

Giant Zeppelin Constructed for Sensational Wreck in "Madam Satan"

"C. B. P-55," the very latest thing in giant Zeppelins is to make its appearance in Franklin for three days beginning Monday.

This notice does not say that the great aerial craft will appear overhead, in fact its appearances will be entirely confined to the Macon Theatre, where it will be seen in exciting scenes of "Madam Satan," Cecil B. De Mille's new Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer comedy with music.

The C. B. P-55 is in proportionate length approximately 750 feet long, big enough to allow hundreds to dance aboard it at a masked ball, interrupted by the tearing loose of the ship from its mast, and is sensational "crack-up" in mid-air. The guests descend from the craft in parachutes, swung in holes along the top of an outside deck. It is aboard the "C. B. P-55" that "Madam Satan" makes her tempestuous entrance into the life of Bob Brooks, and into this plot of modern times and ultra-modern romance.

The story is by Jeanie MacPherson, with dialogue by Gladys Uner and Elsie Janis. Dance numbers were directed by Leroy Prinz, with Theodore Kosloff dancing "Electricity" in "Ballet Mechanique."

The featured players are Kay Johnson, Reginald Denny, Roland Young, Lillian Roth.

Eight liting musical numbers are provided by Herbert Stothart and Clifford Grey; Jack King and Elsie Janis. Abe Eymann's band is seen and heard in the Zep sequence.

Letter From a Man in Jail

November 29, 1930.
Franklin, N. C.

Dear Friends:

I hope this will be of some great help to every one that reads what I have to say—what God has done for me. I am more than sorry to be in the place I am in but I am glad to say that God is with me, and on the 15th day of November I was waiting for trial in Franklin jail and on that day I was all alone in a cell, and I was heart-broken and felt as if I did not have any friends so I got on my knees by the little bed and asked God to forgive me and He did, and I asked Him to stand by me in my trouble and to be my judge when I was tried and He did. So I am going to serve God the rest of my days. God is my friend and I love Him and He is my helper and thank God today. I am going to serve Him and dear friends, I want the good people to pray for me and tell to the world what God can do.

Dear friends I wish I could go to the church to night and tell what a friend God has been to me by just only asking Him. Dear friends if you are in trouble and over burdened just ask God to help you, and He will help you and when all the world may forsake you God will be with you if you will only accept Him as your Saviour.

I am trusting in God and hope this will be of some great help. I ask you all to remember me and come and pray with me.

I am yours respectfully,

JOHN W. WALDROOP.

MONEY SAVED

It's money saved
To mend your shoes
It's money lost to put it off,
For you, perhaps
Might take the blues
And even worse
The whooping cough.

FORCED TO RETIRE

DR. ARCH HUTCHINSON,
D. D. S., says he regards
new Sargon as real triumph of Science.

"Up to a few years ago I practiced my profession in Seattle, Washington, where I had a large and lucrative practice. On account of poor health I was forced to retire.

"For four years my strength and vitality declined steadily. I traveled from place to place in search of health but continually grew worse.

"The Sargon Treatment completely restored my health. The way it restored my energy and vitality is nothing short of remarkable. I feel better than for twenty years and attribute my present good health to this great medicine. I regard it as a real triumph of Science."

Dr. Hutchinson now resides at Palo Alto, California.
