YOU can't keep a good oil out

It worms its way to every bearing surface

It forces rubbing surfaces apart, preventing friction. A good reliable oil without any frills. The kind that's used by engineers, who know a good oil when they see it.

"STANDARD" MOTOR OILS

Based on over 50 years' experience

At night after the evening meal is the "Wright hour". Then read aloud to the family latest and best story, "A Son of His Father". Several hundred thousand families are doing this within a week after publication. Be one of them. $2.00 a copy at all bookstores. D. Appleton & Company, Publishers, 35 West 32nd Street, New York.

Mr. William Van Houten, instructor in the Georgia School of Technology, Attorneys James A. Miller and E. G. Jackson of Atlanta, and Mr. Jerome Jones, editor of the Journal of Labor, Atlanta, spent the night of August 2nd in Franklin. Mr. Jones has property interest in Clayton and is therefore intensely interested in the link of the Atlanta-Franklin-Asheville Highway through Rabun and Habersham counties.

Mr. and Mrs. Rush Buckner of Lavinia spent Monday night in Franklin on their way to Lake Junaluska. Mr. Buckner is editor the the Lavinia Times and utilizes many columns of his paper in advocating good roads for Georgia and particularly for his section. He was generous in his praise of the highways of North Carolina. Both Mr. and Mrs. Buskner are delighted with Franklin and vicinity.

Mrs. Ellen Green of Lancaster, Texas, who was born and reared in Macon county, is here on her first visit for 32 years. Mrs. Green is the daughter of the late Capt. T. T. Siler and is here to attend the reunion of the Siler family on August 6th. She is accompanied by her niece, Miss Mildred Mitchell, also of Lancaster.

Mr. James M. Gray, state agent in charge of county agents, and Mr. R. G. Lawton, agricultural agent of the Southern Railway, have been in Macon county this week attending the farmers' picnics and making speeches in the interest of better farming in this county.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius W. Cone of Greensboro have been spending a few days with their daughter, Frances, at Camp Taukeetah. Both Mr. and Mrs. Cone are delighted with Camp Taukeetah and Franklin and are enthusiastic boosters for this section of the state.
