

NOTICE OF EXECUTION SALE

North Carolina, Macon County
In the Superior Court
A. F. COOPER
Vs.
J. R. BATES
G. C. STAMEY
Vs.
I. R. BATES
O. L. DOBSON
Vs.
J. R. BATES

Under and by virtue of executions issued to me in all of the above entitled actions, I, the undersigned sheriff of Macon county, will sell to satisfy said executions at the court house door in the Town of Franklin, County of Macon, by public auction and at public outcry, at twelve o'clock, Noon, on Monday, the 5th day of September, 1927, all the right, title and interest of J. R. Bates in and to the following described tracts or parcels of land, on the date of the docketing of the judgments in the cases above set out, said interest of the defendant, J. R. Bates, being a one-third undivided interest:

1st Tract. Beginning at an iron stake on bank of road, near the branch, runs south 10 east 104 poles to a blackgum on top of mountain in Robert Bates' line; then south 70 east 15 1-2 poles to a hickory, John Stockton corner; then north 30 west 98 poles to a poplar at the road; then in an eastern direction with the road and Bob Stamey's line 46 poles to the beginning, containing 19 1-2 acres, and being the land described in a deed from J. R. Bates, et al., to Norman L. Stockton, which deed is recorded in book Q-4, page 6, Records of Macon county.

2nd Tract. Being a tract of land known as No. 3 and a fraction of John Long's land, beginning at a hickory in James Bates' line near the road, and runs north 17 east 48 poles to a small chestnut oak; thence north 37 east 34 poles to a Spanish oak; then north 54 1-2 east 23 poles to a white oak; then north 30 east 23 poles to a stake in Bates' line; then with his line, ten poles to a stake at the old Harve Bell corner; thence up the meanders of the branch with Bell's line 72 poles to a chestnut; thence east 4 poles to a sourwood; thence south 52 poles to a maple, James Bates' corner, containing 25 acres more or less, being all the land described in a deed from Alex Moore, sheriff, to J. R. Bates, et al., recorded in book K-3 of deeds, page 436, Records of Macon county, and being also described in a deed from Erwin Patton and wife, to J. R. Bates, et al., recorded in book E-3, page 312.

3rd Tract. Beginning at a white oak, corner of No. 105, thence runs north 70 east 70 poles to a chestnut; thence north 44 poles to a stone, Bates' corner; thence east 72 poles to a hickory; thence north 28 poles to a hickory, J. B. Addington's corner; thence with his line, north 31 west 67 poles to a white oak; thence south 57 west 36 poles to a stone at the spring head; thence north 7 west 21 poles to a rock at the public road; thence a west direction with the meanders of the road, 49 poles to a rock; thence south 50 east 38 poles to a small dogwood; thence south 72 west 46 poles to a stake; thence 72 poles to the beginning, containing 70 acres, more or less, and being all the land described in a deed from

B. F. Bird to J. R. Bates, et al., recorded in book M-3 of deeds, page 511, Records of Macon county.

4th Tract. Beginning at a Spanish oak, runs thence North 80 west 6 poles to a maple; thence north 108 poles to a chestnut oak on a ridge; then south 72 1-2 west with the ridge, 13 poles to a white oak; thence north 73 west 48 poles to a chestnut oak; then south 94 poles to a locust; then north 85 east 5 poles to a hickory; then south 42 east 36 poles to a stake; then south 68 east 23 poles to a B oak; then North 53 1-2 east 56 poles to a stake; then north 24 east 43-12 poles to a stake; then south 88 east 66 poles to a Spanish oak; then north 49 poles to the beginning, containing 98 acres more or less, and being all the land described in a deed from G. L. Dills and wife, to J. R. Bates, et al., recorded in book VV, page 173, Records of Macon county.

5th Tract. Being the Ben Bird home place, beginning on a stone at the spring in Bates Bros. line; thence north 37 east 36 poles to a white oak in Addington old line; thence north 32 poles to an old corner; thence west 14 poles to a stump at the forks of the road; thence a west direction with the said road 24 poles to a rock near a branch; thence south 27 west 21 poles to the beginning, containing 5 acres more or less, and being all the land described in a deed from L. K. Moffitt and wife, to J. R. Bates, et al., recorded in book M-4, page 532, Records of Macon county.

This the first day of August, 1927.
C. L. INGRAM, Sheriff of Macon County, N. C. H&P 51S1

POULTRY SALE

Approximately 6,000 pounds of Macon county poultry found its way to an outside market last week, and more than $1,200 found its way back to this county, and into some 100 farmers pockets, as a result.

The exact return was $1,205. The poultry was shipped via Dillsboro, and made three truck loads. This is the third shipment to leave the county by the Dillsboro route.

The sale was held by the marketing bureau of the Macon County Farmers Federation, under the supervision of County Agent Lyles Harris.

ANOTHER FREAK EGG

Mrs. J. W. Murray who lives under the shadow of the Cowees in the township of that name has a hen that persists in laying freak eggs. One egg recently brought to the Press office is shaped like a gourd, such as grandma used to use as a dipper. Other eggs from this hen are of various shapes. It is said that this particular hen always laid normal eggs until the news became general concerning an egg shaped like a peanut laid by Mrs. Bolick's hen on Ellijay.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our friends and relatives for their many expressions of love and sympathy extended to us during our recent bereavement. We wish to thank every one personally for kind words, kind deeds and the beautiful flowers.

—O. G. Cox, James and Catherine Ammons, Mrs. D. W. Rickman and Family.

Indians Coming

Living close to the Indian reservation as we do, we are apt to say—"Some day I'll visit them. I want to see the real red man, people like Hiawatha, Iagoo, Nokomis and Minnehaha. I'll go over and get acquainted with the Cherokees, with their chief—I'll talk to them and watch them, to find out how they live, work and play."

Or perhaps you've been to the reservation and were disappointed because you didn't see the Indians then. You wanted to hear their warcries, to see them dance; you wanted to watch them shoot an arrow and see them run, their keen eyes watching the trail, through the forest; you wanted to see a game of real Indian ball.

Have you ever? Indian ball is similar to base ball, but its rougher than foot ball. Wouldn't you like to see real Indians play it?

At Camp Tawkeetah, on Saturday afternoon, August 6, the Cherokee Indians from the reservation are coming over with Chief Owl to play ball at 3 o'clock. Later they will give an Indian war-dance.

This is a wonderful opportunity of seeing the vanishing American in his natural surroundings and environment of mountains and trees. Chief Owl is chief of the tribe at Cherokee. Steve, a graduate of Carlsile, Chief Standing Deer, the champion archer, Little Brown Jug, Henry Walking Stick and others of the real red men will be here.

You cannot afford to miss it—At Camp Tawkeetah, Franklin, N. C., on Saturday, August 6 3 p. m.

Tickets will be on sale Thursday, Friday and Saturday at Angel's and Smith's Drug stores.

Death of Mrs. West

Mrs. Olline West, wife of A. J. West, passed away last Tuesday evening after an illness of several weeks.

Mrs. West was converted when just a girl, and lived a faithful Christian life till her death. She was a devoted wife and mother. She leaves a husband, two children, father, mother, four brothers, two sisters and a host of relatives and friends to mourn her going.

The funeral service was conducted at the Franklin Baptist church by the pastor, and the body laid to rest in the City cemetery. The floral offering was beautiful and showed the affection of her many friends.

The sympathy of the community is extended to the bereaved family.

Sale of Oak Hill

The Home Realty & Auction company, a local concern, and the Horney Brothers of Asheville, will sell at auction, on Saturday the 6th of August the famous Oak Hill property on highway No. 28 about one mile west of Franklin. These two auction companies have recently staged several auction sales in Macon county and the fact that another is to be made this week is pointed out by those in a position to know as an evidence of returning prosperity in Macon county. Oak Hill is delightfully located and the sale will no doubt prove to be a success.
