Fairview School Closes

Fairview school closed January 1, with a good record for first grade attendance especially. There were only fifteen regular pupils yet nine never missed a single day, and two missed only one day each. The following never missed a day:

First Grade—Hazel Dills, Gay Dills, Inez Hogue, J. L. McMahan, Arrie Dills, Virtie Dills, Marie Mashburn, Julia Kilpatrick and Auzel McMahan.

Third Grade—Carmon Kilpatrick. Their good attendance is also shown by the fact that the average was 32 every month except the third and fifth when it fell to 31, though the highest monthly enrollment was about 35. They did not let below zero weather hinder their going to school. They considered school their business and showed plainly they desired to be successful men and women.

Coming! Coming!!

The Franklin Circuit Sunday School Institute will hold its regular fifth Sunday meeting at the Iotla Methodist church on January 31. As this is the first meeting for the year 1926, a large attendance is urged. And it is vitally important that all Sunday school officers and teachers be there. An attractive and helpful program has been arranged and in order that you can come early and stay late the good people of Iotla will serve dinner on the ground. Everyone is cordially invited, regardless of whether you attend Sunday school or not. If you expect to take in the whole program, you will have to be there on time, as a full schedule has been arranged and you can feel assured that although we will be glad to have you with us, we will not wait until you come before we start, unless you are there at 9:45 a. m. Be there on time with a ravenous appetite and plenty of "pep" and we will do the rest.

The general theme for the meeting will be "Sunday School." The program follows:

- 9:45—Invocation, welcome, songs.
  - 10:15—C. C. Poindexter, on "Why People do not Attend Sunday School." Songs.
  - 11:00—Prof. M. D. Billings on "The Value of the Sunday School to the Individual and to the Community." Songs.
  - 12:00—Dinner on the ground for everybody.
  - 1:00—Songs.
  - 1:15—Rev. Reavis, on "A Church Without a Sunday School." Songs reports, business, announcements etc. Songs, benediction.
- A special program of songs has been arranged and they will be sung by the best singers this side of Heaven. Read their names: The Daltons will all be there, Jim Raby will be there, Ernest Roper will be there with a full class, and many others that space will not permit the mention. To fail to hear them at the Iotla Methodist church on January 31, will be to miss the treat of your life.

C. C. POINDEXTER, President.

RICHARD The Lion-Hearted
More than seven centuries ago lived Richard, the Lion-hearted, king of England. "In days of old when knights were bold," ruled this mighty king, he with the heart of a lion. Yet so true to life is the moving picture depicting the life of Richard one is carried back into the dim and misty past wherein kings made history by great deeds of personal valor on the fields of battle. In this, the greatest of all screen pictures, you may see Richard Coeur de Lion as he leads his Christian hordes into the east in a supreme effort to wrest the holy sepulcher from the hands of the infidels. Watch him on his return to England after having concluded peace with the Turks. See this lion-hearted king in a German prison, note his escape and return to his native land only to find his brother trying to succeed to the throne of England. Civil war follows with Richard victorious. In this magnificent production Wallace Beery takes the part of "King Richard" and vividly portrays the life of one of the most fascinating characters in history.
