Girls' Contest Held

The girls' elimination contest in declaiming was held during the chapel period at the school March 19.

Those whom the judges decided were eligible to compete for the medal were Virginia Pierson, Louise Edwards, and Bess Hines.

This contest, like the boys' debate which occurred last week, was for the purpose of deciding which students were eligible to take part in the annual contest for the declaimer's medal which is presented in the spring.

The judges were Mrs. J. E. Root, Miss E. B. Durgin and Mrs. S. T. Marret.

Miss Bessie Neely, the winner of the medal last year, acted as chairman of the program.

Those who entered the contest and the subjects they chose follow:

Virginia Pierson, "The Trouble with Rastus;" Mary Paul, "The Drummer Lad;" Grace Wright, "How Tom Sawyer Whitewashed the Fence;" Louise Edwards, "Curfew Shall Not Ring Tonight;" Bess Hines, "The Kaiser's Dream;" Eva Potts, "A Rural Philosopher;" Louise Belle, "Moo, Cow, Moo."

"Mix Well and Stir!"

"Mix Well and Stir" will be presented at the school auditorium April 5 instead of March 29, as previously announced.

School Who's Who

The annual Who's Who contest was held recently among the High School students and the following were chosen: The most popular girl, Helen Holt; the most popular boy, Albert Wiley; the prettiest girl, Louise Edwards; the handsomest boy, Tearley Picklesimer; the best school spirit, (girl), Bess Hines; the best school spirit, (boy), Harry Wright; the wittiest girl, Bessie Neely; the wittiest boy, Herbert Rice; the best all-round girls, Mary Paul and Bessie Neely; the best all-round boy, Harry Wright; the best girl dancer, Louise Edwards; the best boy athlete, William Potts; the quietest girls, Kathryn Paul and Bess Hines; the quietest boy, Albert Wilson; the biggest flirt, Helen Holt; the school shiek, Albert Wiley.
