First Wrestling Match Of Season At WCTC Is Scheduled For Feb. 8th

A wrestling match between the Western Carolina Teachers College team and Knoxville "Y" will be held in the Breeze Gymnasium Saturday night, February 8. The meet has been set for 7:30 and Coach C. C. Poindexter of Canton will referee the match.

Coach McKinley Hensley, who is in charge of wrestling at W.C.T.C., has been working with his team this year so that by another year, wrestling can be added to the athletic schedule. This will be the only meet scheduled for this year, and for that reason the school feels that if the demand is large enough it will be put on a full time basis in 1948.

Coach Hensley was on the last team at W.C.T.C., and this team defeated Knoxville "Y" in 1942.

Several of the football stars of the past season will see action. Dan Robinson, big tackle, Jim Bryson, fullback, Harry Duke, half back, and Tom Garland, center. In the 128 pound class Lane Arrington was on the 1943 team, Garland, 165 pounder, has seen navy action.

Coach Bob Maher of Knoxville "Y" will bring an experienced squad of men, which have had meets with all of the colleges from the Southeastern Conference. Vanderbilt, Kentucky, and Tennessee have all had close matches with this team.

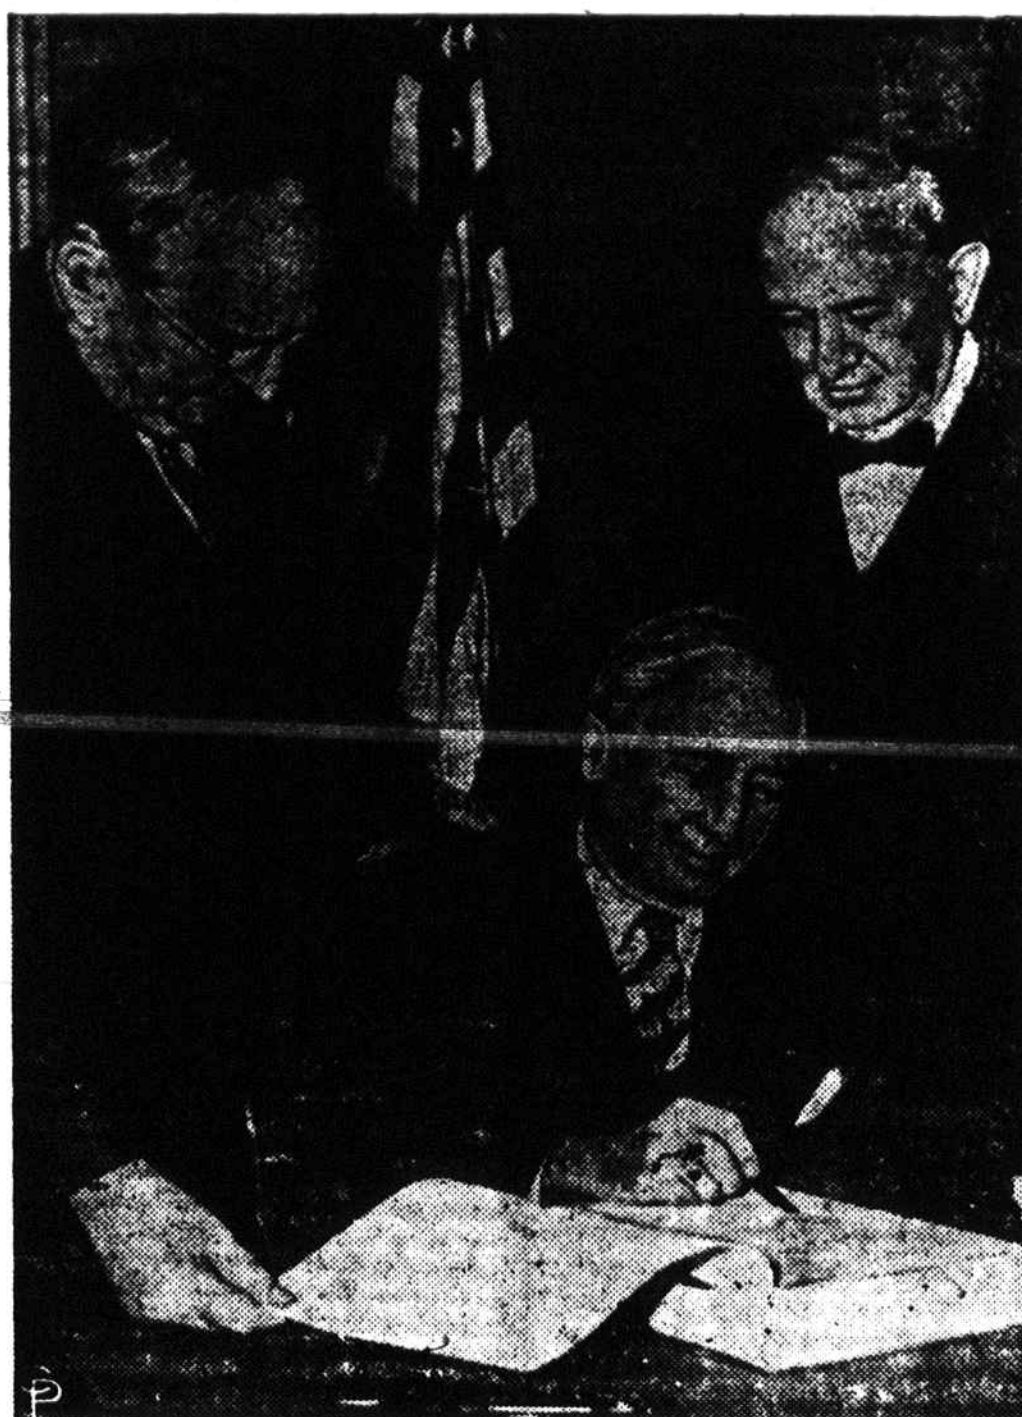

Men who will see action Saturday are Arthur Johnson, 121 lb.; Lane Arrington or Ray Tweed, 128; Harvey Carpenter, 135; Tom Rea or Joe Bennis, 145; Harry Duke or Grady Anderson, 155; Tom Garland, 165; Jack McCracken, 175; Dan Robinson or Jim Bryson, heavy-weight.

C—Allen (4) (12) Phillips—C
G—Davis (2) (4) B. Phillips—G
G—Rogers (6) (13) Rector—G
Subs: Robbinsville—Walkingstick, Sylva—McClure, Fisher, Morgan 13. A new player, Morgan, who was added this week, played a good floor game.

Rabbi Weiss Will Speak At WCTC Chapel Program

Rabbi Joseph I. Weiss, of Temple Oheb Shalom, Goldsboro, will be the speaker at the Western Carolina Teachers College chapel program at 1:30 p. m. February 4. Rabbi Weiss will talk under the sponsorship of the Jewish Chautauqua Society, and his topic will be "The Development of the God Idea in Judaism."

Rabbi Weiss graduated from the University of Cincinnati with a B. A. degree in 1934, and was later ordained Rabbi by the Hebrew Union college in Cincinnati. In 1943 he received his Ph. D. from Webster University.

He was Rabbi of Temple Oheb Shalom, Goldsboro, from 1939 until 1943, when he entered the United States Army as a chaplain. After serving in the army for three years, part of which was spent in the South Pacific, he returned to Temple Oheb Shalom.

Sgt. Nations Rejoins Army For Five Years

Staff Sergeant Howard Nations, who served five years with the U. S. Army in Egypt, Liberia, Naples, Foggia, Rome, Averno, North Apperines and Po Valley, has volunteered for another five years, after having had his discharge for more than two years.

Sgt. Nations wears the American Defense medal, Legion of Merit Badge, Good Conduct Medal, and EAMET Campaign medal with five stars.

Mrs. Nations, the former Miss Hazel Churchill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ollie Churchwell of Tuckaseegee, joined her husband last week at Fort Bragg where he will be stationed.

Sgt. Nations is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Nations of Barkers Creek.

one of the best in this section of the state.

A large number of representatives from the 35 Sunday schools making up the association are expected to attend this important meeting.

During the first two weeks in February a special effort is underway to go into each church and
