CORRESPONDENT, THIS IS FOR YOU

Reporters To Be Paid For News Beginning This Week

With this issue The Press begins paying regular correspondents for news matter printed. All correspondents must be subscribers to The Press, or some member of the family must be a subscriber. Correspondents who have been receiving The Press may count news matter on a subscription.

Payment will be made between the first and tenth of the month following the month of publication of news. Payments will not be made oftener than once each month.

Names Dropped

This week we are again revising the list of correspondents. Those who fail to send in news regularly will be promptly dropped. This week Stella Wilson, of Broadway; Mrs. F. H. Nolen, of Cartoogechaye; Bertha Carpenter, of North Skeenah; and Carl Morgan, of Stiles, are being removed from the list. No one of these correspondents has sent in news more than twice since Jan. 1, according to our records. This is the last issue of The Press that will be mailed to these correspondents. These communities are open for new reporters.

Mrs. A. C. Patterson, of Tesenta; Mrs. R. A. Patton, of Patton's; and J. C. Bradley, Jr., of Otto, are being added to the list this week. Others will probably be added next week. Those desiring to become correspondents must state the fact. Names will not be added simply upon receipt of news items.

Hints For You

Reporters must use care in writing news. Unless news matter is legible, authentic, and comes to this office regularly, correspondents will be dropped and others secured.

Do not report community visiting. It will not be printed.

Do not insert your own opinion into news. It won't go into print. If you have something to discuss write a letter for the editorial page.

Do not say that Rev. Trixie filled his regular appointment at Bixbie church last Sunday. It takes something irregular to make news.

Do not tell what THE FARMERS are doing. Tell us what SOME farmer is doing. And give his NAME.

Forget the weather. It's all alike in Macon county.

All news must be received at the Press office not later than Tuesday at noon. It is preferable that news be received on Monday.

SINGING CONVENTION

The Quarterly Singing convention was held at Cowee Baptist church last Sunday.

This convention was carried on in a quiet and orderly manner by the moderator, Jim Raby, with the cooperation of the president, Walter Dalton. Liberty Baptist church was represented by an excellent class, many choruses of melody were sung by those representing the Baptist people of Liberty.

Then came Cowee's class with many choice selections which were enjoyed very much. The honor of the class from Cowee must be given to the Cowee Baptist Sunday school.

Ridge Crest Baptist church is to be honored for having a nice representation of singers to sing specials at this convention.

Swain quartette was conducted through the able leadership of Baxter Smiley, from Bryson City. Special attention was noted as to the wonderful melody portrayed by the Swain quartetters.

Jackson county's singers were welcome visitors to this convention with a number of refined selections, and are invited to the Macon county conventions.

During the day a wonderful sermon was given by Rev. George A. Cloer after which there was an offering taken for the benefit of the orphanage. Later in the day a wonderful talk was made by Rev. Alvin S. Solesbee.

The singing was concluded by the changing of the time from the third Sunday to the fifth Sunday.

This convention is a child of Honorable Geo. W. Seebren.

The next convention will be held at the Iotla Baptist church.
