

County Tax Levy To Be Fixed On Monday

The county commissioners will meet in the courthouse next Monday to fix the tax levy for the county for this year, it was decided at the regular meeting on Monday. The rate for 1925 was $1.48 on the hundred dollars valuation of property.

This $1.48 which was levied for what is known as the general county fund was divided as follows: general county expense, 10 percent; bridges, 7 percent; sinking fund, 38 percent; pauper fund, 2 percent; and general school, 43 percent.

In addition to the general county tax, some school and road districts have special taxes.

The meeting on Monday was devoted largely to the transaction of routine business, the large number of applications for help from the pauper fund featuring the meeting.

The recommendations of the grand jury with reference to a new jail and courthouse; temporary improvements at the jail, and providing for more adequate janitor service for the courthouse were not discussed.

HONOR JUDGE HARDING

Mrs. Geo. A. Jones and her son, R. S. Jones, entertained at dinner at the former's home last Friday evening in honor of Judge W. F. Harding, here holding Macon county Superior court.

Guests were Miss Laura M. Jones, George Patton, Gilmer A. Jones, and Mr. and Mrs. Weimar Jones.

Corn Yield Reduced By Pulling Fodder

Fodder pulling days are here the saddest of the year for the corn crop. Some experiment stations have found that the loss from pulling fodder amounts to from 7 to 9 bushels of corn per acre, or from 15 to 20 percent of the acre yield.

"The facts about pulling fodder are these," says Prof. C. B. Williams, head of the department of agronomy at State College. "An acre of corn that will produce about 20 bushels of shelled grain will yield about 240 pounds of cured fodder. One man on the average can strip 400 pounds of fodder per day. Two and one-half acres are required to yield a stack of fodder, and one stack of average size will contain about 300 bundles. A bundle usually weighs about two pounds. One man can tie, carry to stack, and build a stack in about half of a day. In addition to time lost in this labor, he has reduced the grain yield of his corn, and had much better have been harvesting a hay crop grown for furnishing the needed roughage."

Mr. Williams states that some experiment stations report no loss of grain when the tops are cut, but when tops are cut and the leaves stripped from the remainder of the stalk, there is a loss of grain. The average of the tests conducted in many southern states show that a loss of at least two bushels of grain per acre is had when leaves alone are stripped from the plant.

Aside from the decrease in the yield of grain, pulling fodder is a costly method of securing roughage for live stock. The food value of corn fodder is not as high as that of good legume hay, and more abundant yields of the hay may be secured when proper steps are taken to provide it.

STARTS ADVERTISING CAMPAIGN IN FRANKLIN

George C. Houston, state sales-manager for the Kenton Baking Powder Company, was recently in Franklin for a few days considering the advisability of advertising Snow King Baking Powder here. At the time of leaving he said, "Franklin has always been a fairly good town for us; I am now convinced that there are a great many people who would try Snow King Baking Powder if we tell them some of its good points by means of advertising."

Until very recently the company has not done any advertising, although they have been making and selling baking powder for over 50 years. The sales have grown to a large figure only as people have told their friends about Snow King. There are today many whole communities in the South where nothing but Snow King Baking Powder is used.

Although Snow King Baking Powder is fully guaranteed to give satisfaction or your money back, the company has decided to make a special introductory offer of a cake pan and a cook book free with the 25 cent size can of Snow King Baking Powder. This is being featured in the Press.

It is really important that anyone trying Snow King for the first time have a cook book on hand for the reason that Snow King has a great deal more leavening power (ability to make dough rise) than is to be found in many other baking powders. For this reason, the first advertisement makes a special point of offering free a beautifully illustrated 44-page cook book which contains more than 300 baking recipes.

EMBALMER EMPLOYED BY LOCAL CONCERN

Mrs. R. E. Dender, of Knoxville, Tenn., is here to join her husband who will arrive about September 13. Mr. Dender has been attending the Cincinnati College of Embalming, having just completed the course. He will be connected with the Franklin Furniture Company, and it is through their efforts that the town is to have the services of an embalmer. Mr. Dender is a brother-in-law of F. Y. McCracken, of the Franklin Furniture Company.

Who Was Swedenborg?

Emanuel Swedenborg, the son of a bishop, was the great Swedish scientist, philosopher and theologian, whose vast range caused Emerson to term him the mastodon of scholars. Dr. Parkes Cadman recently named him the Universal Genius. Officially connected, by appointment of the King, with the great mining industry of Sweden, he mastered all the sciences of his time, and wrote the most useful books on metallurgy, minerals, geology, astronomy, and the human brain. His life search was for the human soul. How his spiritual senses were opened, after he was 50 years of age, that he might reveal the human soul, the life after death, and the Bible itself, may be read in the above named, uplifting, useful books.
