

HIGHLANDS—THE ROOF GARDEN OF THE SOUTHEAST

Highland Flings

The regular monthly meeting of the Highlands Community club was held at the Bank of Highlands Wednesday October 9th. The officers of the club are president, Mrs. Hines, vice-president, Mrs. Davis, recording secretary, Mrs. Root, corresponding secretary, Mrs. Storey, and treasurer, Mrs. C. C. Potts. Mr. T. P. Anderson, Sr., not long ago gave to this club a lovely lot situated at the foot of Sunset Mountain for their club-house. Nearly $1,000.00 has been raised for the club house.

The Girl Scouts of Highlands led by Mrs. Pierson of Chicago, went up to the top of Satulah Mountain on a hike last Saturday afternoon.

Miss Gertrude Weil of Goldsboro, the president of the North Carolina League of Women voters gave a very interesting talk to the Macon county League of Women voters, at Highlands Inn Tuesday afternoon, October 8th. Following Miss Weil's talk the ladies of the League served tea and a delightful social hour ensued.

Miss Elizabeth McCarty spent the week end in Highlands with her parents.

Professor Otto Summer and Professor "Luke" Hentz took the place of Mr. Charlie Anderson behind the soda fountain during his absence this past week end.

Mr. James A. Hines was a visitor in Franklin Sunday afternoon. He reports that the new highway is very beautiful with Autumn foliage.

Mrs. Margaretta Martin has just returned from a visit to Mrs. J. S. Sewell.

Many tourists were in Highlands Sunday who were taking advantage of the lovely afternoon to view the brilliant foliage.

The Boy Scouts of Highlands went for a hike Sunday afternoon led by the assistant Scout Master, Prof. Hentz.

Mr. Lawton James and Miss Irene Picklesimer were married at the home of the bride Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Ivey arrived to make a visit to Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Root.

Mrs. Robert N. Hughes, accompanied by friends drove over the new scenic highway to Franklin Sunday afternoon.

The Highlands club house is now finished and an additional nine holes of golf will be ready for next summer.

Mr. Clark Foreman and a number of friends from Atlanta spent the week end at Tanglewood, the home of Mr. R. L. Foreman on Lindenwood Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Turner of Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, have returned to their home after spending the summer at the Hall House.

Sunday afternoon Mrs. Hunt Henderson and the Misses Henderson gave a very delightful tea at King's Inn. Those present were Mrs. Eskrigge and her daughter, Mrs. Hodgson and her mother, Mrs. Thomas, Mrs. Minnie D. Warren, Mrs. Margaretta Ravenel, Mrs. Edith Dougal, Miss Valerie Dougal and Miss Albertina Staub.

Messrs. Vanderhurst of Charleston, S. C., are spending the Fall at the Albert Hill Cottage.

ENABLED HER TO TAKE NEW WORK

"When my firm offered me a better position, I debated whether to accept or not as I was in a badly rundown condition. My stomach was disordered and I suffered from indigestion and terrible vomiting spells. I had awful sick headaches, there was a constant pain in my back and shoulders and sometimes my hands and feet would become badly swollen. My liver was inactive, I was habitually constipated and none of the medicines I took seemed to reach my case.

"But thank goodness, Sargon did—and most effectively. It seemed to help me from the very beginning, soothing my stomach and driving away every pain and ache I had. I quit having those terrible vomiting spells and indigestion. The swelling in my hands and feet went down and I'm well and strong again. Sargon Pills toned up my liver and now I never have the slightest trouble with my constipation or headaches. This splendid medicine has been worth its weight in gold to me. It enabled me to accept a good position and brought me the joy of living."—Mrs. Margaret Burke, 109 Woodlawn Ave., N. W., Atlanta.

Then and Now

"Folks don't fear God nor respect the law like they did when I was a boy," remarked former State Senator John M. Boyette to a friend the other day when discussing the riots at Marion and Gastonia. "An officer of the law this day and time means nothing to the average person. I can remember when I was a boy growing up on a farm in Anson county," he went on reminiscently, "that when the high sheriff of Anson county would visit at my father's home the children and the colored people gazed upon him as the emblem of authority. He was to us the essence of dignity and majesty and authority. We gazed upon him with a sort of awe. And when the minister visited our home he was given that reverential homage to which his office entitled him. He was to us the ambassador of Jesus Christ, he was God's representative and as such, we respected and revered him. We respected him for what he was supposed to represent. And back then when the minister visited the home there was always a prayer offered up on such occasion even the negroes on the farm would humbly creep into the room and kneel for the prayer. What a difference today. There are too many both of the younger generation and among the older persons now who look upon the sheriff as no more than any other man. The minister is too often a joke. He is not revered and respected by the children nor the head of the home when he makes a visit as he was then or should be today. We are getting too disrespectful of everything this day and time. And just such acts of lawlessness as those recently pulled off at Marion, Gastonia and Charlotte are but the reflections of the modern tendency to neither fear God nor respect the law of the land."

Folks, Mr. Boyette may have put it a bit strong, but that he was playing around uncomfortably near the neighborhood of where the truth dwells, all observing and thoughtful persons are bound to agree, whether we be pessimists or optimists.—The Stanly News-Herald.
