

Dates of County Fair

County agent Lyles Harris has announced that the county fair will be held at Franklin on September 29 and 30 and October 1. The following week the Western North Carolina fair will be held at Municipal Recreational park at Asheville.

At the Macon county fair the best exhibits on display will be transported to Asheville and put on display there. The county agent is very anxious to have Macon county represented with excellent displays at the Western North Carolina fair. Therefore, it will be necessary for the farmers of Macon to prepare for the home fair with the best exhibits possible.

With the full co-operation of the home people Macon county will no doubt stand an excellent chance to win many prizes at the fair in Asheville. The county agent believes that the pride of Macon county farmers will do much toward making a success of the home fair, and that the same spirit will go far toward winning prizes, at Asheville.

The local fair will be held at the school house in Franklin.

Missionary Meeting

The Snow Hill Missionary society met at the church July 22, with the following officers:

Mrs. C. A. Bryson, president; Mrs. Mrs. Lillian Hurst, first vice-president; Miss Beulah Parrish, second vice-president; Mrs. Irah Bryson, treasurer; Mrs. Fred McGaha, Mrs. Ed Parrish, program committee; Miss Miss Nomie Potts, secretary.

The meeting was presided over by our president, Mrs. C. A. Bryson, and after the regular business program, with a reading in Psalms, prayer and song service, the meeting adjourned, with the secretaries report until August 24.

Our next subject will be the life of Paul. These meetings so far have proved successful. Come and see for your self.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. J. L. West, Sr.

A CORRECTION

The local railroad agent states that the telegram from Turner Enloe to his father, to which reference was made in a news article in last week's Press, was not found by Attorney R. S. Jones, but by the agent himself.
