

Lane Chandler and Fred Kohler in Zane Greys "Open Range" A Paramount Picture

FRED THOMSON IN BOY SCOUT FILM

A novel story has at last found its way to the screen in Fred Thomson's latest F. B. O. production, "A Regular Scout," to be shown at the Idle Hour theatre next Friday and Saturday. Never before in the history of pictures have the Boy Scouts, their ideals, training and remarkable influence been shown to the public. This intimate glimpse of one of the most powerful organizations in the world is at once vastly interesting and tremendously instructive. National headquarters appointed Edward B. De Groot, Scout Executive of the Los Angeles Council, to lend his assistance during the filming of the picture in order to insure technical accuracy in everything pertaining to the Scouts. Aside from the seven Scout troops used throughout the picture, the cast numbers many favorites such as Olive Hasbrouck, Mary Carr, Margaret Seddon, T. Roy Barnes, Buck Black, William Courtright, Bob McKim, Harry Woods and of course, Silver King. The story is by B. F. Oxford while the continuity was written by David Kirkland who also acted in the capacity of director.

REARING POOL QUICKLY BUILT

Work Started Monday Morning: 6,000 Fish In in the Wayah Game preserve where they will be cared for and fed by Game Warden Jesse Slagle.

This pool was an almost over-night creation and should be a source of pride to local people. No sooner had the forest service office received a notification Saturday morning that the fish were on their way than local sportsmen and business men had gotten together and contributed money for the building materials. Early Monday morning twenty men under the direction of Forest Ranger Byrd and Game Warden Slagle were working on the pool and by night had it built and ready for Tuesday's consignment of fish.

It is almost certain, according to District Game Warden Mease, who was in town last night, that another consignment of fish can be obtained for Macon county this year if another pool can be built. Instructions for the building of a pool, including amount of materials and costs, can be obtained from either Mr. Slagle or Mr. Byrd.

New Comedy Team Appear In "Adam and Evil"

Theatregoers now have a chance to witness the initial performance of Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's new screen comedy team—Lew Cody and Aileen Pringle. These two are to be co-starred in a number of feature comedies, the first of which comes next Wednesday and Thursday, to the Idle Hour theatre.

"Adam and Evil," directed by Robert Z. Leonard, is based on an original story by F. Hugh Herbert and Florence Ryerson, co-authors of "The Demi Bride," directed by Leonard and starring Norma Shearer with Lew Cody.

The cast of "Adam and Evil" includes Gwen Lee, Roy D'Arcy, Gertrude Short and Hedda Hopper.

"Open Range" Has Laughs!

Comedy constructor on a Western drama was the unusual position recently held by J. Walter Ruben.

County Streams Supplied.

Ten thousand fish arrived Tuesday in Franklin for distribution in the streams of the vicinity. The fish were from the government hatchery at Erwin, Tenn., and were part of a consignment which included both the Highlands and Otto districts.

About six thousand of the lively young ones were placed in the new rearing pool on Arrowhead Branch characters do not fit into the usual "hero, girl and villain" molds. Chandler's role, for instance, is that of a bragging, nervy, cocky upstart who wins the girl by sheer audacity. Heavy emphasis is laid on comedy throughout the picture.

"WE ALWAYS SELL THE BEST"

This accounts for Ruben's assignment, Supervisor B. F. Ziedman said.

If it's Worth a Can of Paint it's Worth a Decent Brush

WHEN you paint, remember the brush must be as good as the paint, lacquer or varnish. With good paint get a good brush. Many a job has been spoiled for the lack of a good brush. Buy a Wooster and make sure of good results.
