

Methodist Matters
By REV. W. M. SMITH

A good deal of interest is being manifested in the all day meeting to be held in the Franklin Methodist church next Wednesday, May 20th. This meeting is for every body and all are cordially invited to attend. All the official members of the Macon Circuit, Franklin Circuit and Franklin Station are urged to attend. The presiding elder, Rev. P. W. Tucker, will be in charge. The program will be interesting from the beginning to the close. Dinner will be served at the church. The services will start at 10:30 o'clock Wednesday morning. The following is the program:

- 10:30 Devotional services conducted by Rev. Van B. Harrison.
- 10:45 Macon County and Methodism—T. J. Johnston.
- 11:00 The Work of the Woman's Missionary Society—Mrs. G. A. Jones.
- 11:15 Address by Rev. P. W. Tucker.
- 11:30 Preaching by Dr. Frank Siler. Dinner.
- 1:45 Address by Mr. James Atkins.
- 2:15 What can we do in the way of Consolidation, or Division to make our work more effective in Macon county—Mr. Lee Crawford.
- 2:30 The Goal for our Charge this year—Messrs. S. L. Rogers, Ralph West and James Mann.
- 2:45 Round table discussion. Adjournment.

Mr. Rogers Withdraws

Hon. S. L. Rogers has withdrawn from the race for Alderman. At a meeting of the Board of Canvassers on the 8th instant Mr. W. L. Higdon was declared elected as one of the Aldermen of Franklin. It will be remembered that Mr. Rogers and Mr. Higdon received the same number of votes in the election of May 5th.

Notice of Publication of Summons

Macon County—North Carolina. In Superior Court.
Gertrude Richert vs.

James Supply Company and J. C. Richert

To the non-resident defendants, James Supply Company, and J. C. Richert who is concealing himself to avoid service of process take notice.

That an action entitled as above has been commenced in Superior Court of Macon County against said defendants; that the purpose of said action is to set aside a deed and have the said defendant, J. C. Richert declared a trustee of the plaintiff for her use and benefit in the lands described in the complaint which is now on file in the office of the clerk of the Superior Court of Macon County to which reference is hereby made for a more specific description, and for the purpose of preventing the James Supply Company from selling said land under execution or otherwise doing anything that may in any way interfere or hinder the rights of the plaintiff as set out in said complaint.

The said defendant, James Supply Company will take notice that an injunction and restraining order, has also been signed by T. B. Finley, Judge, restraining and enjoining the defendant, J. C. Richert from disposing of the said property, and the defendant, James Supply Company from selling same or in any wise proceeding further with the judgment it has taken at Spring term, 1924, at Macon County Superior Court against the defendant, J. C. Richert and the James Supply Company, and let said defendants take notice that they are required to appear on the 30 day of May, 1925 and answer or demur to the complaint of the plaintiff in this cause, or the relief therein will be granted.

This 1st day of May, 1925.

FRANK I. MURRAY,

AWH-M29 Clerk Superior Court.

THE CAR FOR THE MILLIONS

20 PER CENT MORE POWER

Springtime is joytime. 'Way back in the mountains in inaccessible coves the mountain torrents tumble in ecstasy to join the brimming river. There in crystal pools lie the speckled beauties waiting for a chance to grab your fly. Did we say the coves are inaccessible? Perhaps they are to all cars save the STAR.

Put your family in a STAR and hie away to delightful fishing waters with the absolute assurance that you will get there and back. Or perhaps you are thinking of a long journey. If so, the ease, power and comfort of the STAR are yours for the asking.

We have on hand a carload of STARS including a STAR COUPSTER, the niftiest little car on the market. To see this product of the designer's art it to buy.

Rabun County Lets Contract

Today Rabun county, Georgia, will let a contract for a concrete road from the North Carolina line to the Habersham county line. This road will be equally as wide or wider than the road that the state is building from Franklin to the Georgia line.

Zeb Happy

On the 8th of May there was born to Mr. and Mrs. Zebulon Conley a ten pound boy. Mr. Conley not only continues to build houses but is now planning air castles. At last accounts both mother and baby were getting along nicely.

Sisk Town Attorney

On May 9th the town board met and elected former mayor, R. D. Sisk, as town attorney, H. W. Cabe, clerk, R. M. Coffey, chief of police and Dr. Horsley as health officer.

LEADERS THAT LEAD

Merchants publish dope about their leaders. And sometimes they actually lead—and sometimes they don't. THESE DO.

Uncle Ed is ready for the whole family. Dry Goods, Notions, Shoes or Groceries—he has the merchandise and he meets and beats every form of competition yet devised by the ingenuity of Franklin's merchants.

And when they start putting out LEADERS— THAT'S HIS SUIT!
