The Sunday school is steadily growing at Louisa Chapel. Come on, people, let's make this the best year yet.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Guffey and little daughter Agnes, and Mr. and Mrs. Raleigh Guffey all of upper Cartoogechaye, spent Sunday night with their aunt, Mrs. Van Frazier.

Messrs. E. J. and Lush Frazier spent a few days the past week on Nantahala. They reported snowing weather out there.

Keep to the Right

Recently there has been quite a bit of complaint to the effect that drivers of cars and wagons do not keep to the right of the road. On straight stretches of road this does not particularly matter, but when rounding curves it is very important that drivers of all vehicles keep to the right. Unless the simple rules of the road are observed it is only a question of time until some one will be killed on one of the many sharp curves in the county.

Tiling Arrives For The Maxwell School

Mr. J. E. Lancaster, superintendent of the Maxwell school, has been busy this week seeing to the unloading of two carloads of tiling to be used in draining 15 or 20 acres of bottom lands belonging to the school. The estimated cost of the tiling and labor necessary to place it in the ground is approximated at about $2,000.

For years the meadow lands at the school have been too wet to raise crops. Draining the lands will add considerably to the value of the farm. It is understood that much of the drained area will be planted to truck crops.

Mr. Lancaster is again able to visit town after a severe case of flu. Mrs. Lancaster is also out again after suffering with the same disease. Mr. Lancaster reports that epidemics of flu and mumps among the boys are well under control.
