, then followed the groom leaning on the arm of Dr. W. A.
Rogers, best man, and a moment later came the bride escorted by her uncle, Dr. B. H. Lyle.

The ceremony, witnessed by a number of relatives and friends, was performed by Rev. E. L. Bain, pastor of the Methodist church. The bride carried a bouquet of white and pink carnations.

The bride wore a suit of Napoleon blue broadcloth with white pean-de-cygne waist. The maids dresses were light gray foulard and steel-gray alpaca.

The bride's only ornament, excepting the groom's present—a handsome brooch studded with pearls and set with a diamond—was a solid gold and enamel bell buckle, which had been worn by three brides in the groom's family; his aunt, his grandmother, and his great grandmother, the latter having been married in the house of General Marion of Revolutionary fame.

The decorations were of English ivy outlining the windows and forming an arch over the bay-window where the contracting parties stood, and bouquets of violets and trailing arbutus. The bride and groom stood under two white hearts tied together by white ribbon in a lover's knot, and before an altar made of white flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. Robertson received many beautiful presents.

Mrs. Robertson is also a favorite and a promising young lawyer with a growing practice.

The bride and groom left immediately on a bridal tour to Atlanta, Ga., and Jacksonville, Fla., and will be absent probably two weeks.

The bride and groom will be at home to their friends after April fifteenth in Franklin.

A petition was being circulated and getting many signatures here last Saturday asking the county commissioners to call an election to vote on the question of compulsory attendance on the public schools.

The Hyira School.
SYLVA, N. C.

DEAR EDITOR:—Allow me, a student of Sylva Collegiate Institute, to write a word for the school.
The people of this section of the State have in Sylva a school to be justly proud of. Boys and girls who want an education that will prepare them for the duties of life can come to Sylva. Parents can not place their sons and daughters in a school where they will be given more attention, both by the people and by the teachers. Our teachers take a special interest in each individual student. The moral environment of this place are not surpassed, and the opportunities for religious development are good. Let me say a word for our new principal, in my judgment Prof. E. Lee Fox is one of the best school principals to be found anywhere. While strict in discipline he takes a kindly interest in the student's life and purposes. He seems to have a high ideal for the school and is working hard to reach it. In closing let me urge the young people of this country to enter the Sylva Collegiate Institute at the beginning of the next year and you will be convinced of the truth of what I have said. The building is a new brick one and in a healthy location. I am ever yours, W. J. McMANUS.

Consumption
The only kind of consumption to fear is "neglected consumption."
People are learning that consumption is a curable disease.
It is neglected consumption that is so often incurable.
At the faintest suspicion of consumption get a bottle of Scott's Emulsion and begin regular doses.
The use of Scott's Emulsion at once, has in thousands of cases, turned the balance in favor of health.
Neglected consumption does not exist where Scott's Emulsion is.
Prompt use of Scott's Emulsion checks the disease while it can be checked.
