Published by the S. S. S. Society.

Editorial.

As we go along we sometimes stop and think what we are living for. Of course, in our own lives, we do not all live for the same purpose, but in the end we might say we all live for happiness. Is it a pleasure to do things we want to do? We usually consider helping ourselves a great pleasure. Do we consider it happiness to help others? Who is made glad when some kind deed is done? Not only ourselves, but others. A word of praise is often returned for a kind deed, but when we do an act of kindness we know we will be praised? No. Then the one who is always ready and willing to help others is not looking for praise in return. Do we find that person often? Where might we look for him? In school? Yes.

Today is the time to begin to show our aim in life. Start by doing some kind deed which will prove a pleasure both to you and some others. We should not wait until tomorrow to begin our work. Perhaps tomorrow we will not have the same opportunity we have now. Today is school life. Can we not begin today and let others around us see what we are living for?

School News.

The S. S. S. Literary Society had charge of the program given last Friday. The dialogues, orations, etc. were delivered with unusual spirit and the program was immensely enjoyed. The singing, by a group of girls, was also good. The societies are still competing against each other in giving the best programs and so far each seems to be doing as good work as the other.

Miss Weaver's Home Economics girls entertained us during chapel period Tuesday morning. The program was very cleverly planned and the whole school enjoyed it very much.

The senior class has put out nice young maples along the side walk. They will look fine some day. We know Major Harris and many others will be greatly pleased.

The boys' team went to Dillard last Friday to play basketball. Although they met with defeat they all had a good time and enjoyed the trip. Some of the students went down to see the game and yell for them.

Both the boys and the girls went to Iotla last week for a game of basketball. The boys were victorious, but the girls lost. Both games were very exciting and there were many spectators.

The Teacher Training department gave us examples of the various kinds of music Thursday morning. They gave us some jazz, of course, but ended with several classical selections. The program was most instructive and entertaining.

A number of enterprising merchants and firms of Franklin have very kindly helped P. T. A. to encourage the attendance of the patrons of the school to the monthly meetings of the association. The fine pictures they gave are on exhibit at the place of business of the different firms and they are certainly worth working for. The following firms gave pictures:

Bryant Furniture Co., E. K. Cunningham and Co., The Frank in Hardware Co., The Franklin Pharmacy, The Bank of Franklin, and W. C. Cunningham and Co.

At the end of the third year children should be able to write as well with pen and ink as they did with pencil at the end of the second. He should write with ease neatness and legibility, and word he needs to use.

Boy Scout Supper

Last Friday night, instead of the regular meeting, the Boy Scouts had a supper in their hall. This supper consisted of hot cocoa, cakes, sandwiches, apples and marshmallows. Apples were donated by Sloan Bros. and Company.

This is the first of several suppers the Scouts will enjoy during the winter.

There are 46 members of the Scout troop, 32 of whom were present at the supper. Dates of the other suppers will not be announced, so any scout who is absent from any meeting may miss a good supper.

Otto News Items

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Cabe spent Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. Vance Rogers, at Prentiss.

Mrs. J. E. Henson entertained the young people of the community with a quilting and candy drawing last Saturday. It was given in honor of her son Ed's nineteenth birthday.

Messrs. Clarence Teague and Claud Bingham from Tugalo, Ga., visited Mr. J. H. Cabe, Jr., last week-end.

The following attended the singing at Tessenta Sunday: Mr. and Mrs. Yonce Bradley, Misses Verna McClure and Nellie Cabe.

Miss Pearl Cabe of Tryphosa, spent last week-end with her father, Mr. Henry Cabe.

Miss Lucy Cabe is in school after being absent a week on account of mumps.

The following are confined at home with mumps: Mae Burr Henson, Ray Cabe, Harry McDowell, Alex Cabe. We hope they will soon recover.

Mrs. Vance Rogers and little son Gilmer, are spending the week with Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Cabe.

Miss Lois Cunningham and bother Louis, were the guests of Miss Hazel Cabe last Sunday.

Miss Gordie Norton from Coweta section visited at the home of Mr. Mallie Cabe last week-end.

The young people of the community enjoyed an old-fashioned corn-shucking at Mr. E. N. Keener's Saturday.

The girls' and boys' basketball teams of Otto school have organized and are ready to play some lively games. They hope to meet the Union teams this week.

The pupils realize the importance of being in school every day, especially the 1st weeks. Our attendance is good considering the mumps and weather. The seventh grade pupils are planning to enter some school with a longer term after school closes at Otto, in order to complete the work of seventh grade.

Barnard-Omohundro

Miss Grace Barnard of Franklin and Mr. Allen Omohundro of Virginia, were married at Clayton, Ga. on November 14th. These young people had planned to keep their marriage a secret for a few weeks, but the Clayton Tribune announced the wedding in its issue of last week. After the Tribune reached Franklin the news spread rapidly and Mrs. Ohohundro has been the recipient of many congratulations within the past few days. Mr. Omohundro is with the highway department in a nearby county.

The bride is one of Franklin's most charming and gifted young matrons and has hundreds of friends who will be interested to hear of her marriage.

Mr. Omohundro holds an important position with the state highway department having met his bride about a year ago while surveying roads in Macon county.

The Press joins numerous acquaintances in extending congratulations and best wishes to the happy couple.

BUILDING UP POULTRY INDUSTRY IN NORTH CAROLINA

During the past season the North Carolina division of markets demonstrated to the farmers of North Carolina that poultry could be marketed at a profit in car lot shipments and that poultry flocks on the farm could add materially to the farm income. The next step is to increase the quantity and quality of these flocks. The logical way to bring this about is through the establishment of reliable hatcheries to supply baby chicks to the farmers. Early hatched baby chicks in quantities are being priced to producers by the large hatcheries outside the state at present. The division of markets advises those desiring baby chicks for either broiler or breeding purposes that we have worked out plans for accrediting hatcheries and breeding flocks of standard bred poultry in this state and that reliable chicks can be bought from these hatcheries.

The accrediting of these hatcheries and flocks is under the supervision of State Department of Agriculture and when this service was worked out last spring, the department had in mind the improvement of poultry breeding flocks of the state as well as the successful marketing of poultry and eggs. In a short while the division of markets will be in a position to furnish the names and addresses of flocks being accredited for the 1926 production of chicks.

A Correction

Mr. Charlie Shields says that the Press was in error in stating in last week's issue that he is trying to prevent the General Mica & Clay Company from operating its plant at Iotla bridge. Mr. Shields is anxious to have this plant continue work, but does want some adjustment of what he considers the sand menace.

The Press had its information from a reliable source. We are glad, however, to place Mr. Shields before the public in the proper light.

EAT AT REECE'S RESTAURANT

Those who ate our turkey dinner on Thanksgiving Day are loud in their praise of our culinary department.

Just remember that Christmas is coming when another treat awaits the public. And think also of the numerous treats between now and Christmas.

When hungry, drop in.
