

HIGHLANDS—THE ROOF GARDEN OF THE SOUTHEAST

MACON COUNTY NEWS BRIEFS AS TOLD BY CORRESPONDENTS

RAINBOW SPRINGS—F. W. Tittle
PRENTISS—Beatrice Gribble
WALNUT CREEK—Mrs. F. E. Mashburn
NORTH SKEENAH—W. R. Sanders
SHOOKVILLE—Marie Rogers
ELLIJAY—D. J. Moses
TELLICO—Vance DeHart
WESTS MILL—Will Elmore
HOLLY SPRINGS—Faye Franklin
NORTON BRANCH—W. L. Carpenter
TESENTA—Mrs. A. C. Patterson
PATTON'S—Mrs. R. A. Patton
OTTO—J. C. Bradley, Jr.
KYLE—Maude Lunsford
CULLASAJA—Mrs. Fred McGuire
FLATS—M. J. May
SCALY—Mrs. Irene James
STILES—Carl Morgan
CARTOOGECWAYE—Mrs. F. H. Nolen

Tesenta

Mr. Jerry McCall and sister, Lizzie, from Greenville, are visiting their aunt, Mrs. Bob Webb.

Mrs. William Keener has moved from G. L. Garland's farm to Mr. Cling Brown's place near Otto.

Mrs. James L. Buchanan left Friday for her old home at Commerce, Ga., where she will visit her children for a week.

Mr. Martin Justice, of Prentiss, is visiting his daughter, Mrs. John C. Smith. Mr. Smith has been sick for the past week.

Messrs. Alex and Frank Garland have been hauling cross ties from the Mashburn mill this week.

Mr. Don Young has been on Tesenta three days this week branding government cross ties and telephone poles.

Mrs. Hattie Justice, of Prentiss, is visiting friends and relatives here this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Milo Cabe are going to make their home with Mr. J. L. Justice this year.

Aunt Malinda Picklesimer, who has been confined to her room for more than a year, is suffering with a cancer on her cheek.

Mrs. Claude Henry and children, of Highlands, are visiting Mrs. Henry's sister, Mrs. Bob Webb.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery McCoy died Tuesday night and was buried at Dryman's Chapel Wednesday. Rev. Baty conducted funeral services at the home of Mr. McCoy.

Mr. Ralph Justice has been suffering with a felon on his finger. He went to Franklin Thursday and Dr. Lyle operated on it.

Rev. Baty was called away from services Thursday, to the Angel hospital, where his daughter was operated on.

Mr. Jack Henry died Friday night of acute indigestion. Mr. Henry was 59 years old, and had only been sick a short time.

Death was unexpected by his family and friends. He leaves a wife; two sons, Noah, of Dillard, Ga., and Oliver, of Tesenta; three daughters, Mrs. John Dryman, of Tesenta, Mrs. Elbert Gibson, of Highlands, Mrs. Addie Miller, of Cashiers; one sister, Mrs. Mary J. E. Marchetti, of Charleston, S. C.; five brothers, Miller, Paul and Joe, of Highlands, N. L., of Tesenta, and J. W., of Mountain Rest, S. C. Funeral services were conducted Saturday at Dryman's Chapel by Rev. John Baty.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Henry of Mountain Rest, S. C., attended the funeral of their brother, Jack, here Saturday.

Norton Branch

Mr. Jess Norton and Mr. Lawrence Bingham made a business trip to Dillard, Ga., Saturday.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Thurman Henson, Feb. 18, a baby girl, Gyneth Marie.

Mr. Thurman Henson made a business trip to Dillard, Ga., Friday.

Mr. H. N. Thomas made a business trip to Prentiss, Thursday.

Owing to rain Sunday morning only 31 were present at Newman's Chapel Sunday school. Mr. Avery McCall had charge in the absence of Superintendent John Holt.

Mrs. E. C. Hopper and daughters, Misses Goldie and Ruth, of Dillard, Ga., were visitors to Mr. and Mrs. Jim McDowell's Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Lawrence Bingham was a visitor to Mr. and Mrs. Lem McClure, of Middle Creek, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Carpenter, Sam and Charlie, Ernest, of Mountain City, Ga., were visitors at Mr. and Mrs. William Carpenter's, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cabe, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Cabe, and Mr. and Mrs. John Dill, of Middle Creek, were visitors at Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Norton's Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Frank Carpenter, a student at Rabun Gap community high school, was a visitor at Mr. and Mrs. William Carpenter's Sunday afternoon.

We are sorry to learn that Mrs. Harlie Thomas is sick this week.

We understand that Mrs. Robert Howard of Norton is to take over the Tryphosa post office as post mistress, this week. Mr. A. J. Newman was formerly post master at Tryphosa having served in that capacity for several years.

Mr. Tom McDowell, who has been at work at Enka, is in an Asheville hospital where he underwent an operation a few days ago.

Mrs. James McDowell and Mrs. Tom McDowell were visitors at Mr. Tom McDowell's at Asheville a few days ago.

Stiles

Mr. Dave Gunter, of Bushnell, was in this section Friday and Saturday looking over some farms. Mr. Gunter sold his holdings at Bushnell to the power people and from information just received he has a farm on Burningtown Creek spotted.

Carl D. Morgan was commissioned post master at Stiles a few days ago. Mr. John T. Welch, of Needmore, was in this section on business Saturday.

Mr. T. T. Love after teaching a seven and one-half months' school at the Morgan school returned to his home Saturday at Clarksville, Ga.

Mr. Austin Byrd, of Habersham, Ga., was visiting friends and relatives in this section last week end.

Miss Mary Carnes, formerly of Atlanta, is with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Carnes, seriously ill with abscess of the brain. Dr. Williams is the attending physician.

Dr. W. A. Rogers was in this section Friday. He was called to H. B. Mason's home.

Prof. T. A. Slagle is teaching a ten-day singing school at Tellico church. From all reports Mr. Slagle is doing a great work to advance his students.

Mrs. Susie Duvall is reported to be ill.

Mr. Harvey Carnes is suffering with rheumatism.

Mr. E. B. Byrd has rented the Cairo. Duvall lands and is making good progress plowing.

Mr. Henry Cole, of Farney, who recently purchased the A. W. Morgan lands on Burningtown Creek, is erecting a nice house. Carpenters state that the house will soon be ready for occupants.

Mr. Brye Holbrooks, who works in the Fontana mines, is with home folks.

The people in this section met Sunday evening at the Morgan school house and organized an independent Sunday school. The school will meet at 2:30 p. m. Song service will last 30 minutes followed by the lesson. Officers will be elected next Sunday. The school will have by-laws prepared by a committee of three. Everybody far and near will be welcome. The object of the school is to teach Bible facts.

Rev. A. J. Smith made a business trip to Franklin, Monday.

Messrs. Carl and Frank Childers, of Route Three, were visiting their sister, Mrs. Clyde Morgan, the week end.

Cartoogechaye

The Cartoogechaye school is nearing the close of a very successful year under the supervision of Miss Amanda Slagle, principal; Mr. William Crawford, teacher of intermediate work; and Miss Glee Garner, teacher in primary grades.

Miss Dorothy Allen, of Asheville, was visiting her friends here last week.

Mr. Quincy Corpening, who has been confined to his bed with flu, is recovering.

Mr. and Mrs. David Ledford visited Mr. Ledford's father, Mr. Bud Ledford, on Thursday.

Miss Mary Louise Slagle, who is attending Franklin high school, spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Slagle.

Miss Peggy Corpening, of Franklin, spent Friday night of last week with home folks.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Slagle and two children, Virginia and Charlie, were the dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Slagle on Sunday.

MISS KISER HOSTESS

Miss Amber Kiser was a charming hostess at a George Washington party at her home on Wayah road Saturday night.

The colonial games played during the evening were characteristic of social life in Washington's day. Before the guests departed they were asked to write a telegram using ten words beginning with the letters which spelled Washington. The various telegrams were very pathetic, amusing and original.

Candies were enjoyed throughout the evening, and toward the close small, white cakes decorated with sprays of red cherries were served with hot chocolate by the hostess and her niece, Miss Lewis.

Guests present were: Misses Elizabeth and Hattie Slagle, Carolyn and Frances Nolen, Elizabeth Setser and Leona Lewis; Messrs. Paul and John Robert Dalrymple, Chas. Nolen, Robert Enloe, W. L. Setser and Woodrow Kiser.

Cullasaja

Mr. P. G. Holland, Mr. Orion Holland, and Miss Mary Holland, from Nantahala, were visiting home folks, Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. Billy Bryson, from Winston-Salem, is at home again.

Mr. Carl McCall, from East Fort, is visiting home folks.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank McCall, Mr. Dock Watkins, Mr. Ray Norton, from Highlands, were in this section on business last week.

Mr. Amos Mashburn, from Walnut Creek, is plowing for Mr. Harley Mashburn.

Mr. Robert Holland and wife and Mr. George Holland, from Nantahala, were visiting home folks last week.

Mrs. Russel is improving from an attack of illness.

Miss Annie Bell Mashburn and Mr. Henry Mashburn, from Franklin high school, spent the week end with home folks on Nickajack.

Mr. Gline Holland made a business trip to Franklin, Saturday.

Mrs. P. G. Holland was visiting her daughter, Effie Holland, at Franklin last week.

Rainbow Springs

Mrs. Alma White, of Barrett, West Va., arrived here last Friday night to be a guest at the Bryant home for a few days. Mrs. White was formerly Miss Annie Bryant.

We are glad to learn that Mrs. Tom Swanson, who has been quite ill, has improved much.

"Doc" J. W. Stanley, E. B. McCollum, and Jess Brooks motored to Franklin on a business trip last Thursday.

J. E. Danielson, Arch Bateman and family made a trip to Franklin for shopping last week end.

Mr. William Gilland, conductor in charge of Nantahala-Andrews trains, accompanied by his family, motored to Franklin last week end for shopping.

We wish Mrs. Ed Closer, who is quite sick, a speedy recovery.

Prentiss

Mr. C. W. Teague and son, Wilbur, are on a business trip in the North.

Mrs. Bertha Jennings has returned from Canton, where she has been visiting her brothers, Wiley and Weaver Donaldson.

The Women's Missionary society, of Union church, held its regular monthly meeting last Thursday at the school house with Mrs. Hunter.

Miss Carrie Moore is enjoying a new experience—that of raising chickens. She bought 100 "to practice on," and the ones that lived thru the recent cold snap are doing so well and growing so fast that Miss Moore says she wants to buy some more.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Long and little daughter, Grace, spent the week end visiting in the Middle Creek section.

Messrs. Will Singleton and John McConnell have gone to Pennsylvania on business.

Our county agent, Mr. F. S. Sloan, held a very interesting and profitable farmers' meeting at Prentiss last Friday. A goodly number of farmers attended the meeting and discussed various questions of particular interest in this section. It was decided to order a carload of lime for distribution at Prentiss.

Miller Ledford reported that he had already sowed seed for a tobacco crop.

Rev. Flanagan filled his appointment at the Presbyterian church Sunday afternoon, and the membership took this opportunity of lending sincere thanks to their pastor for his splendid co-operation in the work of remodeling and repairing the church.

The school children at Union are taking advantage of the spring weather by cleaning the school grounds and preparing to plant flowers.

Clear Creek

Mr. Ed. Potts was down on Clear Creek last week surveying some land for Messrs. Loney and Preston Neely; also some for Mr. E. P. Picklesimer.

Messrs. Lyman, John and E. P. Picklesimer have been plowing these fine days; also Messrs. Harrison, and George Talley have been plowing.

Mr. Mark Burrell has rented Mr. Jim Bryson's farm this year. Mr. Bryson is so feeble he can not work it any longer.

Mrs. R. P. McCall is getting her farming going well. Mrs. McCall is a widow, but a good farmer. She is always on time and never fails to put enough to her crop to make it.

Mr. Wiley McCall is making a fish pond and farming, too.

Aunt Sarah Ann McCoy, who has been very sick, is some better.

Mr. W. M. Cleaveland, of Highlands, has his saw mill down on Mr. Mack Wilson's farm sawing up his timber. Mr. Wilson is going to build a nice house and barn.

Mr. Preston Neely has moved back to his farm on Clear Creek.

Mrs. E. P. Picklesimer was visiting her aunt, Mrs. Sarah Ann McCoy, at Mr. John Nix's at Satolah, Ga., last week. She is very sick. Aunt Sarah Ann is a native of Macon county, age 95 the 10th day of last September.

Mr. Luther Picklesimer and Mr. Chas. Brook took a load of mica a few days ago to Sylva.

Mrs. Lawton James closed her school at Clear Creek, Feb. 3. She had a good entertainment, and a good dinner to finish up on. Several of our Highlands friends were down.

Highland Flings

Sarah Hicks Hines

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Tudor N. Hall, Feb. 18, a baby girl, Margaret Sara Hall.

Mr. Louis Ledbetter and Mr. Greene, of the Ligon and Ledbetter company, of Anderson, S. C., were guests at the Central house last Wednesday.

Mr. Samuel J. Reese died suddenly at his home Feb. 20. He leaves a wife and five children. The community deeply sympathizes with them in the loss of the husband and father. Funeral services were conducted Friday in the Baptist church by Rev. W. T. Potts. The Junior Order of U. A. M. assisted with the service. Interment was at the Highlands cemetery.

Mr. W. J. Smith, of Walhalla, was a business visitor in Highlands one day last week.

Miss Margaret Harry, of Walhalla, S. C., was in Highlands a few days last week. Her many friends are always glad to welcome her.

Mrs. James A. Hines returned to her home, Chestnut Burr cottage, Saturday after a two weeks' visit to her relatives and friends in the eastern part of the state.

Miss Bernice King and Miss Doris Floyd spent the week end in Seneca, S. C., the home of Miss King.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Anderson, their daughter, "Totsey," and Mrs. C. J. Anderson motored to Asheville, Saturday.

Mr. Wilton Cobb, cashier of the Highlands Bank, made a trip to Westminster, Wednesday of last week.

Mr. Frank B. Cook went to Greenwood, S. C., Sunday to attend the funeral of his cousin.

A large three-motored plane flew over this town one day last week. This may be a common occurrence for some towns but this was only the third plane to fly over Highlands.

Mr. L. W. Rice made a trip to Walhalla, S. C., Monday.

Mr. Z. B. Byrd, of the forestry service, was a guest at the Central house for a few days last week.

Mr. Henry West and Mr. Clyde Bingham, of Franklin, spent the week end in Highlands.

Col. Henry Robertson and Mr. J. Q. Pierson motored to Seneca, S. C., Friday of last week.

Cowee

Mr. Charles A. Browning, of Bryson City, was here last Sunday.

Mr. Joe H. Rickman was in Asheville a part of last week on business.

Mr. Alex Elmore visited friends in Gastonia last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Carlyle Sheffield, of Marion, N. C., are here for a visit with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Sheffield.

Mr. Charles B. Matlock, of Sylva, spent Sunday with home folks.

Mr. Vance Browning, clerk of superior court of Swain county, was a welcome visitor here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Grady Reyno, of Canton, spent a part of last week with relatives at Cowee.

Mrs. T. G. Dean, of Etna, visited her mother, Mrs. W. H. Morrison, of this place, Friday of last week.

Mrs. Grace Welch, of Canton, was here two or three days last week visiting her mother, Mrs. W. C. Sheffield.

Miss Virginia Rickman has been sick for several days. We are glad to know she is better.

Mr. Jesse Bryson and son, Norman, of Almond, were here last Sunday, visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Woodard, of Idaho, are here on an extended visit with relatives.

Mr. Judd Evans, of Canton, was here one day last week.

Messrs. Clyde Clark and Earl Rickman went to Waynesville, Monday of last week on business.

Mr. Baxter Smiley, of Bryson City, was a welcome visitor in here last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl V. Dalton, of Waynesville, spent the week end with Mr. Dalton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Dalton. Mrs. Dalton, before her marriage on Feb. 1, was Miss Edith Howell, of Waynesville.

Mr. Major Holbrooks, of Detroit,

(Continued on next page)