

LIONEL BARRYMORE and AILEEN PRINGLE in "BODY AND SOUL"

A FILM OF SOUL POWER

Reginald Barker's Newest, "Body and Soul," to Be Shown Here Soon

One of the most thrilling love stories that ever became a best seller has been made into a vivid melodramatic picture by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer under the title of "Body and Soul," and will be shown at the Idle Hour theatre next Wednesday and Thursday. The screen play was adapted from Katharine Newlin Burt's famous novel, "The Branding Iron," and features Aileen Pringle, Norman Kerry, Lionel Barrymore and T. Roy Barnes.

Set amid the impressive scenery of the Swiss Alps, it tells the tale of a peasant maid who marries a human derelict out of gratitude and then unwittingly arouses his jealousy to such a pitch that he brands her body with a white-hot iron so all men may know she is his. A mountaineer rescues the girl, spirits her away to his cabin and the two fall in love. How the husband appears on the scene, the sacrifice of the girl to save the man she loves and their eventual happiness make a powerful play of intense romance. It affords Miss Pringle the greatest emotional opportunity of her career. Reginald Barker, famous for his direction of red-blooded out-of-doors dramas, directed

Edna Murphy and The Son of Silver King Star With Thomson

The vivacious blonde loveliness of Edna Murphy lends itself admirably to various types of roles in screen productions, her career reveals.

Miss Murphy, in the leading feminine role opposite Fred Thomson in "Silver Comes Through," went directly into this dramatic Western role from the popular comedy "McFadden's Flats." Previous to this role, she played the feminine lead in Johnny Hines' "All Aboard," and her earliest work will be remembered in Richard Dix's starring vehicles.

A splendid cast is seen in support of Thomson as the star of "Silver Comes Through" which in addition to Miss Murphy includes "Silver King," the wonder horse, William Courtright, Harry Woods and Mathilde Brundage. Lloyd Ingraham directed.

Another star of this picture, although not so well known will nevertheless be viewed with interest by all those that have marveled at his father, Silver Prince, the son of Silver King, has a part in the picture, and seems to have inherited much of that equine personality that has made his father famous.

ESTHER RALSTON IN THE PARAMOUNT PICTURE "LOVE AND LEARN"

Esther Ralston Stars In New Type of Picture

Esther Ralston, who has perhaps, as many admiring fans as the most popular motion picture actress today, appears in "Love and Learn," Paramount's newest picture in which the beautiful star with the golden hair is starred at the Idle Hour theatre Monday and Tuesday.

This production differs somewhat from the type of picture Miss Ralston has been accustomed to, in that she plays a light comedy role. It should not be construed, however, that she is entering the comedy field, with "Love and Learn," but because of the many intriguing situations that occur, Miss Ralston finds herself performing before the camera in such a manner that is sure to provoke the loudest laughter, although the situations are very serious to her.

"I enjoyed making 'Love and Learn' as much if not more than any picture I have done," declared Miss Ralston after the picture had been completed.

mount. "The story called for my trying to get in trouble so my parents would not get a divorce. In other words, by getting myself in bad with the police, my idea was to divert their attention from their separation, and by so doing, to draw their efforts together by getting me out of trouble. It was great fun," she added.

Miss Ralston is ably supported by an excellent cast. Lane Chandler, who is one of the up and coming young actors developed by Paramount plays opposite her. Hedda Hopper and Claude King, old favorites, portray the roles of her father and mother, who start the action. Guy Oliver, who plays the part of the detective, adds another sterling performance to his already long list, and Jack Clark, all serve to make this production one of pleasing entertainment.

Chicken Sale

The next poultry sale will take place on Monday, April 23rd. It is suggested that all boarder hens be given a permanent vacation at this sale.
