

WANT ADS

5c per Line for Each Insertion

No Want Ad taken for less than the price of five lines—25 cents.

WANTED—Good fat cattle, good sheep, also corn fed hogs off the pole, 100 to 175 lbs. Spot cash paid. Essig Market. tf

FOR SALE—Two gasoline engines. Apply Press office. tf

FOR SALE—A breakfast room set consisting of table and four chairs finished in ivory. Mrs. W. H. Moody R. F. D., No. 3. tf

WANTED—Young men and young women Bookkeepers, Stenographers and Salesmen. Learn in a few weeks in the oldest Business College in North Carolina's largest city; small fee, easy terms. Board and room for boys and girls in the dormitory reasonable. HOWARD'S BUSINESS COLLEGE, Winston-Salem, N. C. 9t-M7

FOR SALE OR RENT—Three houses in Franklin. See Reece Brothers at their restaurant. tf

FOR SALE BY OWNER—Running with the corporate line, 50 to 75 acres of valuable land, well watered and timbered, ideal site for factory of any kind. Beautiful building sites. Ten minutes walk to court house. Seven minutes to Franklin high school. Moderate buildings. Railroad on one side, Atlanta-Franklin-Asheville highway on other. If interested, write or see James M. Williams, Franklin, N. C. 2t-M12-26

FOR SALE—Eggs for hatching Thoroughbred Rhode Island Reds and Silverface Wyandottes. 75 cents per setting of 15. Please give orders ahead. Find at my place for service Poland China stock hog. Phone No. 1002. J. B. Snyder, Franklin, N. C. Route 2. A9

FOR SALE—One tractor double-disc plow. Cost $195.00. Will sell cheap. See E. N. Keener, Otto, N. C. A2

MR FARMER—We have five hundred farms any size, anywhere, at any price in the Piedmont Section of South Carolina, one of them for you. We have automobiles waiting at Brevard and Hendersonville to carry you and show you these farms if you will notify us when you wish to go. Realty & Investment Corp. Box 781. Hendersonville, N. C. p-A9

SALESMAN WANTED—For lubricating oils, greases and paints. Excellent opportunity. Salary or commission. The Jed Oil and Paint Co. Cleveland, Ohio. p-A2

FOR SALE—All kinds and sizes of hardwood lumber. Mill located four miles east of Franklin. Easily accessible to trucks and teams. See or write Deal Bros., Route 4, Franklin, N. C. p-A23

FOR SALE—Redtop, clover and Timothy hay mixed. Also clover hay, $30 per ton. $35 delivered. Strictly cash. W. H. Moody, Route 3, Franklin, N. C. p-A30

FOR SALE—Four grade Guernsey heifers, due to freshen soon. John S. Trotter. A2

ARISTOCRATS

Aristocrat barred Plymouth Rock eggs at $1.00 per setting of 15. This is the triple-profit fowl of the poultry world. For sale at J. T. MOORE'S store. 4t-A23

KODAK FINISHING

Films developed free, roll or pack. Prints 5 cents each, any size. Good work, prompt service. Samuel Norton, Hiwassee, Ga. p-A16

GET A TRIAL BOTTLE of Rexall Rheumatic Cure and find how much relief you get. Only fifty cents a bottle at Smith's Drug Store.

WILL TRADE—Any one or all of three houses and beautiful five acre orange grove at Lakeland, Florida for Georgia property. T. T. Dozier Jr., Athens, Ga. A16

Mr. and Mrs. Randolph Bulgin have arrived from Fort Myers, Fla., where they spent the winter. Mr. and Mrs. Bulgin will visit friends and relatives here for some time. They have not yet decided whether they will stay here during the summer or go to Long Island. Mr. Bulgin states that Florida is coming to the mountains of this section in a mighty migration this spring and summer.

Last Saturday a big fire at the Norwood Lumber company's plant at Jorney did damage estimated at $100,000! Some of the mill buildings and three residences were burned to the ground. It is doubtful whether the plant will be rebuilt.

Mr. J. T. Killen of Lakeland, Fla. spent a day or two last week with his niece, Mrs. Smith Harris. He was on his way to Asheville to take part of the great developments owned by Mr. J. T. Horney. Mr. Killen reports that the Florida people can talk of nothing but western North Carolina.

Personal Mention

Mr. M. D. Billings has purchased from Mr. Isaac Ashe, a lot on Harrison avenue opposite the water tanks. Mr. Billings has announced that he will soon begin the erection of a brick cottage on his recently acquired property. The residents on Harrison avenue will be glad to welcome Mr. and Mrs. Billings as neighbors.

Mr. E. C. Kingsbery arrived March 25th to take up his residence in Franklin. Mr. Kingsbery, in partnership with Mr. Padgett of Atlanta will enter the real estate business here.

Reports reaching Franklin are to the effect that fish wardens in Florida are extremely strict. Mr. Bill Moore states that Judge Willis knows all about the fish wardens in that state.

New Silks in pretty new patterns, also new English Broadcloths and voiles in the newest patterns. E. K. Cunningham & Son. (Adv.)

Mr. J. W. Gurney of Walhalla was a visitor to Franklin last week-end. Mrs. Gurney accompanied her husband, as did their nephew, Mr. R. E. Watkins, of Walhalla.

Mr. W. B. Garrison, postal inspector, made a visit of inspection to the Franklin office last week. He reports the records of the office in good shape.

Mr. Crawford, father of Mrs. W. L. McCoy, has returned to Franklin after spending four months in Florida.

Miss Martha Creighton of the U. S. and state home economics departments came to Franklin last week on business connected with her office. While here, Miss Creighton made some investments in Franklin real estate, she being delighted with conditions here.

Attorney T. J. Johnston and Mr. Frank Murray spent a few days in Haywood county last week. Mr. Murray brings good reports from that county regarding the race of Mr. Johnston for judge of the 20th judicial district.

Mr. Gaston Curtis went to Sylva Saturday night and returned with Mrs. Curtin who spent the week-end in Franklin. Mrs. Curtis is attending the state normal school at Cullowhee.

Last Saturday at noon, Mr. J. W. Street, foreman in the composing room of The Press, received a long distance call that his father had just dropped dead at his home in Atlanta. Mr. Street left on the afternoon train to attend the funeral. The Press joins the entire community in extending sympathy, and to Mr. Street and family.

Shoes, Shoes, and more shoes. Marshall has just returned from market with shoes to fit the whole family. E. K. Cunningham & Son. (Adv.)

Mr. S. E. Dalrymple is another old timer who has taken The Press for a number of years. In fact, his record now stands at 30 years. Judging from his appearance Mr. Dalrymple has another 30 years of life left in which to take The Press.

Deal Brothers, on Route four, report that they have various kinds of hardwood lumber for sale.

There was a mighty interesting trial in justice court last week. The details were somewhat risqué—too much so to be published. Certain neighbors of the defendants had quite a bit to say and didn't hesitate to say it.

"Hold on there, son. Gimme that wrapper. I want to see when my subscription to The Press expires. The blamed editor is liable to stop my paper if my time is out."

THIRTY TWO THOUSAND pounds of poultry shipped out of Macon in one day. Going some. The farmers are $8,000 to the good on that sale. What other farm activity will do as well?

The acreage to permanent pasture has been doubled in some counties of North Carolina this spring, finds S. J. Kirby, pasture specialist.

Prof. W. E. Welch of Route three is back home again after teaching a six months school at the Owenby school house on Briartown. Prof. Welch reports that he had fine pupils who did good work and that his relations with the community were very pleasant.

For the past two weeks Rev. A. J. Smith has been holding a revival meeting at Cullowhee. Rev. Smith filled his regular appointment at the Baptist church here last Sunday and returned immediately to Cullowhee. The meeting at Cullowhee will probably end this week.

Last Saturday the contractor completed the grading for the new business block to be erected on Main street.

Messrs. T. W. Porter, S. H. Lyle Jr., and Thomas Porter left Monday for Charlotte and drove back some new Buick cars.

Many people are saying that the Florida real estate boom is a thing of the past. Reliable reports from that state say that the wild cat operators have gone on the rocks, but that legitimate trading in Florida is still on a sound basis.

Franklin has had many fires this week, but there is no occasion for alarm. Mr. and Mrs. Citizen have only been burning the winter's accumulation of trash.

Many cottages and bungalows for Franklin are now being planned and work on some of them will begin in the very near future. About twenty buildings are now going up in the town.

New Silks in pretty new patterns also new English Broadcloth and voiles in the newest patterns. E. K. Cunningham & Son. (Adv.)

Katie Brown, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Brown, underwent a serious operation at the Angel hospital last Wednesday.

Mr. John Bingham is out again after a 37 day session with the mumps. John says that mumps is not an old man's disease.

Mr. N. L. Henry of Route two was in town Monday and while here, took occasion to resubscribe for The Press. Mr. Henry has many friends in Franklin who are always glad to see him.

Quite a few subscriptions expire in April. Better look at that label.

According to newspaper reports the fraternities at Cleveland (Ohio) college serve black cat stew to candidates for initiation to these organizations. The average citizen had just as soon eat brindle cat stew.

Mr. W. J. Zachary made a trip to Atlanta last Sunday.

The national government has given to the state several war trophies for distribution to towns and cities. A cannon placed on the court house square in honor of Macon's sons who made the supreme sacrifice would be very appropriate.

The road from Burningtown falls to Lost Bridge is in very bad shape. The good people of that community deserve better roads.

SMITH'S DRUG STORE

When the warm spring days give you that tired "spring fever" feeling just drop in and get one of our sparkling Coca Cola's and you'll forget that your spirits ever lagged. Smith's Coca Cola's are the best. Frank T. Smith, The Prescription Druggist.

No longer does one have to put stamps on deeds, this form of taxation having been repealed.

Mr. Bill Cunningham is in Lynchburg, Va., this week buying spring goods for the Cash Store.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Pruitt and five children, Berlin, Vernon, Buren, Jesse and Grace, have returned from West Palm Beach where they spent the past five months.

Mr. Chas. Morgan made a business trip to Asheville and Black Mountain this week.

Shoes, Shoes, and more shoes. Marshall has just returned from market with shoes to fit the whole family. E. K. Cunningham & Son. (Adv.)

Have you bought that flower pot yet?

Mr. Walter Dean of Sylva was a pleasant visitor to his old home at Franklin last Tuesday. Mr. Dean is now a traveling salesman, and the people of Franklin are always glad to welcome him on his periodical visits.

Messrs. Wade Reece, Jess Conley and Harry Higgins made a business trip to Asheville last Monday.

Miss Lizzie Kelly returned Monday from Raleigh where she had been in attendance on her sister, Miss Elizabeth Kelly, who was ill with flu.

Mr. S. B. East and Mr. Lewis of Melbourne, Fla., after a visit to Asheville and other points in Western North Carolina, arrived at Franklin Monday. They expressed their delight with this section of the mountains and have promised to return in two weeks with the end in view of making certain investments.

One hundred hens per farm.

There must be a shortage of lambs this season. At any rate March came in like a lion and went out the same way.

One hundred hens per farm.

Old Man Winter is a stubborn sort of person. He has been around in two or three encounters, but is now preparing for a grand offensive which all hope will be successful.

Fire Insurance

Prompt and Efficient Attention to all Business.

SAMUEL H. LYLE, JR.

4 BANK OF FRANKLIN BUILDING

PHONE 101

FRANKLIN, N. C.

DR. E. P. COFFIN

Optometrist

(Iso Thermal Hotel, Rutherfordton, N. C.)

Will Be In

FRANKLIN, N. C.

Saturday, April 10th, and Saturday, April 24th

At

SMITH'S DRUG STORE

EYES EXAMINED

GLASSES FITTED

If your eyes burn, hurt, become tired when reading or blur and "glimmer," your troubles can be ended with properly fitted Glasses. DONT ABUSE YOUR MOST PRECIOUS POSSESSION! HAVE YOUR EYES EXAMINED!!

Broken Glasses Repaired.

A BUSINESS COLLEGE COURSE AT HOME

ENROLL NOW!

COLLEGE BOOKKEEPING, TYPEWRITING, SHORTHAND.

A teacher who has had four years teaching in commercial colleges and schools is offering a course equal to any offered in any standard college in North Carolina to you at home if you enroll THIS WEEK.

Take your course at home at a small per cent of the cost.

We prepare you to hold a position ANYWHERE.

We teach you to get your POSITIONS.

We help you to get a POSITION.

A good opportunity if you are ambitious.

See Miss Hattie Peek, Franklin Hotel, this week.

YOU ARE INVITED TO THE FREE COOKING DEMONSTRATION

BY MRS. CLARA BERRY

At the store of the Nantahala Electric Company on April 12th and 13th. Also on the night of the 13th, Mrs. Berry will demonstrate the use of electric ranges and all other kinds of home electrical appliances. This demonstration is under the auspices of the Light and Power Department of the Town of Franklin.

A large assortment of electric ranges and appliances will be on exhibition. You are cordially invited—even urged to attend.

T. W. ANGEL, Jr.
Superintendent

The Baby's Cold

Continual "dozing" with internal medicine upsets delicate little stomachs. Treat colds externally with Vicks. You just rub it on.

VICKS VAPORUB