

CULLOWHEE TO HAVE UNIQUE COMMENCEMENT

Cullowhee, March 30.—Cullowhee State Normal school is planning a commencement program that is different. There will be none of the usual debates, declamation, recitations or oratorical contests. The main body of the program will consist of a sort of Western North Carolina Pageant. This pageant has been written by Professor Bird's English classes. It consists of five separate acts, each representing a period in the history of Western North Carolina. The first act deals with the Indian period; the second, with the colonial and revolutionary period; the third with the Civil War; the fourth with the World War; while the fifth is an allegorical representation of Western North Carolina linking the past and the present with the future by means of prophecy. The last division is the product of the Senior Class and will be given by them. This will take the place of the conventional class day exercises, usually consisting of a class history poem, will and testament, prophecy etc.

The commencement program will be different from other commencements in another respect. It is not simply an entertainment feature, a sort of dramatic "blow-out," at the end of the session. This year has been deliberately made a Western Carolina year in all classroom work. The library has emphasized this idea, too, by making a collection of books written by citizens of Western North Carolina or by outsiders but dealing with this mountain section. The commencement will be an outgrowth or summary of the year's work in classrooms, an exhibit of what has been done and thought since last September.

Remember the second and fourth Wednesdays.

In the end of the Sabbath, as it began to dawn toward the first day of the week, came Mary Magdalene and the other Mary to see the sepulcher.

And, behold, there was a great earthquake; for the angel of the Lord descended from heaven and came and rolled back the stone from the door, and sat upon it.

His countenance was like lightning and his raiment was white as snow.

And for fear of him the keepers did shake, and became as dead men.

And the angel answered and said unto the women, Fear not ye; for I know that ye seek Jesus, which was crucified.

He is not here: for He is risen, as He said. Come, see the place where the Lord lay.

And go quickly and tell His disciples that He is risen from the dead: and, behold, He goeth before you into Galilee; there shall ye see Him; lo, I have told you

Stiles Locals

Mr. Douglas Hood was the guest of Mr. Emory Justice Sunday eve.

Messrs. Carl and Ralph Morgan Alex and Willie Owenby have finished their contract cutting timber for the Mill Ridge Lumber company.

Several coops of chickens left this vicinity Wednesday to greet the chicken car.

Mr. S. A. Hunter of Bryson City traveling salesman for Stern & Co. of Richmond, Va., was in this section Monday on business.

Mr. Charlie Carnes is at home after spending the winter months in Florida.

The real estate fever is back to normal in this vicinity.

Mrs. W. E. Smith, sorry to state, is in a serious condition with pneumonia and side pleurisy. Drs. Fouts and Williams are waiting on her.

Mr. Austin Byrd and family have been ill with flu but are better now.

Mr. Allen Welch is rebuilding the bridge across Burningtown creek at the Morgan school. We must compliment him for his good work.

Mr. Furman Anderson was the guest of Mr. Elijah Smith Sunday evening.

Mr. Weldon Justice has moved to Georgia to make it his future home.

The farmers of this section are taking advantage of this pretty weather plowing for corn and sowing oats.

A timber deal is on hand at Mr. C. B. Moody's. If it goes through it will give employment to several men this summer and fall.

Mr. Clyde Morgan is building for the Sheep Knob Lumber Co.

The Mill Ridge Lumber Company have begun work again after being off for a few days.

Mr. Harry Morgan who is working at Wesser, N. C., spent the week-end with home folks.

Mr. Ralph Morgan was a visitor at Oak Grove Sunday.

The good road movement does not seem to be active. We are needing several changes in our roads and it is hoped the trustees and commissioners will get active, as good roads are the life of any community.

Next Poultry Sale

The next car or cars of poultry is to be loaded at Franklin on April 14 and at Otto on April 15.

In order that he may know how many cars to order, County Agent Arrendale asks that all poultry for this shipment be listed with him on or before noon, on Thursday, April 8th. A card will be mailed or given those who list poultry for the sale. This ticket is to be brought to the sale to be numbered and placed on your coop of poultry. In other words, it will be your permit to load poultry on that day. Those who do not list will load in turn after those who list have loaded provided there is room.

County Agent Arrendale wishes to thank those that listed their poultry promptly for the last sale. It enabled him to get ready for the overflow by ordering the second car. If all poultry had been listed on Thursday before the sale, two crews could have been loading in two cars on Wednesday, with the result that the farmers would not have had to wait so long.

With so many farmers shipping so much poultry there must be some system. It takes time to change to a new system. Suggestions will be appreciated and considered. Knocking and growling hinders and disturbs.

Keep cool.

Take your turn.

Let coops alone until it is your turn to use them.

See that weights and calculations are correct before you leave.

If possible, do not tie poultry.

When you get your check, get out of the other fellow's way.

Sow more grass seed—NOW.

LIFE'S SPRINGTIME

Symbolical of Easter is this little maid, with all life's hopes and joys stretching before her.

Renew your pasture this spring.

Upper Ellijay Notes

We up on Little Ellijay, are going to have a large fruit crop this year from the appearance of the bloom. Everybody up here is busy trying to get their crops in, but we are all behind with our work. The spring has been so cold people could not work. We are in need of a road made up this creek to the Walnut Creek gap so we can get out to Glenville and Sylva and also to Walhalla, where we could get a higher price for it than we can at Franklin. And then, we could get out cross ties and poles and get them to market. But our road is so bad here that we can't do it.

Mr. Abe Young has moved down to Ed Clore's. We are glad to have him in our community. He takes out fire when you get burnt and cures the babies with the thrash and stops blood all by a charm.

Mr. J. P. Clouse of Franklin has been visiting C. G. Mincy and family for the last few days.

W. R.

Editor's Note—This correspondent wants the commissioners to build a road so that the citizens of upper Ellijay may trade in other counties. Be that as it may, upper Ellijay should have a road.

Incidentally, Mr. Young must be a charming man.

One hundred hens per farm.
