Birthday Dinner

The many friends and relatives of Mr. Hayes Gibson met at his home at Leatherman on Sunday, July 10, for the purpose of celebrating his seventieth birthday.
 Mr. Gibson is a well known citizen of Macon county, and a well beloved friend of his community, especially is he recommended for his pleasant disposition. His motto is always: "Smile; the world will smile back at you."
 The good sisters were busy in the kitchen and at 12 p. m. a very delicious dinner was served. The table was groaning under its load of delicacies. Even the old gobbler that had been seen so long strutting on the farm, filled its place of abode on the table.
 Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Tom Gibson, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Gibson, Aunt Betsy Jane Grant, Mrs. Fanny Dillard, of Demorest, Ga.; Mrs. Palisline Leatherman, Mrs. Nancy Cardan, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Shepherd, Mr. and Mrs. Sol Leatherman, Mrs. Lou Shepherd, Mrs. Plemons, Joe, and Tom Hurst, Roam Patterson, John and Weaver Gibson, and Oscar Rickman. Mrs. Rag Sellers, Mrs. John Dalton, Mr. and Mrs. ijm Holbrooks, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gibson, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Bryson, Mrs. Mayme Reynolds, Mrs. Elsie Hurst, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gibson, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Gibson, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Gibson, Mr. and Mrs. Candler Childers, of Whittier; Mr. and Mrs. John Murray and Mrs. Ben R. Gibson.
 Mr. Gibson is the eleventh on of a family of 15, 8 of whom are living, Aunt Betsy Jane Grant being the oldest. She is 87 and is lively and enjoying the best of health. This is very remarkable of such a large family.
 Everyone present enjoyed the day very much and hope to spend many more birthdays with Mr. Gibson.

GONE TO BE AN ANGEL

On July 23 the Death Angel visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Will Calloway and gently laying hand on little Virgil, bade him follow to a clime where there is no darkness.
 The frost of an early death blighted his life forever. No, not forever, for the light of this little life will shine brighter from the portals of glory than it could have shone in an earthly home.
 The flower budding so beautifully could not bloom, but was gathered by the Lord to a heavenly garden. Our Lord has need for them all. He gathers the rose buds, as well as full-grown flowers; and He has said, "Suffer little children to come unto me, for such is the Kingdom of Heaven."

 Little Virgil was a bright child. He seemed to know and understand when breath was almost gone. He said "mamma don't leave me." But what a comfort to know he is a little angel today, resting on the Saviors breast. He is where there is no night. He needs no candle, neither light of the sun.
 He was sick 5 weeks and bore his suffering patiently. Seemed that he was only waiting for angels to carry him home.
 Virgil was born March 14, 1924. Died July 23, 1927. A bright short-lived flower, but not without a blessed influence.
 On this dark and troubled day We will gently lay his form away;
 Robe the little angel in white,
 And lay him out of earthly sight.
 We know we shall go to you,
 And see your face once more;
 How glorious will that meeting
 Be with dear ones gone before.

Baptist Encampment

State B. Y. P. U Secretary, Perry Morgan, of Raleigh, was in Sylva Sunday and Monday making final arrangements for the great rally on Sunday afternoon August 7, at three o'clock when the Baptist Encampment, which continues through August 12, will begin in high gear. Plans have been made for a great gathering of Baptists of Western North Carolina for this opening session. Among the noted speakers of the day will be Dr. R. E. Johnson, of Montgomery, Ala., B. Y. P. U. secretary of that state; Mr. Emmett Moore, Sunday school secretary of Alabama, and Dr. T. J. Watts, of Dallas Tex., who is secretary of the Annuity board.
 Mr. Morgan is very optimistic about the encampment and is confident that it will be one of the most successful in the history of the Baptists.
Problems Solved
 Mr. Morgan is bringing a corps of the finest teachers and instructors to be found in the state, and if you, Dear pastor, Mr. Sunday school superintendent, Miss teacher, B. Y. P. U. or Missionary leader, have found any problems in your work, come and let these people of wide experience help you solve them. There will be classes in Sunday school, B. Y. P. U. and W. M. U. work. Here, you will learn better how to reach, how to teach, how to win, and how to train that pupil. Great messages will be brought each evening by Rev. H. T. Stevens of High Point.
Fine Fellowship
 Rooms in the dormitories will be furnished free. Board may be had in the dining room of the school at $1.00 per day. The splendid fellowship gained by mingling with fellow-christians will be eminently worth while.

Who Should Attend
 Pastors, Sunday school officers and teachers, B. Y. P. U. and W. M. U. leaders and anyone who loves the Lord and is interested in seeing His Kingdom advance.
The Place

Smokers of this day prefer Camels

MODERN smokers insist upon value received, and they place Camel first among cigarettes.
 Regardless of price, Camel is the popular smoke, because it has the most to offer. Its choicest tobaccos and careful blending have made Camels supreme in an age that demands quality.
 All the money in the world could not make a better cigarette than Camel. It has proved itself to the experienced taste, to the careful smokers of the modern age. Let this cigarette show you how mild and mellow a good smoke can really be.
 "Have a Camel!"
