Talmadge Carter, one-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Carter, died Wednesday of this week.

County Agent C. W. Tilson, of Jackson county, was a visitor to Franklin Wednesday.

Within the past three years, 861 purebred registered dairy bulls have been brought into North Carolina through the work of the county agents and dairy specialists of State college.

The one great thing that Tarheel farmers may learn from those in continental Europe is the practice of thrift, say those county agents who visited Northern Europe this past summer.

Personal Mention

Rev. R. F. Mock spent a few days last week in Asheville on business.

Mr. Bill Cunningham is away at the eastern markets on a buying trip.

Mr. J. W. Roper left last of the week on a business trip to Chicago.

Mr. Marshall Cunningham has returned from an extended stay in the West.

Mr. C. C. Carrier, of Cornelia, was here last week on business.

Mrs. E. C. Kingsbery and daughter, Miss Emily, spent a week at their camp at the foot of Wayah Bald. Mr. Kingsbery and son, Lloyd, also spent a day or two at camp.

Bill Cunningham, Franklin's premier buyer, is now on a trip to Baltimore and Philadelphia buying goods for J. S. Porter & company. Bill has bought a big line of notions and shoes at 50 per cent below wholesale prices. This merchandise is now pouring into Franklin and the public is going to get the benefit of the lowest prices ever quoted in Franklin. Just come in and see. Adv.

Mr. Bill Hames left Monday for Chapel Hill to resume his studies at the University of North Carolina, after spending the Christmas vacation here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Hames.

The college boys and girls who came home for the Christmas holidays have returned to their respective institutions. Franklin has approximately 20 young people going to college.

Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Fouts spent last week end with their son, Attorney Dover Fouts, and his wife, at Burnsville.

A number of stores of Franklin went on a cash basis January 1st.

Miss Elizabeth Deal left Monday for Burnsville, N. C., where she will resume her work in the Burnsville High school.

Rev. J. A. Flanagan spent a few days this week in Gastonia.

Bill Cunningham knows the market from A to Z. And when the manager of a wholesale house sees Bill step in, said manager throws up his hands and almost gives Bill what he wants. In turn J. S. Porter & company are almost going to give away what Bill has recently bought in the eastern markets. Franklin's biggest store is not asking you to take anything for granted. Just investigate. Adv.

Mr. E. S. Hunnicutt drove his daughter Ora Sue and Miss Tim Crawford to Asheville Tuesday morning. The two young ladies were en route to Greensboro where they will continue their studies in music at N. C. C. W.

Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Crawford celebrated their second wedding anniversary on Monday evening at their home on the "Pine Hill" by having a few of their intimate friends in for the evening.

Hot chocolate and wafers were served.

Miss Louise McFaden returned to Hendersonville Tuesday after having spent Christmas holidays with her friends, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hunnicutt arrived in Franklin Friday after having spent several days in Washington, D. C., on their honeymoon.

Mr. Carl P. Cabe who spent the Christmas holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Cabe, at Otto, has returned to his position as linotype operator at Charleston, W. Va.

The radio at Smith's Drug store was awarded to Fred Cabe who held a ticket reading twenty minutes of ten on Wednesday.

Mr. John Trotter, of Cullowhee, was shaking hands with his friends in Franklin Wednesday of this week.

Mr. S. R. Joines, of Brevard, was a business visitor to Franklin Tuesday and Wednesday.

Smith Harris, Jr., and Carlton Harris are recovering from cases of measles.

J. J. Corbin has just finished a new 9-room home for Mr. and Mrs. Walter Elliott on Cat's Creek.

Mrs. Frank Moody will leave Friday for Orlando, Fla., to visit her daughter, Miss Nora, who is an instructor in music at a suburb of Orlando. Miss Moody recently returned from a trip to Cuba.

Mrs. A. W. Mangum and son, Bill, returned Monday from Tampa where they had spent the holidays with Mrs. Mangum's sister, Mrs. Early.
