

HALE AND KOHLER ALWAYS BATTLING

Trying to outwit Fred Kohler will soon become what psychoanalysts term a fixation, with Alan Hale. Immediately after the two had completed work in "Sal of Singapore" where they were masters of rival ships as well as dual contenders for the favors of Phyllis Haver, both were selected for leading roles in "The Spieler," in which they again match wits.

Alan Hale has the title role of "The Spieler," with Kohler playing the leader of a gang of crooks who have secured the concessions in a traveling circus.

Renee Adoree was borrowed from Metro for the leading feminine role in this thrilling and original story of carnival life, produced by Ralph Block. The cast also includes Clyde Cook, Fred Warren, Jimmy Quinn and Kewpie Morgan.

"The Spieler" which will be on view at the Macon theatre Wednesday and Thursday of next week was adapted for the screen by Tay Garnett, director of the picture and Hal Conklin, who wrote the original story.

TIM MCCOY'S NEW FILM BREATHES REAL ROMANCE

"The Overland Telegraph," Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's vivid drama of the building of the first transcontinental telegraph line, is the attraction coming to the Macon theatre with Tim McCoy as star.

The new play is a vivid and authentic portrayal of the perils and difficulties of building the first telegraph line from coast to coast, with line-men, protected by cavalry, forcing their way through the savage tribes of Indians. McCoy plays a young army officer engaged in leading a convoy for one of the telegraph units.

Sensational pursuits between cavalrymen and Indians battles and other exciting details surround a pretty love story in the new play, which John Waters directed, with Dorothy Janis as the heroine of the new picture. The cast includes Lawford Davidson, Frank Rice, Chief Big Tree and others. An entire tribe of Blackfeet Indians and a troop of cavalry also appear in the new production, with the locales in picturesque sites in Wyoming.

"TRUE HEAVEN" IS NOT A WAR FILM BUT OF WAR DAYS

Though "True Heaven" is episodically a story of the late conflict of nations, there is no scene in the picture which brings the character of the play nor the evolution of the story to the battle front.

On that basis, "True Heaven" can not be called a war story in the accepted sense. There are no big guns, no marching regiments, no battles—"True Heaven" is more of the period of the war than of the war itself.

Again, "True Heaven" proves more than all else that teeming drama came out of the war, real human drama, none more powerful than is embodied in this story of a young British officer and a mysterious young girl, known only as "Judith."

Miles from the fighting front this youth and girl met, under strange circumstances the youth falls in love with her, only to discover that she is an enemy spy and that his life is in her hands.

Torn between love and patriotism, the girl has to make a hurried decision and she does. George O'Brien and Lois Moran are co-featured in this human drama with a brilliant supporting cast.

Surveyed the 21st day of February 1918.

The terms of sale are as follows: the successful bidder is to deposit at once with the Commissioner or with the Court the sum of Two Hundred Fifty Dollars, either in cash or by certified check, the same to be applied on the bid should there be a compliance therewith, but should there be a failure to comply therewith, then it shall be forfeited to the plaintiff and the premises resold on the same or the next convenient sales day thereafter upon the same terms and at such bidder's risk;

One-third (1-3) of the accepted bid shall be paid into Court in cash, immediately after the confirmation of the sale, the balance on credit, payable in three equal annual installments, with interest thereon at 6 per cent per annum from date of sale till paid and secured by a first mortgage on the premises on the part of the purchaser.

Purchaser may pay in cash the whole or any part of the credit portion. Should the cash proceeds of the sale not suffice, after paying cost to the action, expenses of the sale including the compensation to the Commissioner, and all unpaid taxes and assessments, then assessed upon the property, to discharge and pay off the judgment in favor of the plaintiff in full, then any balance due upon such judgment shall be evidenced by a separate bond and secured by a first and separate mortgage of the premises on the part of the purchaser and transferred and assigned to the plaintiff.

The purchaser shall pay for the preparation and recording of all papers.

All bids will be received subject to rejection or confirmation by the Clerk of said Superior Court and no bid will be accepted or reported unless its maker shall deposit with said Clerk at the close of the bidding the sum of Two Hundred ($250.00) Fifty Dollars, as a forfeit and guaranty of compliance with his bid, the same to be credited on his bid when accepted.

Notice is hereby given that all lands will be resold at the same place and upon the same terms at 2 o'clock P. M. of the same day unless said deposit is sooner made.

Every deposit not forfeited or accepted will be promptly returned to the maker.

This the 5th day of June, 1929.

CARRY ONLY BEST LINES

Our experience of some twenty years has taught us that the only satisfactory way to handle any staple or nationally advertised line of merchandise is to first satisfy ourselves as to what is the best of its kind then to adopt that line.

We take pride in the fact that we have sold and continue to sell the best lines of farm and garden tools that are to be found.

Also our line of general hardware is always up to the best and at prices that will meet all competition when quality is considered.
