Four Couples Honored At Honeymoon Party

A honeymoon party was given by Miss Carolyn Nolen and Miss Elizabeth Slagle at the home of the former on Cartoogechaye last Wednesday night, honoring the newly weds on Cartoogechave.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Crawford, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Ledford, Mr. and Mrs. John Southards and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wilhide. The guests were seated on benches in a semi-circle on the lawn and the newly-weds were asked to tell their experience of married life and to give some adv e to the single couples. Wedding Ring Cupids Magic Arrow, and other games were played, and the brides' trunks trip. This was a humorous game which afforded much laughter. Then the grooms got their brides, the husbands their wives and the single boys their best girl and everybody went on the honeymoon.

Signs were put up about the place, which gave the directions. After the couples had passed through Lovers' Lane, climbed Sugar Plum Hill, visited the Blue Heaven and climbed the Step of Happiness, they entered the Bridal Tower room. Here they found a large table with a golden wedding Hazel Penland honored Mrs. Arbell trimmed with bride's roses mour G.
