

Election returns would sometimes lead one to believe that there are more uncommon than common people in this country.

It did not require a diagram to prove that a recent French duel was a farce. One man was killed.

In Panama they will soon learn the difference between government by revolution and government by injunction.

Instead of going west to grow up with the country the wise youth goes east to grow up with the trusts.

We are too exacting in this country. We expect Alfred Austin to come up to the standard of the sweet singer of Michigan.

While seats in the New York Stock Exchange cost $50,000, the majority of the people will stand or use common
