Ridley who was born and reared in Macon county over on Watauga creek and who has become widely known as a preacher of power and ability will fill the pulpit of the Franklin Baptist church next Sunday morning at 11:00 o'clock. Dr. Ridley is also a writer of renown and is spending the spring and summer in the mountains getting material for use in his future writings. As a lecturer Dr. Ridley has few equals. The public is cordially invited to the services at the Baptist church next Sunday.

Child Conservation League Organized

The Franklin Circle of the Child Conservation League of America was organized here last week by Miss Amy L. Ridgely, at the home of Mrs. S. A. Harris. An efficient corps of officers were elected with Mrs. Lancaster as president. The league will meet regularly on the third Tuesday of each month, the first meeting to be at the home of Mrs. W. C. Cunningham April 24.

The aim and object of this league is mould and fashion the plastic material of childhood into the strength of perfect womanhood and manhood; to bring forcibly to the parents the vital necessity of understanding the adolescent period of youth; to create a love of virtue by showing its reward, a revulsion of evil by showing its destructive effects.

Interesting text books and programs are provided by the league. World-wide issues will be studied, as will local needs and conditions.

May Get Mongolian

Mr. Oscar Ashe, of Portland, Ore., who is visiting relatives here, states that there will be no difficulty in obtaining either Mongolian pheasants or their eggs. If the latter they can be hatched and the young reared to a sufficient age to care for themselves. These pheasants are intended for the Wayah Bald Game Refuge. Mr. Ashe says that the state game warden of Oregon will be glad to supply the pheasants.

Chevrolet Motor Co. to Help Collect Accounts

During the week of April 23-28 The Chevrolet Motor company will help dealers throughout the country to collect all outstanding accounts. Mr. Chas. Perry, local leader, states that a special effort will be made here during the time mentioned to collect accounts due the General Motors Chevrolet company.

Riley Orr, tax collector, and Will Sherrill, register of deeds, of Graham county were in attendance at court here this week. P. D. Shuler, Earl Shuler, Frank Shuler, W. P. Rose and Lee Crisp, all of Robbinsville, were also here this week.

Judge MacRae Addresses Rotary Club Here

At its weekly luncheon Wednesday the Rotary Club of Franklin had as its guest of honor Judge Cameron MacRae now holding superior court in Macon county. During the course of his talk the Judge took occasion to compliment the citizenship of the county relative to the performance of jury duty, one of the most important obligations of citizenship. The Judge stated that he had only two requests to be relieved from jury duty. In the opinion of Judge MacRae this showed that the people of Macon have a high conception of the responsibilities of citizenship.

The Judge also suggested that the Rotary clubs and similar organizations in various towns could do much to eliminate the road accidents prevalent in the state, particularly on Sundays. This improvement of conditions could be brought about by setting a good example and by co-operating with the officers in the proper enforcement of the motor vehicle laws.

Oscar Alexander, of Waynesville, a visiting Rotarian, also made a short talk. Dan Tompkins, Harry Buchanan and John Morris, all of Sylva, were present as guests and all made short talks that were appreciated by the local club.

Boys Bound Over

Jack and John Conley appeared before Magistrate George Carpenter Friday of last week charged with stealing corn from J. M. Daves. Probable cause was found and the boys were bound over to court on bonds of $200 each. Unable to make bond they were remanded to jail to await the next term of court. A younger brother was acquitted before Juvenile Judge Frank Murray.

Mr. E. C. Cooper is in Franklin in connection with a case against him in the superior court. Mr. Cooper claims persecution and is confident of acquittal.

POTATO HOUSE GOOD INVESTMENT

Mr. G. T. Parrish, who lives out Burningtown way, built a concrete potato cash during the winter. Mr. Parrish states that this is the best investment he ever made on his farm. He kept sweet potatoes all winter and never lost a jar of fruit that was stored in the potato house.

Epps Captured

Fred Epps and two companions were captured on the Georgia road Monday with nine gallons of mountain dew. It is understood that Epps had made boasts that the officers of Macon could not capture him. In fact, Fred Cabe, jailer, says that Epps informed him the night before that he (Epps) was going after liquor. At any rate Epps is now in Macon county's alleged jail. The name of his two companions were not learned.

Croker Gets 4 to 7 Years

William Croker, alias this and that, charged with stealing car of Nathaniel Macon, February 21st, was found guilty and sentenced to the state penitentiary for not less than four and not more than seven years. It is understood that he already has 2 years and six months to serve on a previous sentence from another county, he having escaped from the authorities. The present sentence is to take effect after other sentences, if any, are completed.

In Memory of Mother

MRS. M. E. BATES

On April 11 the Lord took from us our darling mother. She was 97 years old and had lived a devoted Christian 81 years. She was a loving, kind mother and loved by all who knew her. She bore her sufferings with patience. She would always say the Lord's will be done, not mine. But our loss is her great gain.

A precious one from us is gone
A gentle voice said come and
Angels from the other shore
Welcomed dear mother home.
MRS. N. E. SIMMONDS.

CARD OF THANKS

We would express to each and everyone who so kindly and cheerfully assisted us during the recent illness of our mother, our heartfelt thanks and deep appreciation. We are grateful indeed, for the help at her bedside, for the expressions of sympathy, and for the beautiful floral offerings which were sent in. Sorrow is more easily borne when there is the sympathetic kindness of friends, and we are deeply grateful for such friends.—The Family of Mrs. Susie Leach.

THANKS

Words cannot express my heartfelt gratitude to my friends that came so promptly to my aid and saved my home from burning to the ground last Monday afternoon.

I wish that I could "shake hands" and thank personally each man and boy—white and black—that got upon this hill so quickly and by their heroic efforts did me a service that I will everlastingly be grateful for. With deep appreciation,
MAMIE ROGERS.

John L. Cabe, 90, War Veteran And Prospector, Dies

John Leonidas Cabe, 90 years old, a veteran of the Civil war and for many years a prospector in Colorado, died at his home, 3027 Meade street, Monday of complications arising from old age.

Mr. Cabe, who celebrated his ninety-ninth birthday last September, was born in Macon county, North Carolina. He came to Colorado in 1868 and settled in Blackhawk, then a thriving mining town, to engage in mining ventures.

After he had tired of prospecting he settled in southern Colorado, living there as a farmer for twenty-three years. Seven years ago he moved to Denver.

Surviving are three daughters, Mrs. W. J. Sherman, Mrs. G. W. Henry and Mrs. Elsie White, all of Denver; one son, William Arthur Cabe, Rifle, Colo.; eight grandchildren and eighteen great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be announced later by the Olinger mortuary. The George Washington post No. 85 of Civil War Veterans and the Ida McKinley tent of the Daughters of Civil War Veterans will assist with the services.

Mr. Cabe was a grandson of Gen. John Cabe, who served during the Revolutionary war.—Denver Post.

CAN USE FORESTRY TELEPHONES

Through the courtesy of the forestry officials the government telephones throughout the Nantahala forest have been placed at the disposal of the public to call the county agent on official business. The use of the government system will be especially convenient to the citizens of Nantahala township. No charge for this service will be made.

Guffey Loses Auto Tag

Sometime ago a Mr. Guffey who lives down on Cowee, paid the editor for an advertisement for a lost auto tag. We have lost the advertisement and if Mr. Guffey will call his money will be refunded. The editor regrets losing the advertisement. As we reper Cowee and Franklin. Any one finding the tag will do us a favor by leaving it at The Press office or by communicating with Mr. Guffey.

THE EDITOR.

Strawberry Plants

Mr. H. N. Moore whose present headquarters are at the county agent's office, states that he has 1,500 strawberry plants left for sale. These plants are the remainder of an order for fifty thousands.

will furnish the Materials?

That will determine, often, whether or not your new home will be a thing of worth and comfort or otherwise. All down the line, you'll find high-quality materials here, at right prices. For instance—

SHEET ROCK

—the fireproof wallboard. Best there is. Pure gypsum rock in broad, high sheets, between tough fibre paper. Permanent. Decorates perfectly. Never cracks, warps or buckles. Vermin-free. Time-tried.
