

Death of M. K. Smith

Mr. M. K. Smith of Kyle, N. C., died February 16, 1929, at the home of his son at Rich Mountain. Some years ago Mr. Smith had a stroke of paralysis from which he never fully recovered. A second stroke ended his life. He lived to the ripe old age of 81 years. He had lived in the Briartown section of the county for many years. His body was taken back there for interment. He leaves nine children and about twenty-three grandchildren besides a host of relatives and friends to mourn his departure.

IT GAVE HIM NEW OUTLOOK ON LIFE

"Being a working-man, and so sick at times that I thought I would have to quit my job—I tell you I feel like telling the world about Sargon and Sargon Soft Mass Pills after what these wonderful medicines have done for me.

W. R. PACK

"For several years I was underweight and was hardly ever able to get a good night's sleep. I was so nervous. Dizzy spells used to worry me a lot, too. I had indigestion nearly always and was so badly constipated I was taking laxatives all the time, but nothing I tried gave me any real relief.

"Sargon and Sargon Soft Mass Pills took hold from the start, and now, after two bottles of Sargon and one of the pills, my friends all say I don't look like the same man.

"I'm picking up weight, my indigestion is gone, I don't have that swimming in my head, my constipation is getting better and I now sleep soundly—without having to sit up to get my breath like I used to when the gas would press up against my heart and make me think I was going to die, for if a man goes on like that he will be made all over again, I am that man."

The above statement was made by W. R. Pack, 602 A. Fair Street, Atlanta. Mr. Pack a textile worker employed by the Fulton Bag and Cotton Mills.

Sargon may be obtained in Franklin from Perry's Drug Store. Adv.

EVERYBODY'S HAPPY!

I've heard some slight talk of high prices and hard times. Wonder who could have started it?

Anyway, the misguided purveyor of such provender hadn't been to Bill Cunningham's new store. For the only man who ever came here and went away with such tales was discovered to be President of the Ananias Club. And they later turned him out for being too much of a liar for the company he kept!

All of which means that there are no high prices at Bill Cunningham's. And, by the same token, the person who trades here will go quite a ways down the road yet before he begins complaining of hard times.

PRICES ARE NOT HIGH—NOT AT BILL CUNNINGHAM'S—TIMES ARE NOT HARD—FOR THOSE WHO KNOW BILL CUNNINGHAM!

Put that in your pipe and smoke it!

And, while we are at it, suppose we masticate this little morsel:—

Value for value, Bill Cunningham guarantees to meet or beat any catalog price in the world! That's laying it on pretty thick, but you doubting Thomases have a mighty simple way of testing the statement.

For Bill Cunningham, now and always, SETS THE PRICE IN MACON COUNTY!
