ANNOUNCEMENT
RABUN GAP-NACOOCHEE SCHOOL

The fall term of the Rabun Gap-Nacoochee School will begin on the first Monday in September. Places are now being filled. The advantages of a school and farm and home are offered to boys and girls of the mountain country who need a place where they can work their way.

Beginning with the fall term, the school will be conducted on the fifty-fifty plan of half of the day for books and the other half for work. Applicants for admission must be apt to learn, willing to work, sound in health and not under fourteen years of age.

We know the needs of the boy and girl of the humblest home who need a chance to get their education by working their way. We stand for the old fashioned training that has made the best citizens our country has ever had. Our whole object is to help the boy or girl that needs a better chance.
