Seniors Entertained At Dinner Party

Miss Virginia Pierson entertained her fellow classmates, the high school graduating class, at a delightful dinner party given at the home of Mrs. W. S. Davis, Friday night.

The rooms were charmingly decorated with the class colors, purple and white carried out very effectively with purple irises and white snow-balls in bud vases.

Covers were laid for thirty-two persons, consisting of seniors, faculty and visitors. Among the visitors were Misses Rachel Davis, Maietta Bringle, Lilly Calloway and Myrtle Frances Wyatt of the Franklin school faculty, the Misses Herring, of Waycross, Ga.; Messers Frank Cook, Gene Murphy, Durand Wiley, Sidney McCarty and Rev. Raymond McCarty.

A tempting dinner was served, the ship motif being used for the attractive place cards made by Miss Louise Edwards.

Following dinner charades were played and amusing relay races were participated in by the guests. Finally everyone lined up for an old-fashioned spelling match and to the pupils' surprise and the teachers' chagrin, the faculty had to be seated first!

Short speeches were made by some of the members of the graduating class. Harry Wright is president of the class, Louise Edwards, secretary, Tearly Picklesimer, treasurer; and the others who graduate this year are Albert Wiley, Weldon Paul, Virginia Pierson, Bessie Neely and Elsie Crunkleton.

Baccalaureate Sermon

The first baccalaureate sermon to be held in Highlands for the graduating class was preached at the school auditorium Sunday morning by Rev. L. E. Crowsan. The scripture was read by Rev. Raymond McCarty and a prayer offered by Rev. W. T. Potts.

Rev. Crowsan's sermon, was very inspiring. He addressed the senior class on the subject of idealism. The singing was exceptionally good with every church here represented in the choir. The service was quite well attended, all the seats being filled.

Dance in Honor of Seniors

A highly enjoyable dance was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Zoellner, Saturday night, in honor of the graduating class. Four sets were danced to the splendid music and those present spent a thoroughly delightful evening.
