

GOLDEN WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Franks, who are pioneer citizens of Franklin and Macon county, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary here today at their home on East Main street. The occasion was also the 81st birthday of Mr. Franks. The celebration was in the nature of a dinner at noon at which were present, Sam L. and J. D. Franks, sons, and Mrs. Elmira Henry, 87, a sister of Mr. Franks. Three children in Canada and one in Florida were unable to attend the anniversary.

Thursday Night Book Club

The last two meetings of the Thursday Night Book Club were as follows:

The meeting of February 23 was held at the home of Miss Mattie Angel with Mrs. Gaston Curtis as leader. The book chosen for study was "Dusty Answer" by Rosamond Lehmann, which is one of the outstanding novels of the new year. This book was discussed and criticised from various angles and representative passages were read from the book by Mrs. Curtis. A sketch of the life of Rosamond Lehmann was given and several notable reviews of "Dusty Answer" were read.

At the conclusion of the program a delicious salad course with coffee was served by Miss Angel.

The meeting of March 8 was held at the home of the club's president, Miss Annie Will Siler, with Miss Ruth Benjamin as hostess. A play, "In Abraham's Bosom" by Paul Green, had been chosen for reading and discussion.

"In Abraham's Bosom" was the ten thousand dollar Pulitzer prize play for 1927. In addition to this it is of especial interest to North Carolinians because of the fact that its writer is a native of North Carolina and was a student at the University. Then, too, all the scenes of the play were laid in the eastern section of this state.

A new member, Mrs. Nathaniel Macon, was elected at this meeting.

At the conclusion of the program tea and sandwiches were served by Misses Benjamin and Siler.

The next meeting of the club is to be March 22 at the home of Mrs. Gilmer Crawford.

Aquone Locals

out and the big rain came and sent the most of the road down to the Mississippi bottoms. So you see we haven't any road.

Mr. Dick Lambert was here from Belmont a few days ago. He said he would have to see Henry Ford and get a new model car, one that could swim mud holes before he came back again.

Stan Passmore and son, Daugh, are visiting at this place.

Mrs. Allie Martin, of Andrews, was at Aquone recently on business.

Mr. Ambers Haney and family and Mr. Jess Colman and family and Mrs. Allie Lambert and daughter, Sallie, were all visitors on Little Choga a few days ago.

There was a jolly crowd of young people picnicing on Little Choga recently.

Mr. Bud Hicks was married a short time ago and his sister is his mother-in-law.

Bood Smith and Miss Jane Neal were married a few days ago.

It is reported that Dr. Crawford, formerly of Aquone, is dead.

The Latham camps have been moved to the Herrican and the Ritter job is going nicely, so I hear.

The folks around here are trying to get ready to plant their gardens. Mrs. R. P. Lambert is in the same condition that she has been for the last three years, doesn't seem to get any better.

Annie Pearl Syba is improved. She has been at home 12 months and is nearly grown now.

Holly Springs News

Mr. B. W. Justice has just returned from Montana where he went to be at the bedside of his brother-in-law, Mr. Robert Duvall. Mr. Duvall got hurt in the mines and died before Mr. Justice got there.

The farmers of this community are making progress with their farm work.

Most all the sick folks around Holly Springs are getting better.

Mr. H. D. Crenshaw who has been logging for James Ammons on Ellijay, has come home to do some farm work.

Mr. J. L. Cabin, of Sylva, was here on business the past week.

Mr. Frank Criss spent Sunday with Mr. W. O. Elliott.

Mr. Bill Deal had the bad luck to lose one of his turkey hens, by its head getting fastened in the crack of the crib.

Mr. Frank Cabe and Mr. Polk Patterson went to Burningtown the past week to look at a milk cow.

The women folks of our section are busy with their gardens.

Mr. G. T. Crisp lost a fine calf with black leg.

Mr. Jake Deal is having some lumber sawed to build a new house.

Angel's Serves 890

At the first anniversary of its existence under the present management Angel's drug store served free ice cream to its customers last Saturday.
