School For Sunday School Teachers Ends

The school for Sunday school teachers, begun Sunday at the local Methodist church, will close today (Thursday). The school is held under the auspices of the Sunday School Board of the Western North Carolina Conference of the Methodist church, but is open to all interested in Sunday school work.

O. V. Wesley, son of a former presiding elder here, is in charge of the school, as superintendent. Others here include Paul F. Evans, extension superintendent, and Miss Corrine Little, elementary superintendent.

Attention, Franklin People!

All those who expect to go with the motorcade to Asheville on September 15 are URGENTLY requested to notify C. C. Poindexter, of the celebration arrangements committee, or Weimar Jones, secretary of the chamber of commerce, TODAY.

The Asheville chamber of commerce whose guests the members of the motorcade will be on the evening of the fifteenth, has requested that it be informed how many will be present in order that it may know how many to prepare for.

It is for this reason that it is so important for those intending to make the trip to hand in their names AT ONCE.

BETHEL WOMAN DEAD

Mrs. Curt Eastes, of Bethel, aged 43 years, died August 30. Funeral services were held in Jackson county on September 1.

Mrs. Eastes, who is survived by her husband and eight children, was known in her community as a good woman and a Christian.

ROPER-WELCH

Miss Mary Welch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Welch of Burningtown, and Mr. Leland Roper of Iotla, were quietly married in Clayton, Ga., last Saturday. Mr. Welch is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Roper. The couple will make their home in the Iotla section.
