

Personal Mention

Mr. Wilson Smart is home on a visit to friends and relatives.

Prof. T. G. Dean of Etna was in Franklin on business last Saturday.

Miss Carolyn Sloan visited friends in Atlanta last week.

Buy your Christmas Turkey at the Farmers Federation.

Franklin's schools close today for the Christmas holidays.

Mrs. Burton Lyle made a business trip to Clayton last Wednesday.

Attorney Dean Sisk made a business trip to Asheville last Tuesday.

Miss Allie Caler from Nanahala was a visitor to Franklin last week end.

Wrist Watches for the ladies' Christmas Presents. Grover Jamison, Jeweler.

Take your Jefferson Standard Life Policy with W. B. Lenoir, Resident Agent.—Advertisement.

Work on Mr. Dick Hudson's new brick house on West Main street is progressing nicely.

Mr. E. E. Watkins of Albany, Ga., is up on a visit of friends and relatives in Franklin.

Mrs. M. D. Billings left last Monday for Daytona Beach, Fla., to spend the winter.

Mr. Tom Angel went to Asheville last Monday to have an operation performed on his eye.

I have that big calander for you if you will call for it. Frank T. Smith Prescription Druggist.

F. M. Weaver of Asheville spent the week end with his sister, Miss Irene Weaver.

Pearl Necklaces for the ladies' Christmas Present. Grover Jamison Jeweler.

Mr. Joe A. Conley has been sick for a few days, but is now able to be out again.

Dr. Frank T. Smith has been confined to his home for a few days with the flu.

Mr. Munday Sherrill has accepted a position in the drug store of Dr. Frank T. Smith.

Mr. D. Robert Davis went to Sylva last Monday to assist a realty and auction company in selling a farm.

Mrs. Frank Cunningham of Iotla was doing Christmas shopping in Franklin last Monday.

Rev. A. W. Jacobs of Cullasaja was greeting his many friends in Franklin last Wednesday.

Clever Charlie Henderson of Gneiss was in town on business last Wednesday.

Rev. A. J. Smith has been conducting a revival meeting at Coweta this week.

Some of you hog raisers beat this one. Mr. W. J. Berry of Holly Springs on Route Four killed a hog on the 16th of December that weighed 420 pounds dressed. It was a Duroc.

A marriage license was recently issued to Mr. Lon C. Thompson and Miss Grace Hopper.

Mrs. Elsie Franks, now teaching at Holly Springs, was a visitor to Franklin last Tuesday.

Clerk Frank I. Murray has been giving the old confederate soldiers their pension money this week.

All the advertisers in the Press report that their Christmas trade has been exceedingly good this week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Bulgin left last Friday for Fort Meyers, Fla., to spend the winter.

The Leona Lyle Missionary Society will hold a pageant at the Methodist church at 7:00 P. M., Sunday, the 21st instant.

Hereafter the Press will not send you a postal when your subscription expires. Better look at the label on your paper.

Mrs. E. E. Watkins of Albany, Ga., arrived at Franklin last Tuesday to spend some time with her mother, Mrs. J. A. Conley who is ill.

Mr. Will Sloan was sick for a few days this week, but is again at his place of business waiting on his numerous Christmas customers.

J. S. Porter & Company and W. C. Cunningham have decided not to consolidate their stores as announced in the Press recently.

Mr. R. S. Robinson, with the Western Electric Company, Atlanta, visited Franklin on business last week end.

Mr. Hayes Snyder has been very sick for some time. His friends hope to see him again on the streets at an early date.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Palmer of Akron, Ohio, are visiting relatives and friends in Franklin and Macon county.

Mr. E. B. McCollum has been with his family for some time. Franklin is always glad to welcome Mr. McCollum home.

Judge and Mrs. Clement Sutton and two children from Washington, Ga. spent the week end with Mrs. Sutton's parents, Dr. and Mrs. S. H. Lyle.

Messrs. Mims and Weyman Crawford entertained the Leno Lyle Missionary Society at a Christmas party last Friday evening at the home of Prof. and Mrs. W. H. Crawford.

Mrs. J. A. Conley is not improving as her many friends had hoped. She has been moved from her home to that of her daughters, Mrs. Henry Cozad.

Dr. S. H. Lyle accompanied Miss Irene Weaver to Atlanta last Monday. It is believed that an operation on Miss Weaver will be found necessary.

Mr. T. W. Alexander and Mr. Roy Cunningham accompanied Mr. R. S. Robinson to Atlanta last week end. Mr. Alexander will spend his vacation in that city.

Mr. Chas. Mallonee has been at home for some time at the bedside of his infant. This baby has been seriously ill but at last reports was some better.

Mr. John Jolley who has been attending the Agricultural and Engineering College at Raleigh arrived Thursday to spend the Holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Noah Jolley on Nickajack.

DELICIOUS FOOD

A big feast at Reece's restaurant EVERY DAY. From early morn until late at night we serve the most delicious and wholesome food in Franklin. In fact those who dine at our restaurant marvel at the many kinds of WELL COOKED meats we serve, and claim that our dinners are just like Christmas dinners. Our pastry cook is an EXPERT. Her cakes and pies will delight you. We also serve all kinds of nice fruits and vegetables. We carry a fresh line of candies, cigars and cigarettes.

Come one, come all and enjoy our breakfasts, dinners and suppers.

REECE'S RESTAURANT

TRUTH HONOR FAIR DEALING

Have you been in "The White Brick Building On the Square" recently? If not you have a surprise awaiting you. There you will find hundreds of tires, inner tubes and all kinds of accessories. Give your car a Christmas present.

A carload of new Fords will arrive in a day or two.

JOINES MOTOR & TRACTOR CO.

"The White Brick Building On the Square"

We told you last week what we had to offer you in gifts, etc., for

Christmas

We still have some of these things left but they wont last long at the rate they have been going.

Call in to see us and let us help you with your Christmas shopping, it will be a pleasure to serve you.

FRANK T. SMITH

Prescription Druggist Franklin, N. C.

WORTHWHILE GIFTS

There is something here for all the family, and best of all, whatever you select in our store is a "Worthwhile gift."

Of course all the good things we have for Christmas cannot be mentioned here—there are hundreds.

The housewife appreciates useful Gifts—not necessarily expensive Gifts—something she can use daily something to lighten her household cares.

You will find something here that will answer your question, "What to give for Christmas."

A Merry Christmas and a Happy and Prosperous New Year to all.

MACON COUNTY SUPPLY CO.