

Our Pledge on Armistice Day

We, who faced the sacrifices and sufferings of war, now head into Peace with the same high courage. We have only to think of our martyred dead and their bereaved, we have only to be reminded of the single-hearted purpose for which these heroes bled. Victory has but deepened our responsibilities. Out of this memory of war's anguish and in a renewed declaration of our faith and pride in the World Peace for which all America fought, we pledge our Pledge for this Armistice Day of 1945.

We pledge to Peace and to its principles, the same fervent devotion which fired our war aims.

We pledge continued dedication to our democracy and its preservation in Peace as in War . . . no matter how great the struggle.

We pledge an unwavering vigilance against any possible forces of aggression and oppression, both at home and abroad.

We pledge to Peace a fulfillment of the promises made in war . . . a safe, sound America where man can live in dignity . . . free from fear and want.

We pledge to work and build as we never worked and built before, that Civilization may rise to new heights of glory.

We pledge to invest in permanent World Peace by buying Victory Bonus . . . regularly, gladly.
