In Loving Memory of "Aunt" Sarah Blaine

Sarah M. Farrester, daughter of Thomas and Emily Farrester, entered into this world of trials February 6, 1850, and departed from friends and loved ones here to join those gone on before, May 22, 1928. She was married to Benjamin Franklin Blaine December 18, 1896. To this union was born 8 children; 5 girls and 3 boys. Two girls preceded her to the land beyond. She professed faith in our loving Savior years ago, and joined the Baptist church at Mt. Hope, of which she was a worthy member when the end came.

She was almost an invalid for 4 years before her death but never gave up hope till the end came. She told her children before she went that she was ready and wanted to go home to rest from toil and care. She was a loving companion and devoted mother, loved and respected by all who knew her.

She leaves to mourn her departure: a husband, 6 children, 3 sisters and a host of other relatives, and friends. Those surviving are: B. F. Blaine, husband; Mrs. Thos. Bingham, Mrs. John Bingham, Mrs. Thos. Angel, and Joe Blaine, all of Franklin; Messrs. Robert and Bill Blaine, of Great Falls, Mont. All are of mature age.

The remains were laid to rest at Patton Chapel cemetery, May 23, to await the final day. Revs. A. S. Solesbee and D. L. Earnhart attended the funeral services.

We extend to the family and friends our heart-felt sympathy. We know and realize that we can not call mother back, but let's all strive to meet her in a better world on high.

COWBOY THRILLS FRANKLIN LADS

Tex Elam, friendly, unassuming Texas cowboy, blew into Franklin Monday to put on his exhibition of lassoing and gunplay at the Idle Hour theatre on Monday night.

"I'll bet he's lassoed many a buffalo on the plains," remarked Dan Carter, viewing the street exhibition from his seat on the curbing.

Tex, with sombrero, chaps, silk handkerchief, high-heeled shoes, and lasso held an audience in the district of the loafers' bench for the entire afternoon. He showed the spectators how to lasso boys in full run; he lassoed them from the top, from the bottom, and, for good measure, lassoed a dog or two to show that it could be done.

Two years ago Tex, who had spent all his life on the Mexican border, concluded he would see America. Attaching a set of horns from a champion Texas longhorn to the front of his truck and carrying the stuffed head of another longhorn to hang to the front of the theatres he was to visit, Tex has since traveled in 42 states.

For nine years the cowboy was a Texas ranger, and during that time aided in the capture of numerous bandits along the Mexican border. The mountain country, Tex says, is decidedly to his liking, and the people are the friendliest he has met in many a day.

 My Dear Sir:
 About 30 days ago I wrote you for your Prescription 139 for PELLAGRA. I was broken out with sores all over, with sore throat and my bowels were in an awful shape. I tried everything I heard of but doctors and all failed to do me any good. After using your remedy I am practically a well man and I am willing and anxious to tell everybody about your wonderful remedy. May God bless you, refer anyone you want to me. I am a poor man and not able to advertise this remedy as I would like too.
 With best wishes, I am sincerely,
 M. A. RICHARDSON.
