

Louisa Chapel News

Rev. J. M. Fowler began a series of services Sunday at Louisa Chapel. We are having a good attendance and some wonderful sermons. Every body is invited to attend. Friends don't think because this meeting is held in a Methodist church that it is a Methodist meeting only. It is for everybody, so come out, your presence is welcome.

Mr. George Jones left for Morganton Sunday where he will take a treatment for insanity.

We are sorry to report that Mr. Arthur Waldrop and family are all sick.

Mr. Lawrence Greene, of Waynesville came over Monday evening and got his little son Emmet, who has been visiting Master Wonlow Greene for the past week.

Mr. J. A. Parker, of Buncombe county is visiting his daughter, Mrs. Winslow at this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Byrum Waldrop and children were visiting Mrs. Waldrop's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Greene Sunday.

Mr. Zeb Clouse and family was visiting at Mr. Will Reece's Sunday.

We are glad to report that Mr. W. H. Roane is improving after a severe attack of flux.

Mr. and Mrs. John Mosely, of Tiger, Ga., were visitors at Mr. T. B. Greene's Sunday.

Miss Mamie Conley, of Mill Creek is spending a few days with Mrs. Frank Reece, of this place.

Mr. Sam Greene spent Sunday night with his sister, Mrs. C. L. Camp, who has been sick for some time.

Mr. Henly Potts, of Franklin was in this section Sunday.

Mr. Chare Cunningham, of Winston-Salem was in this section Saturday.

The children of the Louisa Chapel Sunday School are practicing twice each week for the Children's Day program to be held June 19. We hope to have a large crowd on that day. There will be dinner on the grounds. Everybody invited.

Rev. and Mrs. J. O. Frye and family, of Unaka, N. C. were visitors in this section Friday of last week. Mrs. Frye's brother, Mr. Ham was also visiting with them.

Mr. C. D. Flanigen Jr., engineer of the South-eastern Underwriters Association, visited Franklin last week and inspected the fire department. Mr. Flanigen reported the fire department in good shape, but stated there was a lack of water for sufficient protection. With the tanks kept filled and with means of pumping faster in the event of fire, Mr. Flanigen said that insurance rates in Franklin could be reduced 5 per cent the first year and ten per cent thereafter.
