Davis-Awtrey Marriage Ceremony In Paris

Cordial interest centers today in the announcement made by Dr. and Mrs. Frank Clark Davis, of the marriage of their daughter, Miss Bonnie Sue Davis, and Mr. Hugh Rainey Awtrey, the wedding having been solemnized in Paris, France. The bride, a lovely blonde, was graduated from Lanier high school, later receiving an A. B. Degree at Wesleyan and M. A. Degree at Mercer university. For the last few years she has been an instructor at Lanier high school. Her only brother is Dr. Feltz Davis, who is studying at the Presbyterian hospital in New York.

Mr. Awtrey is a son of Judge and Mrs. John Awtrey of Franklin, N. C., formerly of Marietta, Georgia. He was graduated from Mercer university where he was a popular member of the A. T. O. fraternity. He later was professor of French at Mercer and a member of the editorial staff of the Macon Telegraph. Dr. Awtrey will finish his Ph. D. Degree at the Sorbonne June 1. He is now connected with the Paris edition of the New York Herald in Paris, France, where he and his bride will reside for the summer.—Macon Telegraph.

P. T. A. Holds Final Meeting

The P. T. A. held its final meeting of the school year Friday afternoon at the school house. The following officers were elected for next year: president, Mrs. J. E. Lancaster; vice-president, Mrs. Gus Leach; secretary, Mrs. George Dalrymple; treasurer, Mrs. Lyman Higdon; grade mothers' secretary, Miss Rachel Davis.

After the business meeting the ladies visited the Home Economics exhibit, where they were served delightful refreshments by Miss Minnie Grace Morgan and the girls of the Home Economics department.

Murray Boys Celebrate Birthday

About fifty small friends of Fred Joseph and John Gibson Murray assembled at their home last Saturday afternoon, when their mother, Mrs. Frank I. Murray, gave a party to celebrate their birthdays, Fred's tenth and John Gibson's seventh.

Several of the children's mothers were present who helped out with the games played on the lawn, also with the serving of the refreshments which consisted of ice cream, cake, and pop corn.

Ladies Attend

Home Economics Exhibit

The large number of ladies who attended the Home Economics exhibit at the school house Friday afternoon were much impressed by the very excellent work done by the department during the year.

The garments on display included dresses, underwear, children's clothing, and infants' layettes. The material for the layettes was purchased by the department and the garments are to be given to the Needlework guild.

The guests were served dainty sandwiches and punch by the girls.

Mrs. Ashear Gives Birthday Dinner

In celebration of the eighty-third birthday of her grandmother, Mrs. J. K. Bryson, Mrs. Joseph Ashear entertained more than 20 relatives and friends of the family at a birthday dinner at her home last Saturday. A delicious and bountiful dinner was served in the preparation of which Mrs. Ashear was aided by Mrs. Bob Parrish, Mrs. Grover Jamison, and Mrs. John Moore.

Angel-Howell Wedding Solemnized

Mr. Luke Howell, 71, of Franklin, and Mamie Angel, 49, of Franklin, were quietly married at the home of Oliver Ray on Bonny Crest on May 8, Rev. J. R. Pendergrass officiating. They will make their home in Franklin.

Methodist Women Plan Masquerade Party

The Methodist Sunday School Women's club will meet with Mrs. Sam Rogers at Roger's hall on Tuesday evening, May 27, at 8 o'clock for a masquerade party.

Christian Endeavor On Camping Trip

Miss Myrtle Wyatt chaperoned a number of young people, members of the Christian Endeavor of the Presbyterian church, on a camping trip to Wayah Bald last week-end.

Mrs. Charles H. Perry and son, Joe Drayton, arrived last week from Wilkesboro, where they have been living for the last six months.

Personal Mention

Mr. Hoyt Ledford, of Upper Cartoogechaye, spent last Saturday and Sunday with his cousin, Turner DeHart, of Franklin.

In behalf of the Home Realty and Auction company, Bob Patton invites every man, woman and child in Macon county to take off Thursday, May 22, and attend the all-day auction of the J. C. Guest farm (1 mile east of Franklin) and of the Jesse Sanders farm (4 miles south of Franklin).—Adv. 1tc

Mrs. John Awtrey has returned from points in Georgia, where she has been recuperating from her recent illness. Judge Awtrey who accompanied her to Atlanta is at Lake City, Fla., for three weeks' work.

A brass band to whoop up politics and entertain the guests of the Home Realty and Auction company will be a feature of the all-day auction of the J. C. Guest farm (10:30 a. m.) next Thursday, May 22.—Adv. 1tc

Mrs. J. T. Gribble, of Sylva, spent last week in Franklin with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Avery Cunningham.

Down to his shoe strings—all the personal property of Jesse Sanders, and also his farm, 4 miles south of Franklin, near Highway 285 will be sold to the last and highest bidder by the Home Realty and Auction company next Thursday, May 22, at 2:00 p. m.—part of an all-day auction. Help us celebrate.—Adv. 1tc

Clean up, paint up, polish up, fix up. Get ready for the summer. The Bargain Counter at the Macon County Supply Co., will supply the necessary equipment at greatly reduced prices. Adv. 1tc

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Dowdle and baby daughter left Sunday for Raleigh to visit Mrs. Dowdle's sister.

Mrs. Brown. They were accompanied by Dr. F. T. Smith, who will go on to Wilson to visit his daughter, Mrs. Fleet Scroggs.
