

HIGHLANDS—THE ROOF GARDEN OF THE SOUTHEAST

MACON COUNTY NEWS BRIEFS AS TOLD BY CORRESPONDENTS

RAINBOW SPRINGS—F. W. Tittle PRENTISS—Beatrice Gribble
WALNUT CREEK—Mrs. F. E. Mashburn
NORTH SKEENAH—W. R. Sanders
SHOOKVILLE—Marie Rogers
ELLIJAY—D. J. Moses
TELLICO—Vance DeHart
HOLLY SPRINGS—Faye Franklin
NORTON BRANCH—W. L. Carpenter
TESENTA—Mrs. A. C. Patterson
PATTONS—Mrs. R. A. Patton
OTTO—J. C. Bradley, Jr.
KYLE—Maude Lunsford
CULLASAJA—Mrs. Fred McGuire
FLATS—M. J. May
SCALY—Mrs. Irene James
STILES—Carl Morgan
CARTOOGECWAYE—Mrs. F. H. Nolen
UPPER IOTLA—Mrs. D. M. Rowland
WEST'S MILL—C. A. Elmore
CLEAR CREEK—Mrs. E. P. Picklesimer
AQUONE—Mrs. Craig Stepp
UPPER ELLIJAY—Blanche Mincy

AQUONE

Mr. Lee Russell and son, Austin, and Messrs. Carl Nelson and Jess Coleman are back from a visit with relatives at Gastonia, and Rock Hill, S. C.
 The friends of Mr. Robert Barnett are glad to see him out again after being confined to his home with sickness for several days.
 Mr. and Mrs. Henry Woods, of Kyle, visited relatives and friends in Aquone, the latter part of last week.
 Mr. Bradley, of Otto, has recently moved into our community.
 Mr. Dotson has taken a pulp wood contract with Mr. Holland, of Andrews, and has moved his family from Cartoogechaye to the Bill Drake place on Jarrett Creek which is right near his work.
 Misses Kate Parish, and Annie Laura Shields, teachers of the local school, spent the past week-end with home folks at Burningtown and Iotla.
 Mr. Eugene Roper, of Lexington, was back in Aquone last week.
 He is employed by the Nantahala Power and Light company for preliminary work relative to the removal of two cemeteries that the lake from the proposed dam two miles below Aquone will cover.
 Mr. Roper was quite busy in this section through the autumn and winter.
 The cemeteries have been surveyed and staked: showing 435 graves in the Nantahala cemetery, just above the Aquone bridge, and 18 in the Younce family cemetery near the mouth of Wine Spring creek.
 Land has been purchased for two new cemeteries, one at Kyle on the Aquone-Kyle road, on land obtained from Mr. Marion Mock, the other on the Murphy road between Aquone and Andrews on land obtained from Miss M. E. Ferguson.
 Mr. and Mrs. Tom Lambert announce the birth of a son, George Washington Lambert, on Feb. 22.
 Mr. and Mrs. Don Hughes are elated with the arrival of a new son, whom they call Dee.
 Mr. Turner Holland, of Andrews, was over the past week looking after his lumber interest. He has been forced to suspend hauling on account of bad roads.

PATTONS

Mr. Charlie Blaine and family have moved from their home to the Andy Henson place on the Georgia road. Arthur Blaine will move to the home vacated by his parents.
 Miss Myrtle Frances Wyatt, accompanied by Elizabeth Dowdle, Elizabeth McGuire, and Mary Jacobs hiked from Franklin, Saturday afternoon to visit Rebecca Angel and Helen Patton.
 Mrs. John Blaine, who has been suffering from an ankle that she hurt in a fall, is much better now.
 Mr. A. P. Angel visited his sister, Mrs. C. T. Roan, in Sylva, last Saturday.
 Miss Margaret Angel, came home from Sylva last Monday to visit her home folks a few days.
 Messrs. Bud Mashburn, Paul Patton and Cecil Pendergrass each have a flock of sheep in their pasture—with a number of lambs.
 Judging from the number of tobacco beds here the farmers are very much interested in growing tobacco this year.
 Mr. Harve Picklesimer has moved into the Zeb Clouse house.
 Miss Lillian Patton was home from her school at Hickory Knoll for the week-end and had as her guests Albert and Grace Rogers.
 Mr. Oscar Dobson sold a bunch of cattle a few days ago to Mr. Sam Henson from Jackson county. The truck load of them brought him $600.

NORTH SKEENAH

Mr. Lowren McConnell has got his crop of potatoes planted, and also his mustard bed sown.
 Mr. Freeman Hastings was in this section the past week and bought a cow and three calves from J. L. Sanders.

 Mr. Frank Shope visited his parents Saturday and Sunday. He went back to his job at Walhalla, S. C., Sunday evening.
 Mr. George Cabe, of Riverside, visited his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Sanders, Monday.
 Mr. Quince Shope went to Cullowhee, Saturday, and returned Sunday.
 Mr. J. C. Sanders was in Franklin on business Saturday.
 Mr. J. L. Sanders had a doctor with his children the past week. They have whooping cough.
 Mr. S. V. Stockton was in Franklin on business Monday.
 Mr. Erwin had the misfortune to get his foot cut last Tuesday.
 Mr. C. W. Teague was in this section Friday looking over the contracted roads.

FLATS

Messrs. J. C. Morgan and Porter Ayers made a trip to Robbinsville with a truck load of potatoes during the past week. Their potatoes brought them around $2 per bushel.
 Mr. J. M. Cochran (Uncle Coon) was down on the square shopping during the week-end.
 Mr. Tom Kannady, of Franklin, salesman for Mahoney-Jones company, was calling on the merchants of Flats during the past week.
 Born to Mr. and Mrs. T. O. Lambert, of Aquone, a fine boy, on Feb. 22.
 Mr. Clyde Dewese, of Hayesville, formerly of Flats, is visiting friends and relatives here.
 Mr. L. A. Boone's condition has improved quite a bit during the past few days. It is hoped that he will soon fully recover.
 Mr. T. C. McDonald, with Wafford Terrell company, was calling on the merchants during the past week.
 Mr. Johnnie Duvall, of Nantahala, was hurt a few days ago while laboring for the Nantahala Power company at Beecher.
 We understand that the Nantahala Power and Light company has its transmission line completed to Beecher and has begun work on the tunnel.

CLEAR CREEK

Mr. Preston Neely is building a kitchen to his house.
 Mr. Ed Henry, of Highlands, has been working for Mr. Preston Neely for the past two weeks helping him on his house.
 Mr. Stinson Neely is building a house on his farm.
 Mr. Mark Burrell made two business trips to Walhalla, S. C., last week with his horse team.
 Mr. Than Talley and Mr. Lyman Picklesimer have put logs to Mr. J. J. Smith's sawmill at Highlands for building purposes.
 Mr. Chas. Brooks, of Highlands, and Mr. E. P. Picklesimer have been putting logs into Mr. J. J. Smith's sawmill at Highlands for rebuilding purposes.
 Mr. Lyman Picklesimer and his wife went to stay all night with Mr. Picklesimer's parents Saturday night. While gone some thief, or thieves, broke in his chicken house by tearing off boards, and took one of his big hens.
 Mr. Hyatt Crunkleton, of Highlands, was visiting at Mr. John Nix's last week-end.
 We had a very interesting Grange meeting last Friday night at the school house. Three new members were added to our number, Miss Ida Hunter and Messrs. Maiden Stanfield and Lake Ledford.
 Miss Elizabeth Kelly had charge of the meeting and having just returned from Raleigh, was able to give us a brief outline of the state master's plans for North Carolina Grangers in 1930.
 Mr. Norman Mashburn, of Franklin, has moved back to his farm, in our community.
 Mr. Frank Carter, traveling salesman from Walhalla, S. C., was visiting Mr. D. C. Stockton last week.
 Mr. H. L. Ammons has the champion potato patch of our section. He has just finished planting fifteen bushels.
 Rev. J. L. Teague is planning to put in an acre of tomatoes for the canery.
 Mr. Dillard Frazier, of Seneca, S. C., is visiting his father, M. E. Frazier.
 Mr. Earl Henson, of East La Porte, was a business visitor to Prentiss, Saturday.
 Christine and Canon Guffie are recovering from an attack of mumps.
 Miss Marie Vanhook has gone to Highlands to visit her sister, Mrs. Lee Keener.
 Mr. and Mrs. Owen and small son, of Augusta, Ga., were visitors at Riverview farm last week.

KYLE

Mr. Andy Hughes, of Gainesville, Ga., was the week-end guest of Mr. Marion Mason.
 While pruning apple trees with an ax Mr. Dennis Younce cut his foot. He has not walked any yet, although the cut is thought not to be very serious.

Mrs. Mattie Clark was the week-end guest of her sister, Mrs. Lizzie Bateman.
 Mrs. Iva Lee Birch has been ill with "flu" but we are glad to know she is better.
 Little Miss Hazel Mason, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mason, got a painful though not serious injury when she fell Tuesday and stuck a stick in her neck.
 Mr. Harlie Younce spent the week-end with home folks. He has been working at Rich Mountain on a logging job. He returned Monday.
 Mr. Bill Cope is clearing land for his crop on Mr. Marion Lunsford's farm. Mr. Cope says he will make two hundred bushels of corn and beans, and pumpkins in proportion.
 Lee Baldwin made a business trip to Franklin, Monday.
 Mr. Regile, of Gainesville, Ga., was in Kyle last week prospecting for mineral on Mr. Jim Waters' farm.
 Mr. Anty Solesbee's house was broken into last Sunday while Mr. Solesbee was at church. Two razors and a pocket knife were stolen. It is reported that Mr. Solesbee knows who the thieves are.

WEST'S MILL

During the past week Mr. Grady Reyno and family have been making their headquarters at West's Mill. Their business was buying cattle. Mr. Reyno and Carlyle Sheffield made trips to Graham county, Nantahala, and other parts of Macon and adjoining counties. Mr. Reyno and family left for Haywood, Saturday, leaving the report that they would soon return. This is Mr. Reno's second trip to Macon on the cattle business.
 Mr. A. L. Clark and W. M. Queen are on a timber deal. Mr. Clark is in the sawmill business.
 Mr. J. B. Matlock went to Sylva last week on business.
 David Kindle is at West's Mill for a few days. Mr. Kindle is from Georgia, where he worked for Mr. D. L. Clark for about two years. He went back to Georgia about a year ago where he has been ever since.
 Mr. Hill Holbrooks has under construction, a new house near Harmony school at the site of the old house which was sometime ago burned down.
 Mr. Tom Shepherd, of Sylva, is here on business.
 Mr. Frank Holbrooks, of Buncombe county, is here in partnership with Mr. Shepherd.
 County Agent Fred Sloan met the farmers of Cowee township at West's Mill post office for a discussion on farm crops for the coming year.
 Miss Virginia Rickman is improving from sickness.
 Mrs. Margaret Shepherd, of Leatherman, is ill. Mrs. Shepherd is about 70 years of age.
 Mr. D. L. Clark and son were in Bryson City and Sylva, Saturday on a business trip.
 Charlie Shields has become a manufacturer of church benches.

SCALY

This community was saddened Sunday morning, March 2, by the death of Mr. Jeff Pierson. His death was not unexpected to his friends as he had been in failing health since he moved to this section a few weeks ago.
 He will be buried at the Fiat's Baptist church on Monday, March 3. He leaves besides his wife, one son, Roderich, of this place, and one in South Carolina.
 Born to Mr. and Mrs. Grover Johnson, on February 20, a baby boy.
 Miss Grace Billingsley has returned home from Easley, S. C., where she has been working for sometime.
 Messrs. Marshall and John Burnette made a business trip to Clayton, Ga., last Wednesday.
 Mr. and Mrs. Harley McCall and children from Clayton, Ga., visited Mr. McCall's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom McCall, one day last week.
 Mr. and Mrs. Edgar James made a business trip to Clayton, Ga., last Friday.
 Mr. Frank Blackwell spent a few days at Clayton court last week.
 Mrs. Will McClure, of Canada, N. C., and Mrs. Rockaway Mitchell, of Clayton, Ga., are spending a few days with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom McCall.
 Messrs. John Burnette and Ernest Vinson made a trip to Lowell, N. C., to bring Mrs. Burnette's sister, Edna McConnell, to spend the summer with them.
 Edna's mother died a few weeks ago.
 Mr. and Mrs. Fred Vinson, of Highlands, spent last week-end with Mr. Vinson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Vinson.
 Rev. W. T. Potts and his son, Arthur, of Highlands, were in this community on business last Tuesday.
 Miss Evelyn Vinson, who is attending school at Highlands, spent last week-end with home folks.
 Miss Annie McCall and her brother, Thomas, who have been working at Greenville, S. C., spent the week-end with home folks.
 Mrs. Jim Barnes had the misfortune of falling down stairs a few days ago. Although she received no broken bones, she suffered from the bruises.
 In spite of the snow and wind on March 2, a nice little picnic was enjoyed on top of Rabun Bald by Mrs. Irene James and a few friends, together with the fire guard, Robert Singleton.

 After the picnic dinner the party enjoyed listening to the string music made by Mr. Singleton.
 The thermometer registered fourteen above zero on top of the mountain that morning.
 Revenue Officers Tom Mitchell, Harley McCall and Miller Norton were in this section recently looking for stills. They failed to find any.

UPPER IOTLA

Mr. Bob Ray, of Cowee, spent the past week on Iotla looking after his mining interests. He returned to his home Saturday afternoon.
 Mr. and Mrs. Earl Smith and two children, of Asheville, are visiting at the home of Mrs. Smith's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Fouts.
 Messrs. W. T. Fouts and W. T. Roper made a business trip to Sylva, Monday of last week.
 Mrs. Nondus Fouts is visiting her parents at Proctor, N. C.
 Mr. John Parrish, of Rose Creek, was shopping at W. T. Fout's store Friday of last week.
 Mrs. Moses has recently purchased land from Mr. John Slagle on Upper Iotla and is building a bungalow, which will soon be ready for occupying.
 Little Ama Jean and J. L. Fouts, children of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Fouts, are very sick with whooping cough.
 Mr. Harry Ray, of Oak Dale, spent the week-end with his family on Iotla.
 Miss Enla Fouts returned home last Saturday after a two weeks' visit to relatives at Winston-Salem.
 Mr. John Younce, of Burningtown, was visiting on Iotla, Saturday of last week.
 Rev. Stanberry, from Dillsboro, filled his appointment at Iotla last Saturday evening, Sunday morning and Sunday evening. The next appointment was changed to the fifth Sunday in March, as the pastor wanted to be here for the all-day singing.
 The commencement exercises of the Iotla graded school will be held Friday and Friday evening, March 7.
 Miss Elizabeth Kelly was a business visitor on Upper Iotla one day the past week.
 Mr. Ernest Roper, of Rose Creek, was a business visitor on Iotla, Monday.
 Miss Clea Smith, who is attending the Franklin High school, spent the week-end at her home at Stiles.
 Miss Jennie Roper was visiting at Mr. James Swafford's on the Olive Hill road, Sunday.
 A doctor was called to the home of C. H. Fouts, Sunday afternoon to see little Roy, who was very sick.

NORTON BRANCH

Sunday school at Mulberry Methodist church is progressing nicely under the supervision of Mr. Marvin Howard. There were 44 present Sunday. Miss Lizzie Howard is supervisor of song service.
 Rev. James Vinson preached an interesting sermon to a large congregation at Newman's Chapel Baptist church Sunday morning.
 Miss Ella Bradley and Mrs. Lawrence Bingham attended the funeral Wednesday, Feb. 26, at Dillard, Ga., of their uncle, Sydney Bradley, who died Monday night of pneumonia. He leaves three sons, several grandchildren and a host of relatives and friends to mourn his loss.
 Mrs. J. R. Marvin was a visitor at Mrs. Henry Penland's of Riverside, Tuesday.
 Messrs. Claude and Thurman Henson made a business trip to Dillard, Ga., Friday.
 Messrs. Ralph and Ed Norton made a business trip to Franklin, Saturday.
 Mr. Lawrence Bingham was a visitor to his mother's in Dillard, Ga., Sunday.
 Several of our young folks attended a picnic at Estoh Falls Saturday. They were shown through the Estoh power plant while there.
 Miss Ella Bradley and Miss Inale Thomas were visitors at Mrs. Claude Bradley's, of Otto, Saturday.
 Miss Nellie Cabe, of Middle Creek, was a guest of her sister, Mrs. Ralph Norton, Saturday night.
 Mr. H. N. Thomas is setting up his sawmill at Riverside this week.

ROSE CREEK

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Houston were in Franklin on business Tuesday.
 We are glad to report that little Howard and Jessie Lee McMeans are on the road to health again.
 J. C. Hughes was visiting his daughter Sunday, Mrs. Edith Ammons, of Franklin, Route 4.
 Mr. Robert Downs and wife will soon move into their new residence on a portion of the Zack Downs farm purchased of Mr. Jim Parrish, recently.
 Mrs. P. L. Hughes, who has recently had a serious illness after waiting on sick folks, is able to be visiting.
 Mrs. Ida Southards has been seriously ill.
 Mr. J. C. Hughes is getting busy on cross ties again.
 Miss Helen Hughes, little daughter of Mrs. Pennie Hughes, is house-keeping and has been since her mother's illness.
 Mrs. Lousa Parrish has been very sick for some time.

Highland Flings

Sarah Hicks Hines

Judge H. L. Parry, of Atlanta, spent the week-end at Camp Parry-dise.
 The B. Y. P. U. of Highlands enjoyed a party Saturday night at the home of Miss Bessie Neely.
 The Rabun-Gap and the Highlands basketball teams met on the Highlands court Saturday afternoon. Although the Rabun-Gap boys played a good game, the Highlands team won with a score of 42-29.
 Mrs. D. C. Picklesimer, of Whiteside Cove, was a visitor in Franklin, Sunday.
 Miss Eleanor Cleaveland gave a delightful five-table bridge party at her home last Friday evening. Delicious refreshments were served.
 Miss Margaret Harry, of Walhalla, was a week-end visitor in our town.
 Miss Evelyn Cleaveland returned recently from a visit to relatives in Franklin.
 Miss Helen Holt and Mr. Lawrence Holt entertained their friends at a dance held at their home last Thursday evening. Delicious refreshments were served and everyone spent a very enjoyable evening.
 Miss Bernice King and Miss Doris Floyd spent the week-end in Seneca, S. C.
 Miss Rachel Davis, of the Franklin school faculty, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Davis.
 Mr. E. W. Oliver, representing the firm of Bishop and Babcock, of Greensboro, made a business trip to Highlands one day last week.
 Mr. Maurice Wagner, of Atlanta, spent a few days here last week.
 Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Root spent the week-end with Dr. and Mrs. Craig in Walhalla, S. C.
 The home of Mr. L. W. Rice was slightly damaged by fire Sunday morning.
 Mrs. Minnie Z. Edwards, Miss Margie Edwards, and Master Louis Edwards returned recently from a trip to Mayfield, Ga.
 Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Sullivan and Mr. and Mrs. Warren Thompson of Anderson, S. C., motored up to Highlands for the past week-end.
 Mr. B. H. Hickman, of Atlanta, was a week-end visitor in our town.
 The Highlands Merrimakers enjoyed a party at the home of Miss Caroline Hall and Mr. Jack Hall, Saturday evening.

SHOOKVILLE

Mrs. Elizabeth Morgan, of Glenville, visited her son, Mr. John Morgan, last week.
 Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Jennings and children, of Cullasaja, passed through this section one day last week.
 Mrs. A. E. Shook visited Mrs. Wesley Vaughn last Sunday.
 Mrs. R. C. Morgan, of Bessie, was visiting her sister, Mrs. W. E. Miller, Friday night.
 Messrs. Leonard Wood and George Barnes left last week for Bakersville, N. C.
 Mr. James Shook, who has been working in Whiteside Cove, is visiting his uncle, Mr. Alex Shook.
 Mrs. Luther Stewart and little son, Odell, of Norton, visited Mrs. Stewart's mother, Mrs. Mattie Moss, last week.
 Mr. N. F. Rogers, of Bakersville, was visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Rogers, last Friday.

UPPER ELLIJAY

Mr. John T. Henry has been very sick the past week.
 Mr. Jim Ammons got his foot mashed with a log at his sawmill one day last week.
 Mr. John Rickman has moved his sawmill from Moore's to Fred Taylor's.
 Mr. G. C. Mincy is building a new barn and apple house combined at the same place his barn burned down several years ago.
 Mr. Roy Holbrook and wife, of West Asheville, spent the night at C. G. Mincy's, Saturday night.
 Miss Kate and Callie Jones, of Walnut Creek, paid a visit to Mr. C. G. Mincy's, Saturday.
 Mr. Lester Mincy and Theo. Rogers made a trip to Walnut Creek, Sunday.
 Miss Clyde Berry, who is in training for a nurse, spent Sunday with home folks.
 Mr. H. M. Rogers and wife spent Saturday night with Mr. P. B. Williams.

CARTOOGECWAYE

Among those who attended the funeral service of Dr. Frank Siler at Junaluska, were Miss Emma Siler, sister of Dr. Siler, Mrs. Henry Slagle, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Slagle, Mr. and Mrs. Hal Slagle, and Mrs. Joe Setser.
 Mrs. Hattie Moore returned to Hayesville on Wednesday. Mrs. Moore spent the winter here and in Franklin with her daughters, Mrs. Jennie Nolen and Mrs. Burt Slagle.
 Mr. Robert Enloe came from Sylva Saturday to spend the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Enloe.
 Misses Carolyn and Frances Nolen, who are attending school at Franklin, spent Saturday night and Sunday with home folks.
 Mr. Earl Anderson left Friday to spend the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Anderson.