Highlands is having a better season than it has enjoyed for years at present, all the hotels being booked practically to capacity and summer homes not only occupied by their owners, but friends and relatives as well.

The public dances which are held in the Red Cross Hall several times a week and the well attended movies entertain the large summer population, besides the numerous parties, picnics, and drives, to say nothing of golfing, tennis, swimming, and horse-back riding, all of which are popular sports here.

WE WONDER WHY?

This page had been definitely set aside for Highlands news and advertising. For some reason, better known to our Highlands representative than to us, this week's run did not get here in time for us to get it into the paper, notwithstanding the fact that we held the paper a whole day waiting for it. This afternoon a phone message from Highlands informed us that the copy was on the way down here from Highlands. We promise to get right in behind this thing hereafter in order to prevent, as far as lies within our power, such a contingency happening again.—Editor.

Clasp the hands behind the neck and repeat the rotating exercises. Stretch the arms above the head, and, holding the lower part of the body still, bend forward and touch the toes, without bending the knees.

BAKED HEART

For this, use two calves' hearts or one beef heart. Soak the heart in warm water for one hour, changing the water twice during the process. Cut away the tough outer openings and fill with well seasoned bread stuffing, and place in casserole or other covered baking dish. Pour around the hearts three cups of liquid, either hot water or beef stock.

Vegetables may be put around the hearts to cook in the casserole if there is room—two sliced carrots, two onions, two turnips, four potatoes. Their oven for two hours or until tender. When you have removed the hearts and the vegetables, thicken the gravy left in the pan and add three tablespoons of catsup to it, to pep it up.

EASING UP

The housewife who wants to give herself a little vacation can find many ways to slacken the tension of the day's routine and cull spare hours for rest and play, if she will but apply her thought to it.

Fishermen Guessing

Jim Roper, Paul West and Guy Houk who consider themselves the best fishermen in Macon county are wondering just where the fish have gone. The most enticing lures of these disciples of Sir Izaak Walton fail to get a strike. All kinds of excuses are offered and many are the conjectures as to the whereabouts of the finny tribe. A ten-year-old boy out on Rabbit creek probably has the answer. This youngster goes down to the lake most any day and catches half a bushel of bream. It is just possible that the premier fishermen have not yet learned the art of fishing.

FISHING SEASON IS EXTENDED

RALEIGH, Aug. 18.—A shorter closed season which will permit fishermen to indulge in their favorite sport on Easter Monday and uniform closed seasons on fishing to make possible a more effective protection of fish during the spawning period are important features of changes recently made by the Board of Conservation and Development at its semi-annual meeting at Morehead City.

Under the new regulations, the closed season on fishing will not begin until May 1 instead of April 20 as has been the law previously. This closed season applies to all species of game fish except the trouts of Western North Carolina whose spawning season comes during a different period of the year. The period of the year in which these types of fish are protected extends from September 1 to April 15 of the following year.

The general closed season will extend from May 1 to June 10, giving a 40-day protected period in the future in the place of 50 days heretofore.

Another new regulation also prohibits the taking of fresh water fish in commercial waters during the time that the season is closed in inland waters.

Seining will continue under the ban in inland waters following action of the board in denying requests that special permits be granted for this privilege in certain state. The board took the viewpoint that as a wholesale method of taking fish, seining is unfair to the great masses of fishermen whose opportunity for sport would be spoiled when waters are depleted by those who would exercise the privilege if seining were permitted.

Collections from anglers' licenses this season are said by officials to be well ahead of last year, having reached approximately $30,000. The State law requires that every person who fishes in any other except his home county must take out a State license. However, the license requirement has been extended to include all fishermen in 26 counties. Fishermen, it is said, should ascertain if their county is among these.

SPANISH SAUCE

In this stir gradually a cup and a half of top milk and stir over the fire until the sauce boils. Add a can of finely chopped pimientos, a teaspoon of salt and a dash of pepper.

If cream cheese is mixed with this, it makes a delicious sandwich spread.

The addition of lime to lead-arsenate sprays for apple trees will prevent arsenical injury when the fruit is washed. If abundant fresh water is not available for rinsing, injury from soluble arsenic can be avoided by a lime-water rinse.

The truest way to reduce the girth is to eat less, but exercise helps, and it also aids in making one graceful and the body supple. For the waist-line, besides the exercise of restraint in eating, try the following exercise: Stand erect with feet four inches apart. Stretch the arms above the head and bend the upper part of the body as far as possible to the right, then forward, to the left and backward, making a circle with the trunk. Repeat from five to twenty times, according to your strength.
