Pritchard Predicts Smathers Election

Says Thinking People of the District Are Going to Disregard Party Lines

That the Hon. Zebulon Weaver, who has represented this district in Congress for the past ten years will go down in defeat on November 2 at the hands of Captain Kenneth Smathers, Republican nominee for Congress is being predicted by Geo. M. Pritchard, Republican Congressional Chairman.

Mr. Pritchard not only believes that Captain Smathers will be elected, but he believes that Captain Smathers will receive a majority of over two thousand votes, and that the election will be a repetition of what happened when John Grant was elected to Congress. Mr. Pritchard based his prediction upon several things: First, he says that Congressman Weaver has absolutely failed as a Congressman; that the thinking people of this district want to send a congressman to Washington who will be recognized, and receive some Federal aid for this district. Second, Mr. Pritchard pointed out that even the Asheville Citizen, the Democratic mouthpiece, had voiced its approval of the Republican nominee in an editorial, of which the following is an extract: "The Citizen congratulates both the Republican party and the people of the tenth district upon the nomination by the Republicans as congressional representative, of a gentleman of such high character, ability, and unimpeachable reputation as Captain Kenneth M. Smathers."

"The Republican nominee is of the type which we think would have appealed to Theodore Roosevelt, a clean-lived, up-standing man."

Third: That Captain Smathers has made the most vigorous campaign that has ever been put up against Mr. Weaver. Fourth: that the thinking people of this district are convinced that a congressman at Washington who will be in harmony with the administration can accomplish more than has been proven can be accomplished by a congressman who is in opposition to the progressive policies of the national administration.

Mr. Pritchard points out that the election of Captain Smathers will assure the Federal building for Western North Carolina, which will be located at Asheville, and also post-office buildings for many towns and cities in this district where they are needed. The National Park will be made a certainty, more National Forests will be established, national highways will be built, and federal aid will be received in many ways by the election of Captain Smathers.

"Western North Carolina should not be held back by keeping in Congress a congressman who has proven himself powerless," says Mr. Pritchard. "Progress is knocking at our door. We should have a congressman who will, and can, obtain our share of federal aid. There are only four States which pay more federal tax than North Carolina, and it stands to reason that we are entitled to some of this money to be returned to this district. The election of Captain Smathers assures progress—that's why I believe the thinking people of this district are going to disregard party lines and vote for a congressman who will be recognized at Washington."

"Congress recently made a large appropriation for federal buildings, but we have been informed that the amount is inadequate to take care of Asheville and other needed places in this district. The same old story—just another way of saying that Congressman Weaver has failed to get the buildings he has assured. And it is interesting to note that the Asheville Chamber of Commerce, realizing that recognition is what counts at Washington has appointed a delegation to be headed by our good Republican friend, Mark W. Brown to represent the Asheville needs to the Postoffice and Treasury departments. Had the Chamber of Commerce thought that Mr. Weaver could obtain the federal building for Asheville that delegation would not have been appointed."

The election of Captain Smathers to Congress means progress for Western North Carolina because he will be recognized at Washington and will have the support of the administration. To vote for him is to vote for Progress.—Marion Star.

First Lyceum Number Well Received; Good Financial Start Made

The first number of the Lyceum course here this winter was enthusiastically received by a crowd that almost filled the court house last Friday evening.

Both the music and the magic of Frye and Company appeared to delight the audience. The musical program combined light popular numbers with classical selections, and was given generous applause. And when Mr. Frye came on with his magic stunts, he kept his audience guessing, gasping and giggling, from start to finish.

The drawing of numbers proved interesting, too, and the two young men who drew the lucky number appeared highly pleased with the watch and flashlight. Similar prizes will be drawn at the next number, the Lyceum committee states.

From the sale of season tickets and door receipts, the committee received enough to make the large first payment on the lyceum course, with a balance of about $40 to be applied on later payments. This is considered an exceptionally good start.

CHANCE OF A LIFETIME

The occupants of the parlor car of the Limited were startled by the abrupt entrance of two masked bandits. "Throw up yer hands," commanded the bigger of the two. "We're gonna rob all the gents and kiss all the gals."

"No, pardner," said the smaller one, gallantly: "We'll rob the gents but we'll let the ladies alone."

"Mind your own business, young fellow," snapped a female passenger of uncertain age. "The big fellow is robbing this train."—Progressive Farmer.

A quiet wedding ceremony was performed yesterday at high noon, when Miss Elizabeth Johnston was married to William C. Jones, the Rev. Willis C. Clark officiating. The bride was given in marriage by her mother, Mrs. F. S. Johnston, and Jack Johnston, brother of the bride, was best man.

Mrs. Jones is a daughter of the late Colonel F. S. Johnston, of Franklin, N. C. She is a sister-in-law of Mrs. Jack Johnston and Mrs. Fred Johnston and a niece of Mrs. C. E. Patillo, of Tampa.

Mr. Jones was formerly of Asheville, N. C., and has been engaged in real estate work. He possesses a tenor voice and has done concert work throughout the country. He has been soloist for several large churches, recently at All Souls church, Biltmore, N. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Jones left after the ceremony on a motor trip and will be at home, 3208 San Carlos street, after October 25.—Tampa Tribune of October 17.
