

A GLANCE AT THE FUTURE

The Franklin Press is Dedicated to the Interest of Macon County. To see this county, upon which an all-wise Creator has bestowed with lavish hand the manifold blessings of nature, come into its rightful heritage is the supreme desire of the editor. Unless all indications prove false, next spring and summer will find Macon County in the midst of an unprecedented era of prosperity.

The next issue of the Press or the one thereafter will carry a full page advertisement celebrating the completion of Franklin's $300,000 dam and power house. Forty firms and individuals whose names the advertisement carries will tell the world of our good fortune.

And please do not forget the great Christmas issue of the Press which will appear on December 11th. Two pages of advertising space are still available. Reserve your space now.
