Tax Receipts Will Be Ready About December 1

Under the new accounting system in force in Macon county, after the tax list is made up, the clerk to the county commissioners makes out receipts in duplicate for tax payments.
These receipts, with the stubs, are prepared in a set of books, and when receipts for all taxpayers have been made, the book is turned over to the Sheriff-Treasurer.

This system not only enables the sheriff to balance his books each night, but provides in a single set of books, a complete check of taxes paid and taxes due. The taxpayer's receipt not only shows the total amount of taxes paid, but how much of the total went for each item, such as general county, sinking funds, special school tax, etc.

The tax list for 1926 is completed, Horace Hurst, clerk to the commissioners, has announced, but it will be the first of December before he will have the receipts completed. He was delayed in completing the work, he said, on account of the tax levy being made later in the year than usual.

Taxpayers, however, who desire to make a payment on their 1926 taxes can pay the Sheriff-Treasurer in the form of a partial payment, and take a partial payment receipt.

At the same time that Mr. Hurst made his announcement, Sheriff C. L.
Ingram issued a call to all taxpayers who have not settled their 1925 taxes to do so promptly. He is required to make his settlement with the commissioners by January 1, 1927, he pointed out, and this necessitates prompt payment of all back taxes. A large number of taxpayers have not paid their 1925 taxes, Mr. Ingram stated.

The Flapper Grandmother Makes a Big Hit

One of the most delightful things given here this autumn was the presentation at the Franklin Graded school building last Friday evening of "The Flapper Grandmother," staged by local talent, under the auspices of the Franklin chapter of the Eastern Star.

That the play was well enacted was testified by the waves of laughter that swept the audience time and time again, and by the bursts of applause.

Every character did his or her part well, according to those present, but nothing perhaps delighted the audience so much as the dancing and songs of the school children, especially the little tots.

Olive Hill Sunday School Continues to Progress

The Olive Hill Sunday school had one of the best meetings in its history last Sunday. A large attendance was on hand to inspire the leaders, and many beautiful and timely songs were sung by E. A. Roper and his class. The Golden Text contest was won by Mr. James Scroggs, while the Psalm contest was won by Miss Christina Roper. Each contest was hotly contested and the winners were hard to choose.

After Sunday school, Rev. A. S.
Solebee, recently elected Representative of Macon county, made an interesting and helpful talk on the subject: "A Dark Picture With a Bright Side." Rev. Solebee always gives his hearers something worth thinking about, and this occasion was no exception. During the course of his remarks the speaker paid many compliments to the Olive Hill school and its wonderful work.

Next Sunday is regular preaching day and as usual there will be a special song service and regular Sunday school exercises. Everyone is invited to meet with us at Olive Hill at 3 o'clock each Sunday afternoon. We assure that if we cannot give you something worth while, your presence will be an inspiration to us and help us to strive to do greater things for our Lord.

Prepared for Jail Break

Roy Curtis, unable to furnish bond, cherishes the idea of breaking jail a third time. The jailer took two small hack saws off his person Tuesday, it was learned from officers here Wednesday. Curtis had them hidden in his cap.

Twice he has escaped, once from the Macon county jail, and once when he was in the hands of the law in Buncombe. In both instances he was up on charges of transporting liquor. The escape in Buncombe came when he was under treatment for tuberculosis.

He is now in jail here, having been captured with C. R. Scudder here early Saturday morning, in a car with 50 gallons of liquor. The car, which came from Georgia, according to Scudder, was believed to have been headed for Asheville.

The men were given a preliminary hearing on Monday before Mayor R. D. Sisk, and bond was fixed in the sum of $1,000 each. Neither has so far furnished the bond.

Scudder, who claims that he was riding with Curtis without knowledge that the car contained liquor, is said by officers to be a leader in the rum running business around Asheville.
He frequents an up-town hotel when in Asheville according to officers. The man gave his home address as Fort Wayne, Ind.

The charges against the two men are expected to be heard in the Superior court term which opens here Monday.

Reece's Restaurant Raves

We take this opportunity to express our thanks to the many visitors from Sylva, Waynesville, Cornelia and Clayton for the patronage given us Armistice Day. We also wish to congratulate the boys of Waynesville High School and Cornelia High School on the good football game played by them in Franklin on Armistice Day, which was the first football game ever played in Macon county, and which was enjoyed by a large and enthusiastic crowd among which were numerous visitors. We wish especially to congratulate Mr. C.
C. Poindexter on the skill shown by the Waynesville team of which he is coach, and which won the game by a score of 20 to 0.

FRANKLIN CIRCUIT PROGRAM FOR SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 21

The first quarterly conference of Franklin Circuit will be held at Clark's Chapel next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The churches will please be represented at this first meeting.
Churches to be represented are:
Bethel, Clark's Chapel, Salem, Oakridge, Burningtown, Riverview, Snow Hill, Iotla, and we urge a full attendance of stewards, Woman's Missionary Society presidents, and all church leaders.

I will preach at Riverview Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock, on account of the quarterly conference.
J. H. STRICKLAND,
Pastor.

TELICO LOCALS

James Ramsey gave a Halloween party October 30. All reported a nice time.

Harley Mason gave a corn husking Wednesday evening of last week.
It was the first corn shucking given here this fall.

Mr. and Mrs. James Hollifield and daughter Ruth, of Murphy, are visiting relatives in this section.

John H. Ramsey, of Philadelphia, formerly of this section, died October 10. His remains were laid to rest at the Tellico cemetery October 13. He is survived by his wife, five daughters, his aged father, four brothers and one sister. He was a member of the Tellico Baptist church and lived a consecrated member until his death.

Harley Ramsey went to Franklin on business Tuesday.

John H. Ramsey and daughter, Grace, have gone to East Point, Ga., to visit relatives.

HIGHLANDS VISITORS SEE THE GAME

Up from the hills of Habersham on Armistice Day came a fine football team composed of clean-cut young men to contest with the fine young fellows of Waynesville and down from the mountains of Highlands came a goodly delegation to witness the game, the first ever played in Macon county.

Among those who came from Highlands to see the game and—perhaps to hear the good singing of the Waynesville girls—were: Porter Pierson, Roy Potts, Dr. E. R. Gilbert, Sam Baty, Lawrence Holt, and Willie and Joe Hayes. The Press was unable to obtain the names of other members of the delegation. Franklin is always glad to welcome visitors from her sister town of Highlands.
