

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Wilson Make Trip

Fair Oaks, Calif., Sept. 21, 1927. Mr. Harris. Dear Sir:—Please change our paper from Darlington, Wash., to Fair Oaks, Calif. We haven't had the paper since the first of August as we have been traveling most of the time. We went to Sea Side, Ore., for 16 days. We had a fine time there. From there to Trout Lake, Wash., to look after our ranch and visit our son for 3 weeks. From there to Sacramento, Calif., for 1 week. From there to Fair Oaks, Calif., where we will stay for the winter. This sure is a fine place. We are having fine weather. This is a fruit country, you can look out and see nothing only fruit trees and airplanes. We saw Lindbergh in the parade at Sacramento, and see him flying in his machine. Fröm, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. WILSON.

George Carpenter and family moved last Friday from Main street, where they have been living, to their new home on Tolla street.
