LAW ENFORCEMENT.

The strict enforcement of the Federal fire laws is something which is coming very much to the front in the administration of the Nantahala National Forest, which includes parts of North Carolina, South Carolina and Georgia. Heavy losses from fire during the past few years, in spite of the active educational campaign against woods burning, has made this course necessary.

Last week a number of fires were started on Government land in Georgia and South Carolina by parties traveling along a public road. A few days later the parties were arrested on a warrant secured by the local Forest Officers, and were taken before United States Commissioner W. B. Ellard at Cornelia. Two of the men were bound over to the April term of the Federal Grand Jury at Athens, while the other two are held as witnesses.

For the willful setting on fire of National Forest timber, undergrowth, etc., the Federal Statutes provide a maximum penalty of five thousand dollars, or imprisonment for not more than two years, or both. For fires started through carelessness the maximum penalty is a fine of one thousand dollars, or imprisonment for not more than one year, or both.

Your 1924 Success.

We accomplish things by laying hold and doing them, sticking to the job everlastingly. Lolling around and dreaming of a better day will not bring it. We must work for it. Success and riches seldom come without effort. The farmer has to get down and dig day after day. His time is his capital. He will not grow wealthy by standing around and wasting his time.

The success of the average Western Carolina farmer for 1924 depends on what he plans within the next few days. Soon crop time will be on us and it will be too late to plan.

Are you going to content yourself with the same old way of doing things? Haven't you gained anything from reading, experience or observation that you will convert into capital this year? Why not apply the knowledge you have gained?

Start with the boy and girl. Give them a chance. Encourage them to participate in the club work. Give the boy a pig or baby beef for the lively contest that will be on this year. Give the girl some eggs or chicks and start her on the road to independence.

Having started the boy or girl right, plant tomatoes, potatoes or strawberries and grow them under contract. Lift yourself out of the old rut. Take a chance at doing something new this year. Your county agent is ready and ever willing to assist you. Call on him for information when you need it. Create some additional wealth for yourself this year. Produce something and co-operate closely with the Farmers' Federation and see if you can't reach the end of 1924 with some additional money to your credit.

Plan a big year and get at it immediately or you will be too late for 1924 success. Make your plans now.

POULTRY SALE.

It has been decided to hold the first co-operative car load poultry sale for the season on Wednesday, April 9th. There may be some farmers who would rather have the sale at an earlier date. But we want to be sure of enough to make a car load. Where possible it would be a good idea to put up the thin chickens to be sold and feed on milk and other fattening feeds for at least a week before the sale. This should add weight and quality. Those who are planning to bring poultry to the sale will greatly help by writing County Agent Arrendale a card telling him what you expect to bring. If you are too careless to co-operate please do not howl and growl when you are disappointed in the way things have gone.

In Memory of Ed Lowe.

The people of our community were deeply grieved to hear of the death of Ed Lowe, which occurred March 26, 1924, at about eleven o'clock Wednesday morning. He took sick about eight days before he was called to meet his God.

It was very sad to hear of his death and he is greatly missed by all who knew him. He joined the Cowee church twenty years ago and has been a faithful member ever since. Ed has been a great worker in the B. Y. P. U. and has tried to lead the young in the way that they should go. He has been a faithful B. Y. P. U. president at Iotla and Cowee churches. It is very sad indeed to part with a dear friend like he was. Although it seems as if we can't do without him, but by the help of God we are going to keep our B. Y. P. U. still going, and if each member will do their part we can depend on God for His part. We feel as if there is no one that could fill his place, but as unworthy as we are, I think that each one should be willing to try to do what they are called upon to do and not be ashamed to do anything that God tells us to do.

Ed leaves a father, two brothers, four sisters and a host of friends and relatives to mourn his death. There is in the midst of our sorrow a great hope to look forward to, that we'll see him again with the rest of our loved ones in heaven if we live a life for the Lord. Ed always had a smile on his face and words of cheer on his lips. Even in the darkest hours he could plant words of cheer in our hearts which would make us happy. I feel as if God's crown is covered with golden stars. So let us all strive to meet him some day.

May God bless us B. Y. P. U. members and show us what to do. Ed has planted seeds in our hearts and I hope they'll keep growing and some of us will be great workers like he was. FANNIE GIBSON.

Announcement.

To the Voters of Macon County: After careful consideration from a personal standpoint, I have decided to withdraw from the race for the office of Register of Deeds. For the past ten years I have held the office of Register and have discharged the duties that devolved upon me to the best of my ability. For the others who may aspire to the place I am relinquishing I have nothing but the kindest feelings.

I trust that my withdrawing from the contest may not be misinterpreted. I am doing so purely from personal reasons. I have every assurance that my friends would have rallied to my support in this election as they have in the past. Such friendship as this makes one proud of his country and the people who constitute its citizenship.

Thanking all who have aided me in the past, and assuring all of my most lively interest in anything that may make for the upbuilding of our county, I am, Respectfully,
 ELMER JOHNSON.

Death of John L. Tallent.

John Logan Tallent was born September 6, 1851, and died March 25, 1924, being 72 years, 6 months and 19 days old. He was a member of the Iotla Methodist Church, and his last days were as a shining light to those who stood around his bedside. He asked his friends to pray with him. He told some of them he was ready to go, and is gone to meet the old soldiers of the Cross, who like Paul did fight a good fight. So let us all live a life that will carry us up there where parting is no more. W. A.
