Celebration Postponed

Information received Monday to the effect that Governor McLean, Dr. R. E. Park, of the University of Georgia, and other speakers, would not be able to be present in Franklin next Friday compelled the chamber of commerce and agriculture Monday to call off plans for a celebration Friday of the start made toward lining Highway No. 286 with white pine trees.

The board of directors of the organization Monday night considered the situation very carefully, and reluctantly concluded that, since those counted upon as chief speakers could not come, it would be necessary to call off—or at least postpone—the celebration.

Governor McLean was invited more than a month ago, and it was not known definitely until Monday night that he could not come. Dr. Park, who is head of the English Department at the University of Georgia, and a widely sought speaker, had accepted an invitation to be here, and to speak, but, at the last minute, the professor who was to have taken his classes became ill, and Dr. Park was unable to get away.

Major Wade H. Phillips of the Department of Conservation and Development, and State Forester J. S. Holmes wired that they would be unable to be present.

Meanwhile, the work of planting trees along the highway, is continuing. To the 250 trees planted a week ago, 500 more are being added this week, about 300 were planted Tuesday, and more are to be planted Friday.

It is believed that three miles or more of the highway can be planted this spring and that probably the work can be so nearly completed by next spring that it will justify a bigger celebration than had been planned for Friday.

Editor Franklin Press,
Franklin, N. C.

Dear Sir:—As there has been a great many inquiries relative to the re-assessment of real estate in Macon county, I wish to say that the General Assembly of North Carolina at its last session passed a law requiring all counties in the state to re-assess all property both real and personal.

This is not done to raise taxes, as in fact will have nothing to do with our taxes but to try and get all property on an equal basis.

There have been acres and acres of land in this county changed hands and complaints coming in to the commissioners office that the acreage has never been deducted from the original owner. Therefore, I want to urge the importance of each property holder to meet the assessors at the places named in their respective townships and personally list your taxes, giving the exact number of acres of their land.

The assessors will require you to give the acres in cultivation—this meaning all the land you cultivate, in any kind of crops, and also your meadow land, the acres you have in pasture, acres you have in timber, acres you have in waste, and also, your orchards and buildings thereon. These will be assessed as separate items, and it will be wise for each and every one to have these figures made out as to your acreage so that you can save time when you go to list.

As to your values, I want to say that values have nothing to do with your taxes so long as all values are equal. Under the law there has to be a budget made out to cover all of this county's expenditures for the coming year, and the Board of County Commissioners are required by law to levy enough taxes to cover their budget. Therefore, if the property in Macon county has a very low valuation we are compelled to have a rate sufficient to meet the needs, and on the other hand if our value increases we can cut our rate so we can raise enough money to cover the budget. So you see it is not a question of values but a question of getting enough money to finance the county regardless of values.

Our assessors hope to have the co-operation of every citizen in listing all the real estate, and hope every property holder will come out promptly. And if any person should fail or neglect to come as required by law and list his taxes his property will be assessed as delinquents, and if he is not satisfied with his assessment he has no body to blame but himself.

Very truly, C. K. CABE, County Tax Supervisor.

Editor's Note:—As explained by Mr. Cabe so much tax money will be needed to run the county. The taxable values in Macon county are now listed at approximately $6,000,000. If the re-valuation makes this amount $12,000,000 the tax rate can be cut in half. This would be an excellent advertisement for Macon county and is well worth consideration by all concerned. As a matter of fact the amount at which property is listed for taxation has nothing to do with the amount of taxes paid, provided every body is treated alike in the assessments. Each piece of property in the county could be listed at four times its actual value and still the amount of taxes would be no higher than at present.

It is to be hoped that the assessors will use due diligence and assess all property in the county at its actual value in so far as said value can be justly determined.

The Best Buy for You

You can find plenty of tire dealers who'll be glad to dicker with you, tempt you with all sorts of "special" deals.

I can't. It goes against my grain to pad-up list prices in order to give you a discount or a "long trade"—to make myself a good fellow at your expense.

I've been in the tire business for a good many years. I've watched the "bargain boys" and the "long discount" fellows come and go. Every year my business has increased.

Every year more shrewd tire buyers come to me for Goodyears—and they "stay put" on Goodyears. Doesn't it seem logical that Goodyears will prove the best buy for you?
