

SHOE CONCERN IS 4 YEARS OLD

(Continued from page one) brother, John Angel. Together they are operating the stand next door to The Franklin Press. As many as 250 pairs of shoes have often been repaired by this shop in one month, the Angel brothers report.

PROVISION CO. 20 YEARS OLD

Wholesale Firm Considered A County Institution By Many

Twenty years of successful wholesaling is the record of the Carolina Provision company, owned and managed by W. L. Higdon.

A complete line of staple and fancy groceries is carried by the concern. Feed for cows, chickens, hogs and horses is always in stock.

Town and country merchants all over Macon county have long patronized the Carolina Provision. In the minds of the people of Macon, the concern is more than a business—it is looked upon as a county institution.

J. T. MOORE'S STORE OLDEST

Merchant Has Been In Business Here For 57 Years

What Franklin merchant has been in business longest? J. T. Moore is the man. Since he was 21 years of age Mr. Moore has been selling goods. On Feb. 16, he celebrated the fifty-seventh anniversary of his entrance into the business of retailing. On May 24, Mr. Moore will be 80 years old.

The building now occupied by J. T. Moore and company was erected in 1907 by Moore and Benbow, and has been occupied since 1908 by the store. In 1920, John E. Moore bought an interest in his father's business, and has been associated with the firm since that date.

Mr. Moore's long record in business is also a record of honesty and integrity. "Do unto others as you would be done by" is the motto of the firm.

FREE BATTERY TESTING DONE

Franklin Battery And Radiator Works Out For Service

Free battery testing service, and a minimum fee for charging batteries is a feature of the business service offered by Franklin Battery and Radiator works, owned and managed by Jack Wyman. U. S. L. batteries are sold by the firm.

A few weeks ago, a new brake lining machine was installed by Mr. Wyman.

Greasing and washing are efficiently done. Whippet parts, Fisk tires and tubes, DeLaval cream separators are carried in stock.

Franklin Battery and Radiator works is located opposite the Franklin Service station on Palmer street. The day phone is 140; the night phone 1805. The business was organized in November 1928.

CITY GARAGE FIXES AUTOS

Bill Angel, Owner, Is Graduate of Service School

"When in trouble see Bill." Motorists understand that this quotation refers to Bill Angel, owner of the City Garage, located in the McCoy building on Palmer street. Vance Mathis is associated with Mr. Angel in auto repair work.

Bill Angel has had seven year's experience as an auto mechanic, and is a graduate of the Chevrolet Service school at Charlotte. He has specialized four years on the Chevrolet car, but is equally prepared for all kinds of work on other makes.

The City Garage sells Standard gas and oil.

SHOE REPAIRS MADE BY HORN

Between Times He Composes Poetry; Plans To Print Book

Troy Horn bought the Franklin Shoe shop from Jehu Tylar early last fall. Since that time he has been working almost day and night to care for the business that has come the establishment. Between times, Mr. Horn writes poetry, and has collected many hundreds of poems which he plans to put in book form at a later date.

Not the least important of Mr. Horn's stanzas are the verses he uses to advertise his business. Here is a sample:

"When you go humping down the road,
All burdened with a heavy load,
It may be your soles are thin—
Don't wait too long to bring 'em in."

THEATRE HAS GOOD RECORD

High Standards of Theatrical Entertainment Set By S. H. Lyle, Jr.

S. H. Lyle, Jr., sets high standards of theatrical entertainment at the Macon theatre, the county's only moving picture concern. Last fall Mr. Lyle installed vitatone equipment in the theatre, and since then has had increased patronage from people of the town and county.

Among the leading feature pictures of the last few weeks have been the Hollywood Revue, The Viking, Dynamite, and others.

The Macon theatre has an excellent location on Main street, occupies a new building, is decidedly well equipped, and is under excellent management.

S. E. EATON IS PROGRESSIVE

Macon Chevrolet Company Advances Under New Management

S. E. Eaton is the new manager of the Macon Chevrolet company, successors to the Perry-Jones Chevrolet company. Since Mr. Eaton came to Franklin, the building occupied by the firm has been remodeled, a new personnel has been employed, and many new cars have been placed in Macon county.

Alvah Pearce heads the sales department of the business. C. C. Noyes recently joined the firm, after leaving the Joines Motor and Tractor company.

Both new and used cars are on sale by the Chevrolet concern.
