

NORTON BRANCH

Mrs. Virgin Norton of Dillard, Ga., is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Robert Howard, and Mrs. Lell Corn.

Mr. W. L. Carpenter was visiting his father at Mountain City, Ga., Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Bradley of Otto whose infant son died Wednesday, have the sympathy of a host of relatives and friends in this community.

Mr. and Mrs. William Carpenter gave a few young folks a square dance Friday night. Mr. Wiley Norton did the fiddling. Those present outside of the community were Messrs. Walter Blaine of Hopewell, Va.; Ted Blaine of Franklin; and Edd Henson of Otto.

TESENTA

Mr. and Mrs. James Wilson and children, and Mr. Walter Carrington of Commerce, Ga., spent Sunday with Mr. Wilson's mother, Mrs. James L. Buchanan.

Messrs. Hayse and Herman Buchanan spent Saturday night at Prentiss with their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Addington.

Mrs. Montgomery Miller of Scaly spent Saturday night with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Rogers.

Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Henry of Long Creek, S. C., visited Mr. Henry's brother, N. L., Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Justice of Rainbow Springs spent Sunday on Tesenta visiting.

Mr. Jack Mashburn has finished sawmilling on Buckeye and is making arrangements to move his sawmill to Middle Creek.

Mr. Richard Vinson of Tignall, Ga., has been visiting the past week at his uncle's, J. L. Vinson.

Mr. Horace Justice is able to be out again after having chickenpox.

Mr. Bascom Long's baby is very sick.

Mr. and Mrs. Harley Ledbetter of Cartoogechaye visited Mrs. Ledbetter's brother, Charlie Carpenter, Sunday.

Mr. John Smith has been sick for the last few days.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Justice entertained the young people of Tesenta with a music party Saturday night.

CULLASAJA

Mr. Gline Holland made a business trip to Franklin, Saturday.

Miss Kate Conley and little brother, Bill, from Hickory Knoll, were visiting Miss Hester Conley last week-end.

Miss Grace Bryson from South Carolina is visiting home folks on Bryson branch.

Miss Estelle Fletcher from Hickory Knoll was in this section last week.

Mrs. Mary Conley has returned home from Hickory Knoll where she has been visiting relatives.

Rev. Lyman Jollay is helping Rev. Farris run a revival meeting on Hickory Knoll.

Mr. Henry Conley made a business trip to Franklin last week.

Mr. Fred McGuire has returned from Highlands where he has been the past week.

POPLAR COVE

The baby son of Mr. and Mrs. Judson Dills has been very ill but is improving.

Mrs. Nellie Greenwood and her little son of Lower Cartoogechaye were visiting her parents of this section, Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Mamey Williamson and Mrs. Mattie Williamson were visiting in Franklin the past week.

Mr. O. L. Buchanan is having a lot of pulp wood cut on his place.

HURRY! HURRY!!

Friends: Workers Your Loyalty And Honor Is At Stake

We Traded Confidence With You When We Mutually Agreed To Work Together In This Campaign . . . You Owe It To Yourself . . . Your Friends . . . And To Us To Get Out And Show That You Are Worth Your Salt.

There is not a single candidate in our list today who could not get out and win First Prize in this campaign. It is within the reach of each and every one of them. Only one thing is lacking, and that one thing is DETERMINATION.

Not a day passes but that someone from this county . . . right at your home . . . if you please, comes into the office and subscribes to The Franklin Press. These are subscriptions and votes that ought to be yours, and which would be yours if you would only get out and go after them.

NO LUCK HERE

The winners of this campaign will not be "The Lucky Ones." There is no such thing outside the realm of fantastic imagination. Work, and Work alone is the only thing that will win. It is the only thing that will win in any endeavor, whether it be selling subscriptions to The Franklin Press, or winning the Democratic Nomination for Register of Deeds for Macon County. Candidates . . . don't sit and wait . . . get out and work. Show your friends and acquaintances that you think enough of their subscriptions to go after them.

WIN-WIN-WIN

Your friends who have already given you their subscriptions expect you to win, and you ought not to disappoint those friends. They have been talking for you. Week after week they have been bringing free coupons clipped from the paper with your name written on them. They are working for you. What are you doing for yourself?

The Big First Period of the campaign is closed . . . the candidates now enter the second period with no one candidate or group of candidates showing a lead that will not be hotly contested before the close of the campaign. It is comparatively easy and entirely probable that any of the lower candidates step out and take first honors. It Can Be Done . . .

ARE YOU A WINNER?

OR

ARE YOU A QUITTER?

NO TORTOISE EVER SLEPT BY THE ROADSIDE AND WON A RACE . . .

Candidates . . . those of you who entered this campaign with the best of intentions, but who have been sleeping by the wayside . . . we say! Wake up and get busy. This is no lucky proposition . . . you are not going to win by your Faith in lucky numbers. This is a business proposition . . . not the fulfillment of a superstition. You are in the Campaign, and we have shown our confidence in you . . . WE HAVE DEPENDED ON YOU. Now you owe it to yourself; you owe it to your friends; and you owe it to us to prove that you are NOT A QUITTER.

Subscribe Now . . . Folks!

Someone must win it, and that someone might just as well be your friend and favorite candidate. Readers . . . this is a gigantic undertaking. It is an unequalled opportunity for that friend of yours who is working so hard to forge into the lead before votes go down. Help him or her along with a long term subscription, and do it now while your subscription counts BIG.

You have a need for The Franklin Press. You need it because you are a prominent citizen of the county which it strives to represent, and because it is your duty as a prominent citizen to keep abreast of the progress in your county. Twenty-six rural correspondents keeps you posted on all the happenings in all the different sections of the County, and there are many other features which you will enjoy and which will more than repay you the small cost of a subscription.

. by merely watching the merchants' advertisements from week to week . . . you will save many times the cost of a subscription. In addition to the many enjoyable features of The Press you can actually save money by subscribing.

We are giving $1,500.00 in rich prizes to the enterprising people in this section to solicit subscriptions. You have a friend or an acquaintance in this big campaign, and that friend or acquaintance deserves and will deeply appreciate your support. Read the list of workers and make up your mind today . . . to give your favorite candidate a Big Five-Year Subscription to The Franklin Press.

GIVE A LONG TERM SUBSCRIPTION AND HELP YOUR FAVORITE WIN

CAMPAIGN DEPARTMENT

THE FRANKLIN PRESS

