Resolutions of Respect

Whereas, the pole horse of death has again entered our council and removed our frined and brother, Chas. Reece, from labors in this council to the supreme council above and although brother Reece had just been welcomed as a member of our order when the summons came, yet he had been known all his life to us. His friendly disposition and unblemished character had made an impression upon us, and his memory will long be cherished in our hearts, and our council will feel the loss of one so young and yet who promised much good to our order.

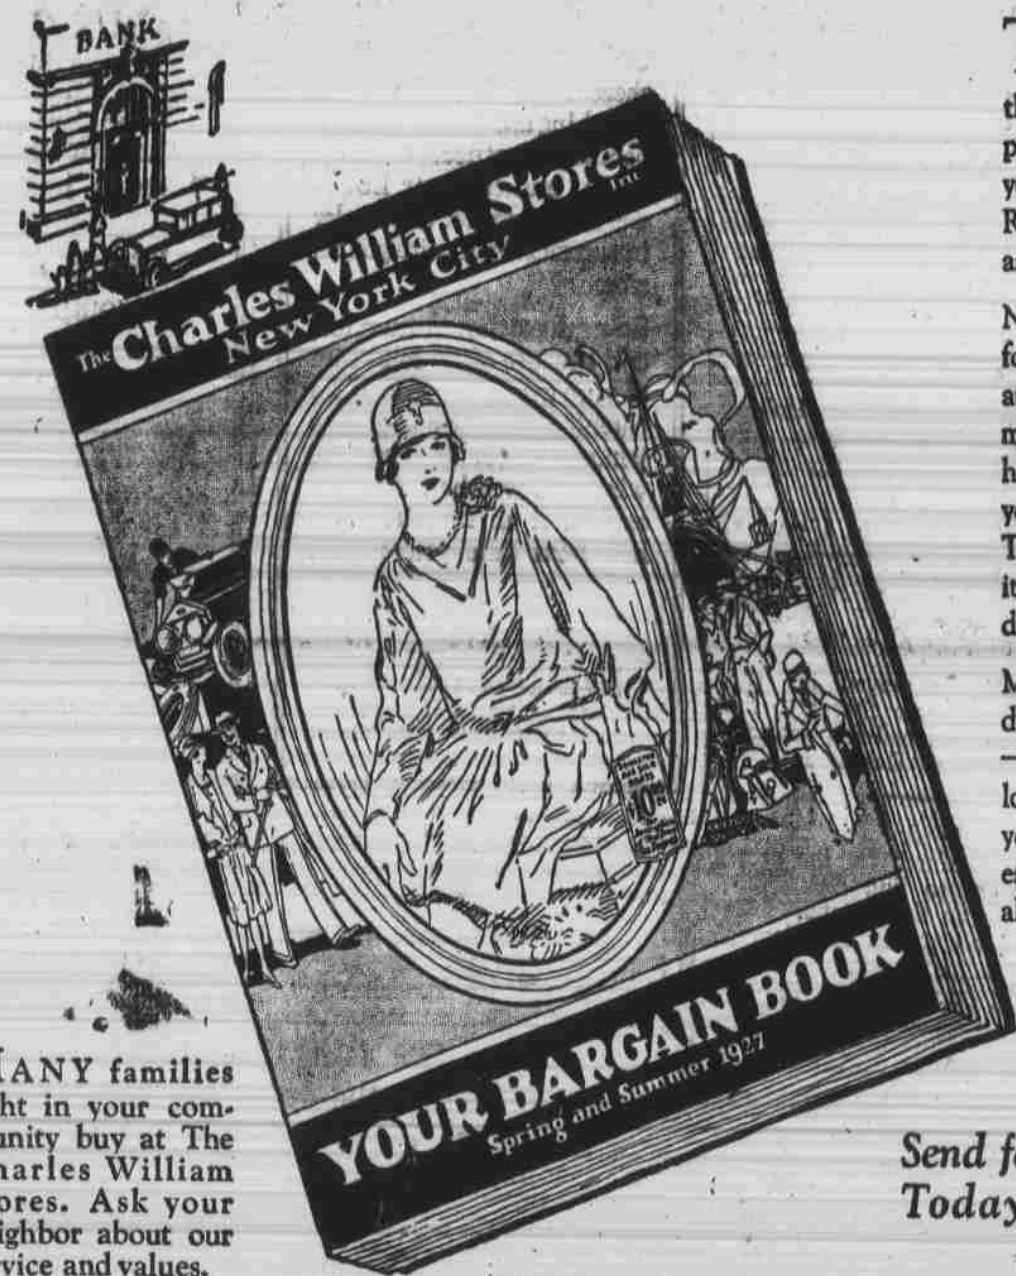

Now, therefore, Be it Resolved by Cullasaja Council No. 158 Jr. O. U. A. M. That our heart-felt sympathy be extended to the family of our deceased brother, and that we deeply mourn his loss.

That a page of our minutes be set apart in his memory and that these resolutions be spread thereon.

That a copy of these resolutions be furnished the family, and a copy given the Franklin Press for Publication.—Frank I. Murray, W. G. Mallonee, R. D. Sisk.
