

A PRAYER

Eternal joy I do not seek,
 Good Lord, I do not ask to be From need to serve the frail and weak
 And every worthy cause set free.
 Grant me, not always blissful rest
 But always strength to do my best.
 Grant me the courage for the day,
 The wisdom to select the right,
 The strength of purpose that can stay
 Unbroken by a bitter fight.
 'Tis not relief from toil I ask,
 But strength to finish every task.
 Let me press forward to the end,
 To meet whatever fate may be,
 To play the neighbor and the friend,
 Knowing the world has need of me.
 And when my earthly course is run,
 Set me to tasks which must be done.
 I would continue on and on Gaining new wisdom down the years,
 Facing the future there as one Who knows both happy smiles and tears.
 Doing some service, let me be Busy throughout eternity. -

See First Automobile

A new kind of machine was seen recently in Atoyac, Mexico. Natives of the Pacific Coast town viewed this modern invention with a great deal of curiosity. It was an automobile.
 General Rafael Sanchez, commander of the State of Guerrero, drove a Model A Ford phaeton across country from Acapulco to Atoyac, over land so rough that none had made such a journey before. He sent this wire to R. Z. Martinez, Ford dealer at Iguala: "For your pleasure be informed that the Ford car that I purchased from you is the first automobile that has ever reached this town, over a difficult country where there are no roads at all and the land is strewn with rocks and soft sand. Motor in perfect condition after terrible test. Small towns along path regarded first automobile with wonder."

Mr. George Howard of Tryphosia was in town Monday of this week.
